

LEARN TO BE SATISFIED.

LET us learn to be satisfied with whatever heaven sends us. Today we yearn for a thing, tomorrow we have it and are not content. We want it a little different from the particular form in which we received it. We are never satisfied with what we have. The great lesson of life is to learn to submit our human wills to that of the Divine. Christians sometimes think their prayers are never heard. Let me tell you no prayer ever goes unheard. The suppliant may not realize the answer, but his prayer is not lost. Something infinitely better than that for which he asked may have been given him. Whatever God sends His children is for the best.

TRUE WEALTH.

WE may not all be rich 'tis true, and perhaps 'tis pity that 'tis true. You may have discomfort and struggle, possibly more storm than sunshine, a weary road to travel through these narrow years, but be sure of this, as sure as you are of the wisdom of God, that an honest man with a clean soul is worth more than all the wealth that excites our envy or stimulates our jealousy. To stand square with the law of justice and sympathy and fidelity, to be a hero because you are unsoiled by deeds which sting with the painful sting of a wasp, is to lay up a treasure of which death cannot rob you, and which will lift you out of the grave laden with the blessing of God.

IF you don't reverence silence you will lose prayer, recollection, holy inspiration. Get the habit of talking to God about everything.

WHEN God thought of Mother, Heaven must have rejoiced — so rich, so divine, so deep, so full of soul, power, and beauty, was the conception.
