THE DAILY COURIER, BRANTFORD, CANADA

THE COURIER.

PAGE FOUR

they are between twenty and twenty her as a run at large anarchist? Published by The Brantford Converting ited, every afternoon, at Dalhound Street, Brantford, Cauada. Subscription rate: By carrier, §3 a year; by mall services and possessions and the United In addition to poles, there were purchased for the twelve months As through Brantford city passed Queen City Charden, 32 t, Toronto. H. E. S-Miglere. of $9.373,869, this representing the big "Join the Borden Club."

Representative. SE-MI-WEEKLY COURIER— Published on Tuesday and Thursday mornings, at $1 per year, payable in advance. To the United States, 50 cents extra for postage. Interference of 48.1 per cent over the previous twelve months, That fact talks in closurent forms, of the exprevious twelve months. That fact In happy homes ne saw the light tells in cloquent terms of the ex- Of household fires gleam warm and value of 44 cents, Cedar comes next "Join the Borden Club." RADIAL ROADS. at 45 cents at point of purchase, and The rumor that the radial road Douglas fir ties have a value of 30 between Brantford and Hamilton cents each. niay shortly be double tracked brings As to the pole nuisance, one of to mind the false fears of a few who these days the larger communities seemed to think that such easy and will rise in their might and snfite the seemed to think that such easy and will rise in their magic and they are "Join the Borden Club." trade.

Monday, November 3, 1913

five feet in length.

tensive railway extension work now per cent. of the total, and they have a

A GHOULISH SHEET. It hasn't, to the direct contrary there has been much mutual benefit. Under a glaring front page heading A tear stood in his offside eye Radial lines do not hurt the smaller the Toronto Globe features the an- But still he answered firm and spry, cities, towns and villages: Michigan nouncement that Premier Borden has has demonstrated that. The lesser cone south for his health, and that settlements in that state which were he would gladly resign if there was At break of dawn as heavenward airaid to yoke up with Detroit and anyone to succeed him. other centres, are dwindling, whereas Here is some of the piffle in this Uttered the oft repeated prayer those which did so, are going ahead wholly untrue and malicious des- A voice cried through the hurtling air The same thing will prove true in patch. Second Saill connection with the line now build-ing between Brantford and Galt, and at St. Andrew's, N.B. This second Brantford and Port Dover. prolonged absence from the Capital, The district is rich and settled by when belated sessional preparations an excellent class of people in both directions, and the increased facilit-frequent expression in political ciries for buying and selling and trad- cles here. That belief is that were a ing in general, will be of marked satisfactory successor in sight Mr general advantage.. And speaking of the Lake Erie and Borden would gladly resign the cares of the Premiership and of party lea-dership. It is certain that he has little general advantage.

Northern, a well known citizen re- zest for the political game as it is marked to this paper that he had been being played by his present oclleaopposed to the line running at the gues.

things.

for the village and also natural gas. mates the leading Grit organ in this muttered to the bard: "You'll 'ave to Another important matter which matter, not for one holy moment, but 'ump yourself in 'ock-three weeks Another important matter which a ghoulish desire to use an alleged of labor 'ard! And when your bloody was brought forward consisted of the breakdown to make some underhand term is hup we'll ship you from this suggestion that small farms of from attacks upon the Conservative party shore, and don't come 'ustling 'ere five to ten acres should be laid out as such.

am one of those who are advocat-To The Editor ****** MR. COOPER EXPLAINS.

To the Editor of The Courier: to an editorial which appeared in your issue of Oct. 28th, and I desize to set you right on one point. I did not say to the Liberal Club of Brantford that I was opposed to the Borden contribution of thirty-five million partisan politics. dollars. On the contrary I told them your paper.

Yours sincerely to them that I did not agree with JOHN A. COOPER. that feature of Sir, Wilfrid Laurier's policy which stated that the larger for the above. If there was misrep-(This paper willingly makes room Canadian vessels should be built in for the above. If there was misrep-Canada. I made it very clear to the Liberal club that I disagreed with Expositor and not with the Courier as Cooper said, the fault rests with The You have a good time and help the that portion of the Liberal naval polthat portion of the Liberal naval pol-icy as at present outlined. Moreover, when the matter was before the Sen-the content of Mr. Cooper's ad-dress before the Liberal Claib, as pubate, the Canadian Courier of which I am editor, advised the Senate to pass the bill. You are therefore miswas perhaps to blame in not going h representing my views in your edi-torial columns. I am sure you are not doing so intentionally, but the > opportunity of making my views toms revenue last month totalled $9. clear for the benefit of your readers. 1 241,635, a decline of $972,911, as con am a firm believer in a Canadian navy pared with the same month in 1912. and am guite confident that ultim- For the seven months of the fiscal ately Mr. Borden will adopt the Can-year the total is $68078.403,

A voice fell like a falling star. "Over one thousand members in the Borden Club

Harry Kemp

up the balance. For the most part many thousands who simply regard in progress in all portions of the Do- "A happy home's all right said he,

The shades of night were falling fast,

bright,

"Give me a pass,"" one close ma.

"Not on your life; not on your head.

To enter there costs a dollar bill.

'Oh stay, a maiden said and rest

Your head upon this blooming breast.

"Join the Borden Club."

'Join the Borden Club."

be."

said

When Britain sends her gifted opposed to the line running at the foot of Jubilee Terrace, but had now changed his mind for the reason that the necessity for political side-stephe realized how much better it was ping and trimming to satisfy con- compliment their blooming lyres, we in the matter of the safety of the flicting elements of the Government boost their blawsted song, and when in the matter of the safety of the public to have the route largely fol-low the Grand River instead of hav-ing a lot of highway crossings. ENTERPRISING BURFORD. The matter is and the growing signs of popular and of party disfavor with the present Ad-ministration, all harass and worry the ENTERPRISING BURFORD.

ng that the two parties should get ogether and settle the big question n a national way. If the two leaders would agree to both the contribution and a Canadian navy. I am quite pre-pared to accept it. I am not sup-Sir, My attention has been drawn porting either the present Liberal or the present Conservative attitude, but simply suggesting to both parties that Canada should do as Australia and New Zealand have done, viz., treat the naval question, as something too serious to be made the football o that I had no objection to it, if Mr. Borden intended to work for a Can-adian navy ultimately. I also said I trust you will give this letter prominent place in an early issue result is the same. esult is the same. Perhaps you will allow me this OTTAWA, Nov. 3-Canada's cu: CANADIAN CUSTOMS.

Will be found here by paying this store a visit. We try to bring our merchandise to you as near as possible by advertising in the daily papers and window displays; that is as near as we can come. The next step must be taken by you, and we assure you that you will not find better values or more varied and well assorted stocks anywhere, look where you will.

and which we have a serie a man which where a state of

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1913

PRICES:

$4.50 and $5.00

For Style, comfort and good wear buy the

"MONARCH

ford by

---Sold in Brant-

THE

Monarch Shoe

Neill Shoe Co'y

The Store for Trunks and Valises

Glace Finis Gloves-Wom real French_Kid_Gloves, soft bliable, two dome fasteners points on back, shdaes tan, r and white. Special Monday a 306306306306

Tan Cape Gloves-One or dome fasteners, pique sewn. 1 lar $1 quality for..... Elbow Length Gloves-Of kid, in white only, broken our regular $2 line. SALE

16-button Kid Gloves-In Suede Kid Glovesin white and natura To clear the lot... Misses' Fine Kid Glovesome fasteners of pe brown shades in Ladies' Cape and Mocha cial SALE PRICE Men's Gloves Tan Suede Gloves-Fine. shades quality Boys' Tan Suede Gloves-Woo lined, one dome clasp, in al Special at Hosiery Ladies' ALL WOOL mere Hose, in comfo less style, for fall and SALE PRICE 3 pairs for Ladies' Embroidery Front wool Cashmere Hose, sizes l 915 only, regular 50c Children's Rib Hosewool, an excellent value SALE PRICE a pair.... Men's Seamless Socksfine value at 25c. SALE I a pair Misses' Tan Hose-In line, for, a pair