MISS F. E. CARROLL
Lady Principal

The Rev. J. E. Mayne Young, Rector of St. Saviour's, York, who died lately, had served under six Archbishops of York, viz., Musgrave, Longley, Thomson, Magee, MacLagan and Lang.

A Remarkable Series of Presentations.—The Rev. F. W. Dwelly, who is leaving the curacy of St. Mary's, Windermere, on account of the resignation of his Vicar, has received a large number of presentations: from the congregation, cheque for £420 5s. 6d. and diamond and sapphire pendant for Mrs. Dwelly. It will be remembered that this parish recently raised £450 for the rebuilding of Uganda Cathedral.

At a recent gathering in connection with St. Margaret's Sunday School, Whalley Range, the Rector (the Rev. W. J. Canton) presented six long-service medals to teachers in the school. The Bishop of Manchester had decided to present silver medals to teachers who had been connected with a school for a period of fifty years, and a bronze medal to those with over twenty-five years' service. Amongst the presentations he was going to make was one silver medal to Mr. H. G. Willis, who had fifty years' service to his credit, and bronze medals to Mr. G. Botham (forty-six years), Mr. W. Groves (forty-four years), Mr. M. Vickers (forty-nine years), Mr. B. Marchant (thirty-nine years), and to one lady teacher. It was pointed out that these six teachers had together an aggregate number of years' service in Sunday School work of 253 years, and of this aggregate 178 years had been spent in St. Margaret's Sunday School.

A handsome cross has been erected in front of St. Raphael's, Bristol, in memory of the late Rev. A. H. Ward, who was the first vicar of the parish.

The King has been pleased to approve of the appointment of the Rev. James Gilliland Simpson, D.D., Canon of Manchester, to be Canon of St. Paul's in succession to Canon Scott Holland. The new Canon of St. Paul's is a graduate of Oxford University, where he took two first classes. He is forty-five years of age. Dr. Simpson was ordained to a curacy at Leeds Parish Church, where he had as a colleague the present Archbishop of York. Three years later he was appointed Vice-Principal of the Edinburgh Theological College, and, in 1895, became Rector of St. Paul's, Dundee. In 1900, he returned to Leeds as Principal of the Clergy School, where he remained for eleven years, and Lecturer of the parish church. Here his power in the pulpit became very marked, and he exerted a powerful influence on the men who came under him. He has great powers as a preacher, is an ardent temperance advocate, and has much sympathy with social reform. The appointment is looked upon as an admirable one in every way, and has caused general satisfaction. It is interesting to remember that Dr. Simpson, whose service at Edinburgh and Dundee had not been forgotten by Scottish Churchmen, was last year brought forward in connection with the See of Edinburgh, vacant by the death of Dr. Dowden. The voting for him and Dean Skinner Wilson was decisive, and the election was postponed. Finally Canon Walpole was elected Bishop of Edinburgh.
