Phillies Lost Fatal Two

Philadelphia, Oct. 4.—Philadelphia's last chance for the National League pennant this year faded when Boston twice defeated Moran's team yesterday, 6 to 3, and 6 to 1, while Brooklyn was winning from New York. Bad fielding was responsible for the home team's defeat in each game.

The teams put up a hard battle in the opening contest until two men were out in the seventh inning. Then with Philadelphia leading by two to one and Rudolph on second base, Stock fumbled Fitzpatrick's grounder and Packert also fumbled the ball. Rudolph scoring. Doubles by Konetzky and Magee, and a wild throw by Ehret followed, and Boston got five runs for the inning. Rudolph held Philadelphia safe in the closing inning.

In the second game, errors cost both of the runs made off Mayer, while Bender was hit hard in the 8th inning when the visitors piled up four runs and clinched the victory. The scores:

First game—	R.H.E.
Boston . . . 000000510—6 11 2
Philadelphia . . 00110010—3 8 4
Rudolph and Gowdy; Rixey and Mayer and Killifer.
Second game—	R.H.E.
Boston . . . 000001140—6 11 0
Philadelphia . . 010000000—5 5 5
Tyler and Blackburn; Gowdy; Mayer, Bender and Killifer.

M'Graw is Very Much Peevish

His Men Did Not Play According to Orders, He Declares.

New York, Oct. 4.—"I am not accusing anyone of anything wrong," but I will not stand for that sort of ball playing," declared John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, yesterday afternoon, in explaining his action in retiring from the field during the game with the Brooklyn club at Ebbets Field in Flatbush.

It was a game which sporting writers generally describe as a "farce of exhibition," and was won by the Brooklyn club. The score was 9 to 6. As the Philadelphia club lost two games to the Boston Braves in Philadelphia yesterday, the Brooklyn victory gives the National League pennant to the Flatbush crew, and it will meet the Boston Red Sox in the world's series.

After getting away to a three-run lead in the first inning, the Giants played poorly and listlessly, if not indifferently.

McGraw watched the proceedings for a time, then at the close of the fifth inning he arose from the bench of the Giants, assigned command of the club to Charlie Herzog, the fielding captain, and marched off the field. He was bristling with indignation.

After the game he met the New York baseball writers and gave out the statement which has caused a terrific sensation in the world of sport.

McGraw Lost His Patience.
 "I do not believe that any of my players deliberately favored Brooklyn, but they did not play my kind of baseball," said McGraw. "They did not obey my orders. When Pennitt took a wind-up with a man on first, permitting the runner to steal second, I lost my patience, and quit the bench. I'm through with baseball for the year. I have worked too hard this summer to tolerate that sort of stuff."

PLAYERS ELIGIBLE.

New York, Oct. 4.—The first game of the world's series, between the Boston Red Sox and Brooklyn Nationals, will be played on the National League field at Boston on next Saturday, October 7, according to arrangements completed here yesterday afternoon by the National Baseball Commission.

The teams will rest in Boston on Sunday, and the second game will be played in that city on Monday, Oct. 9. The scene will then switch to Brooklyn, where games will be played on October 10 and 11. If more games are necessary to a decision the fifth will be played at Boston on October 12, and the sixth at Brooklyn on October 13. Should a seventh game be required, the field will be decided on by tossing a coin. Rain will not affect this schedule. For instance, should it rain at Boston on Monday, October 9, the teams will leave for Brooklyn to play Tuesday's game there.

The meeting of the National Commission was attended by President B. B. Johnson, of the American League; President John K. Tener, of the National League; Garry Herrmann, secretary of the board; J. J. Lannin, president of the Boston-American League Club; C. H. Ebbets, of the Philadelphia-Nationals. At the time the meeting convened the result of the National League pennant race was still uncertain, and arrangements to cot a possible victory by the Philadelphia club were also made. These, of course, go into the discard.

First Game to Boston
 Instead of tossing a coin, as in former years, to decide where the first game of the series shall be played, the commission accepted the proposal of President Lannin, the opening be held in Boston, owing to the great seating capacity of the National field, which the American National League has obtained for the series. It was also pointed out that the several days will be required for the Brooklyn management to erect overflow stands, and that playing the first two games at Boston would be to the benefit of the Brooklyn club.

A proposal by Mr. Baker of the Philadelphia club, that the series be played on Monday next, instead of Saturday, was voted down, as was the suggestion that Friday be made the day of the start. The first, an unnecessary delay, while the second would leave the National League contender too little time to rest after the grueling grind of the pennant race, and proposal to play in the American and National League, although the committee decided that if more than four games were required for a decision the fifth and sixth should be played, one in each city.

Umpires Selected
 The commission adjourned without making public the names of the umpires who will officiate in the series, but however, after it had been certain that Brooklyn was the pennant winner, it was announced that William Dineen and Thomas Connolly would represent the American League and Hank O'Day and Quigley the National.

The Commission will meet in Boston on Friday, Oct. 6, to arrange final details. Before adjourning the officials gave out a list of players eligible to compete in the series, set a scale of prices for seats and appointed G. C. Taylor Spink, of St. Louis as official scorer. The Boston and Brooklyn chapters of the Baseball Writers Association were authorized to each select a member to act as assistant scorer in his home city.

Did Giants Throw Games?

By Courier Leased Wire.
 New York, Oct. 4.—The glory of Brooklyn's victory in the National League race was temporarily obscured to-day by the controversy in baseball circles over Manager McGraw's censure of the New York club in yesterday's game, which decided the game. McGraw accused some of his men of disobeying orders and playing indifferent baseball.

Few outside of the inner circles of the New York club knew early to-day whether McGraw would manage his club in the game with Brooklyn this afternoon or whether he would make good his assertion when he left the field.

"I am through for the year," John D. Foster, secretary of the New York club, expressed the opinion that McGraw would finish out the season. Mr. Foster declared it was impossible for the New York club to have deliberately lost the game with Brooklyn yesterday, but said that McGraw was thorough yarioused by the indifference of his men.

Most of those who heard McGraw's comment when he left the field in anger, say that he did not accuse his players of dishonesty, but of disregarding his signals, and that he would not stand for that kind of baseball.

Pennant Won, Red Sox Rest

Dropped Two Final Games of the Season to the Lowly Athletics.

THE AMERICAN LEAGUE SCORES.

Boston, Oct. 4.—The Red Sox closed the season with a double defeat by Philadelphia yesterday, 5 to 3 and 7 to 5. Supposedly tuning up for the world's series, Red Sox pitchers were hit hard by the Athletics. Foster, who had not pitched previously for weeks, was hit exceptionally hard, seven hits for sixteen bases being counted against him in four innings. Ruth was almost similarly treated, and Mays lacked his usual effectiveness, but Manager Carrigan took the edge off any disappointment. Boston supporters might have felt by the statement:

"The boys are going to take it easy now. We've just finished a hard campaign and we're almost into another."

Carrigan switched his players frequently. The scores:
 First game— R.H.E.
 Philadelphia . . 001021001—5 12 0
 Boston . . . 000101100—3 8 9
 Batteries—Parnham, Lindstrom and Schang; Mays, Foster and Thomas, Agnew.
 Second game— R.H.E.
 Philadelphia . . 010300012—7 15 3
 Boston . . . 000011030—5 11 3
 Batteries—Myers, Nabors and Pleinich; Ruth, Wyckoff and Thomas, Agnew.
 At New York—New York and Washington staged a baseball burlesque here yesterday, which ended in a 9-3 eleven-inning tie. The scores:

BROOKLYN IS THE WINNER

Defeated Giants Again While Braves Put Phillies Out of Running.

Brooklyn, Oct. 4.—Brooklyn clinched the National League pennant yesterday by defeating New York 9 to 6. The Brooklyn victory gave the leaders an advantage of 2½ games. They can lose the remaining games and Philadelphia can win the two it has yet to play without changing the position of Brooklyn.

The game was a heavy hitting contest. Poor fielding by Pitcher Sherrod Smith at the start gave New York a three-run lead. Brooklyn came back in the third and bunched five hits off Benton and Perritt for four runs. Proffer relieved Smith in the fourth, and although New York tied the score in the fifth, he held his hitters in check while Brooklyn batters were pounding Perritt and Geo. Smith.

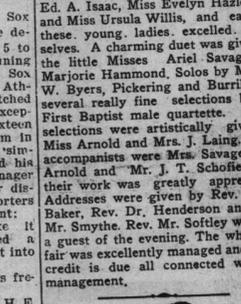

The batting and fielding of Mowrey were features of the victory of the pennant winners. Robertson led in batting for New York with four hits in as many times at bat. The score:
 R.H.E.
 New York . . 301010001—6 11 2
 Brooklyn . . . 01401111X—9 13 4
 Benton, Perritt, G. Smith and Rariden; S. Smith, Pfeffer and Miller.

Annual Harvest Home Supper

The annual Harvest Home Supper and entertainment, held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of Sydenham Street Methodist church last evening and was a splendid success. It is not saying too much to intimate that both the supper and the program have never been surpassed in the long list of these events given by Sydenham St. Ladies. The service and arrangements were excellent and everything went off on schedule time. When Mr. J. W. Westbrook took the chair he was greeted with a full house, and the general sheriff made an ideal chairman. The program while lengthy was a capital one. Readings were given by Mrs. Ed. A. Isaac, Miss Evelyn Hazlewood and Miss Ursula Willis, and each of these young ladies excelled themselves. A charming duet was given by the little Misses Ariel Savage and Marjorie Hammond, Solos by Messrs. W. Byers, Pickering and Burrill, and several really fine selections by the First Baptist male quartette. Piano selections were artistically given by Miss Arnold and Mrs. J. Laing. The accompanists were Mrs. Savage, Miss Arnold and Mr. J. T. Schofield and their work was greatly appreciated. Addresses were given by Rev. W. E. Baker, Rev. Dr. Henderson and Rev. Mr. Smythe. Rev. Mr. Seifley was also a guest of the evening. The whole affair was excellently managed and much credit is due all connected with its management.
