

MORE DEATH ON THE LARKS. Loss of the Georgian Bay Steamer "Simon" - A List of Her Officers and Crew.

A telegraphic message was received on Friday by Mr. Hagarty, of the firm of Hagarty & Green, about the steamer "Simon." This vessel was one of the Collingwood and Chicago line, and was known to have sailed from Chicago with cargo of 13,000 bushels of corn, on Sunday to Goderich & Wrote, of Toronto. The message received on Friday was from the captain of the steamer Canada, at Chocoma, stating that the vessel was on a telegraphic from Collingwood, and it will be perceived that the fears for the safety of the missing ones are not exaggerated.

Collingwood, Nov. 25.-A private dispatch received this afternoon from Captain Rish, of the Canada, from Chocoma, says that the vessel was in command of the Georgian Bay Transportation Company, to the effect that he had passed a pilot-house and portions of wreckage of the steamer Simon, and also picked up the captain's desk, containing books, papers, etc., at Michaela Bay. The steamer left Chicago last Friday, a week ago to-day, laden with grain, pork, and corn, for this port. The steamer is now overdue three days, and the owners are waiting for news from her.

A Dublin despatch says: - Captain Boycott has quit the country for England, sooner than he had intended, as he received a threatening letter from a gentleman in this city where he was staying. Boycott was followed to his hotel recently by forty hooding ruffians. The proprietor of the hotel received a message from the priest of Balinrobe has received from Monaghan a message threatening him with instant death in the event of Boycott being killed.

A telegram from Waterford to a Dublin newspaper says arms are being sold for export to the extent of the whole country is armed to the teeth. The prisoners from four counties will be sent to Waterford on Monday next for trial, including the men charged with the murder of Mr. Boyd. A disturbance is possible. The Marquis of Salisbury at Woodstock last night attacked the Eastern and Irish policies of the Gladstone Government with great severity. Lord Salisbury defended the Gladstone policy, and the establishment of a peasant proprietary would be a success for Irish life. He virtually admitted that he had only a faint faith in the Gladstone policy. He declared that the Government's policy could never be successful in its attempt to deal with the land question. He said that the Government's policy was a failure, and that the Government should be held responsible for the present state of affairs. THE THAMES BOAT RACE. Fleet against Rose - Trickett Wins - A Boat Called and the Race was a Handicap for Agains. London, Eng., Nov. 23.-In the Thames boat race, today, over the Thames course, Trickett beat Rose only, but in consequence of a foul the latter decided that the men must row over again. Two to one was freely offered on Rose, but without success. The attendance was very thin. The sportsman says neither Trickett nor Rose are in very good condition, though both did good work. The start was a good one, when the boat immediately went a length or more ahead and maintained this lead to Hammermith, where a foul occurred. Trickett, at this point, touched the boat. It was a good race after this to the top of the Hammer-Epp, where Trickett took the lead, and all Bridge crossed away from Ross, who was beaten. Trickett finished, and was an easy winner, by four lengths. Trickett and Rose rowed again at 2.30 p. m. on Saturday. Time of race to day 30 minutes, 23 seconds. The tide was very poor.

A MATCH ARRANGED BETWEEN HANLAN AND LAYCOCK to-day between Hanlan and Laycock to be rowed on the Thames; a race to be held on Saturday, 29th. At a meeting held this afternoon at the Sportsman office, the articles of agreement were signed for the sculling match between Hanlan and Laycock, and the match was arranged to take place on January 17th, at 2.30 p. m., for £200 a side. The "Challenge" was accepted by Laycock. The £200 a side, and the balance is to be paid on the 6th of January. The President of the American Rowing Club, Hanlan, has accepted the challenge, and has offered a prize of £200 to the winner. Laycock's friends in Australia have furnished over £200 to make up his share of the stakes.

BEACONFIELD'S NEW NOVEL. It is not strange that Lord Beaconsfield's new novel, or rather his old novel, which the versatile statesman has seen fit to furnish up and make public at this time, should cause a sensation, and that Beaconsfield's strong turn for personality is allowed, we are told, full swing in Melbourne, and that the London edition is not to be obtained for the match he did not consider the offer of a prize necessary. Laycock's friends in Australia have furnished over £200 to make up his share of the stakes.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT WESTON. The extensive woolen mill owned and run by Mr. Oliver Wilby, at Weston village, was destroyed by fire on Thursday morning. Since the adoption of the "National Policy" the mill has afforded constant employment to 50 operatives. It is the largest building on the property, and it is a magnificent structure. Its origin is supposed to have been from friction caused by the main belt slipping from the wheel in a temporary stoppage of the machinery, which was due to the fact that the machinery was not properly oiled. The fire broke out at 11 o'clock, and was extinguished after a long and successful struggle.

ELIMIA WANTS THE C. V. R. extended from Kila to that village. A sad case is reported from Paris, On Mrs. Patterson, an old lady of 67, being burnt to death through her clothes catching fire.

MR. Alexander McCrae, the Sarnia township farmer, who was found by his own home with his throat cut, on the 11th ult., died at his residence on the 25th of November. The County Attorney, F. Bucke, and Coroner Dr. A. G. Fraser, on receipt of the news, at once proceeded to McCrae's residence, and held an inquest. The following verdict was returned: - That the deceased was killed by Alexander McCrae, came to his death by his throat being cut by some person or persons to the jury unknown.

MR. J. Hemphill has purchased the farm of Mr. D. Shaver, who has removed to Warton. The price paid for the fifty acres was $1,800. Much to the regret of the people of the section, the trustees of Donegal school have decided to purchase the farm of Mr. J. Hemphill, who has been engaged for next year.
