THE ATTENTION OF THE WHOLE WORLD IS CENTRED ON MEXICAN EVENTS

HUERTA TO HAVE 400,000 MEN IN THE FIELD

Mexicans are Expected to Make Attack on Vera Cruz at an Early Date.

MEXICO POSES AS CHAMPION

Of all Latin America and Expresses Determination to Fight to the Bitter End.

Vera Cruz, April 23.—All was quiet early to-day, with armed forces of the United States preserving discipline among city officials, as well as private citizens, but the marines and blue-jackets who have faced the bullets of the snipers for two days do not believe that their work is very near completion.

The city was quiet last night, but in view of developments in Mexico City, and an attack on the important seaport, in an effort to drive the Americans out would not surprise the men here.

Will Have 400,000 Men

Huerta is reported to have said that he will have 400,000 men in the field within twenty days. He is quoted as having declared that Mexico is not only defending her national sovereignty, but that of all Latin-America.

Want The Cheap Rate Maintained

English Postmaster General Asked to Help Canada Out on Magazines.

London, April 23.—The British Postmaster General received to-day a deputation, representing every newspaper interest here, who appealed to him to make some concessions to the Canadian Government in order to maintain the cheap rate for British magazines for Canada, as the Dominion is now hearing the whole of the reduction.

Mr. Hobhouse thought the trade ought to meet the Post Office in some way and this suggestion will be considered before another meeting is held.

TO-NIGHT'S CONCERT

The members of St. George's Club are holding a concert at the Grenfell Hall to-night, which is in aid of the Disaster Fund. An interesting program has been arranged.

HOME RULE SHELVED FOR NEXT FORTNIGHT

Couple of Weeks to be Taken up With Consideration of Welsh Dis-establishment Bill.

UNIONISTS MAKE SUGGESTIONS.

Unlikely that There Will be Conference Between Leaders in the Near Future.

London, April 20.—Despite rumors to the contrary, it is not expected that the Home Rule Bill will come up for further discussion until the end of the present month, or the beginning of May. Next week and the following week are already practically mortgaged for the Welsh Bill and the Budget and in the meantime, a long series of questions have been drafted dealing more particularly with naval preparations. By Mr. Churchill for the "protection of stores and ammunition in Ulster." Questions have been put to the Prime Minister with a view to ascertaining who was expected to take the initiative in making "suggestions" in regard to Ulster. Mr. Asquith assured the House that the Government would announce the form which these should take "in due course."

No Conferences.

It is apparent that no conversations between the leaders are immediately possible, if they take place at all. Suggestions continue to be framed by the Unionists. Mr. Cassel has drafted one providing that members returned from Ireland, after Home Rule, shall not be entitled to deliberate or vote on any bill, motion, or resolution relating exclusively to Great Britain.

Godfrey Locker Lampson suggests the withdrawal of Customs and Excise and Post-office service from the purview of the new Parliament, while James Hope wants to indicate to the Lords that they may exclude Ulster from the bill and include the judiciary, including the county court judges, as matters reserved to the Imperial Parliament.

STATES SENDING MORE SOLDIERS TO VERA CRUZ

Big Military Movement is to be Made on Mexico by American Republic.

EMBARGO REPLACED ON ARMS.

Forces at Border Points are Being Reinforced With Thousands of Men.

Washington, April 23.—Troops are being moved to-night to reinforce the navy at Vera Cruz, and the embargo on arms into Mexico has been formally restored.

Troops have also been ordered to the Mexican border to relieve uneasiness among border residents, and also as a precaution against hostile and military operations along the international line.

Secretary Garrison has announced that a brigade of infantry has been given orders to embark on four army transports at Galveston for Vera Cruz to support the forces of marines and blue-jackets now there.

Night Attack

The chance that General Maas might make a return attack on Vera Cruz with reinforcements and the possible necessity of a forward moving Americans and the Vera Cruz railroad are the underlying reasons for this military movement.

The restoration of the embargo was officially announced after Carranza's note that he regarded the seizure of Vera Cruz as a violation of Mexican sovereignty had been considered by the Administration.

Both O'Shaughnessy and Senor Algara of the Mexican embassy here have been given their passports, but this is not regarded at Washington as presaging war, though a declaration of war by Huerta would not be unexpected.

London, April 24.—The Mexico City correspondent of The Daily Telegraph cables a telegram from Sir Cecil Spring Rice, British Ambassador at Washington, was received at the British Legation to-day, as a result of which the British Charge d'Affaires, Thomas Hoffer, started for Vera Cruz.

It is understood that Hoffer's mission is to meet Admiral Fletcher and enter into negotiations with him regarding a possible attempt to solve the Mexican difficulty through the intervention of British diplomacy.

However surprising this news may seem, it is not regarded at the United States Legation as being without foundation. It is believed the United States cannot wish to repel any suggestion for a honorable solution.

Many of the American sailors and marines who were killed or wounded at Vera Cruz were shot down while under protection of a flag of truce, according to advices which reached the Navy Department.

Free Trips Abroad.

Free educational trips abroad for newspapermen of all countries are to be instituted with the proceeds of one of the funds available for the committee's use, it was announced. Ignorance of foreign countries causes writing, which engenders friction, while foreign travel for newspapermen would promote peace, in the opinion of the committee. To writers of poems, hymns and essays extolling peace and the centenary celebration $10,000 in prizes will be distributed. A gift of $10,000 was voted to the City of Ghent, Belgium, where the treaty of 1815 was signed.

Washington Homestead.

The Washington homestead in England, Sulgrave Manor, will have its name changed to Washington Manor, and an institute is to be established there to further peace through lectures of representatives of foreign countries. At all capitals, beginning with Berlin, a monument typifying America's message of peace to the nations of the world will be erected, at a cost not yet specified. Money also will be disbursed to churches, schools and synagogues and schools taking part in the peace celebration.

Their officers reported that these bridges must be protected if Vera Cruz is to be the base of further operations, because they could not be readily rebuilt, if destroyed.
