Bennett and Skagway Celebrated Yesterday at the Former Place,

AND MADE IT A GRAND GALA DAY

Relief of Mafeking Is Not Yet Confirmed.

IVEY WILL HOLD THE FORT.

Water Very Low on Caribou Crossing—No Boats for Ten Days.

(From Friday's Daily.) Skagway, May 25.—On the strength of news that Mafeking has been relieved a grand celebration was held at Bennett yesterday when the Queen's birthday was celebrated in grand style. Excursion trains from Skagway to Bennett carried nearly 1000 people, all of whom participated in the jubilant exercises. An international baseball game to settle the boundary line question resulted in the line remaining where it was. As a result of the celebration, yesterday was the greatest day in the history of Bennett.

Ivey Holds On. Skagway, May 25.—Collector of Customs Ivey has withdrawn his resignation and will continue to fill that office for the district of Alaska.

Caribou Very Low. Skagway, May 25.—The water in Caribou Crossing is very low and steamers will not be able to cross for possibly ten days. Lake Bennett is almost free from ice, and but for the low water on Caribou Crossing, steamers could now ply between Bennett and Canyon City.

Will Try Murderers. Skagway, May 25.—Melville C. Brown, Alaska's new judge, is now holding court at Juneau. Next week he will open a session at this place, when the 12 Indians charged with the murder of Bert Horton and his wife on Lynn canal last fall will be tried.

Martinelli in Portland. Portland, Or., May 20, via Skagway, May 25.—The citizens of Portland gave a great reception to Monseigneur Martinelli, the pope's delegate to the United States, who came here to confer the pallium on Archbishop Christie. The monseigneur, before his return to the east, will visit Seattle.

Territorial Court. Justice Dugas rendered several judgments today. The application in Hogg vs. Campbell was dismissed. The application in Herbert vs. Day was granted.

In Mezzade vs. Delphel, the application for a stay of proceedings was granted. Judgment was rendered against defendant Miller in the case of Palmer vs. Leonard et al.

In Stevenson vs. Parks, the order appointing the receiver was enlarged with costs. A number of motions were continued, and a few were submitted.

The motions in Sola vs. Klondike-Bonanza, Ltd., and in Worden vs. Bates were postponed till Monday.

In Davignon vs. Jones and Turenne vs. Faulkner, the motions were enlarged till June 1st.

The hearing on the applications in Sullivan vs. Baclard was continued till the day of the trial. The motion in Miller vs. Broeber was continued till next motion day. In the meantime the injunction will continue in force.

In Carroll vs. McPherrin and Johnson, an application has been submitted to set aside the writ of capias issued in the cause. Taken under advisement.

Action has been submitted by Mrs. Purdy against Miss Mulrooney to retain possession of the Fairview hotel.

A. B. Social Tonight.

Tonight being the last meeting in the month, the Arctic Brotherhood will "give vent" to a social session at which icicles and other delicacies will be served. As there are a few candidates to be initiated, it has been decided to meet promptly at 8 o'clock instead of at 9, the regular hour for summer meetings, in order to get through the initiation work early in the night. Every member of the camp is expected to be present.

Game Laws in Force. No elk or wapiti, moose, caribou, deer, mountain sheep or mountain goat shall be hunted, taken, killed, shot at, wounded, injured or molested in any way between the 1st day of April and the 10th day of July, and between the 1st day of October and the 1st day of December; no grouse, partridge, pheasants, or prairie chickens between the 1st day of January and the 1st day of September. Chap. 31, Dom. Stat. 94.

BRIEF MENTION.

John O'Connor is visiting the city.

L. L. Lewit is registered at the Regina.

John Jacobson is stopping at the McDonald.

Joe Lewis is making a brief visit to the city.

George Lampier is spending a few days in town.

W. E. Thomas is a recent arrival in town from the creeks.

Miss McDonald, of American gulch is among the guests at the Regina.

W. E. Delaney is visiting town. He will remain for several days.

F. Flink is shaking hands with his Dawson acquaintances.

T. O. Ringsberry came to Dawson to celebrate the Queen's birthday.

Herbert Simpson is in the city on matters pertaining to business.

J. Hyland, from Hunker creek, is greeting his local acquaintances.

B. Barlow, of Domin on creek, is enjoying a short vacation in Dawson.

M. E. Beatey and wife, from Bonanza creek, are visiting friends in the city.

The Cannon Brothers, Eldorado claim owners, are in town on business. They are at the Regina.

C. George Johnson was an interested spectator at yesterday's sport. He will return to Hunker tomorrow.

David C. Young came to the city Wednesday evening from Lindow creek to participate in the festivities of yesterday.

Rev. J. A. Sinclair, who is establishing Presbyterian mission posts at various points on the creeks, came down to witness the events of yesterday. He was accompanied by Rev. Cook who is resident Presbyterian minister at Grand Forks.

Balloon Ascension.

Balloonist Leonard will give another ascension tomorrow evening at 6 p. m. on First avenue. The last ascension which Mr. Leonard made was such a pronounced success that he has been solicited to repeat it. The big balloon will be inflated at 6 o'clock sharp and will start up into the air as soon thereafter as possible. Leonard says he will go higher this time than he has ever done before in Dawson.

STEAMBOAT NEWS.

The John C. Barr is expected to reach Dawson from Port Yukon in a few more days. She will bring in a supply of canned goods as well as a large consignment of water pipe.

The steamer Yukoner is almost ready for travel. She will be completed by next Monday.

Tom Davies, of the Canadian line, is in receipt of news from lower Lebarge and reports the ice to be jammed at that point, but well broken up last night.

The Columbian sails Saturday for Whitehorse at 4 p. m. Captains Shafter and Sanborn will have charge of the boat. She pulled over from the shipyards yesterday.

The Australian started across Bennett Wednesday, breaking a channel to Caribou Crossing. The work is being done in the interest of the White Pass R. R. for the shipping of rails across the lake.

The Ora sailed today for Whitehorse with a full list of passengers. This is the second boat to sail for the company, the Flora being the first. She was reported to have reached Lake Lebarge Wednesday night.

The remarkable sobriety of steamboatmen was a noticeable feature of yesterday. Whether this was due to lack of funds, they not having a round trip as yet, or whether they are saving their enthusiasm for the Fourth of July, has been a matter of considerable speculation. Agent Calderhead claims it is due to his influence as an evangelist.

The office of the Klondike Corporation on the L. & C. dock is being made more convenient for the accommodation of passengers.

The steamer Merwin has finally given up the attempt to move the barge Duff from the ways and the management has let the contract to a firm of house movers.

Capt. LeBallister, of the Rock Island, is confined to his cabin with a gripe. He is rapidly recovering, however, and will be around again in a few days.

The boats of the S. Y. T. Co. are almost ready to sail, the repairs which has occupied the attention of the crew for the past week are nearly completed.

VALUABLE MINING GROUND

Is in Litigation Before Gold Commissioner Senkler.

The Property Is Located in the Vicinity of Monte Cristo Gulch.—Merkle et al. vs. Thompson.

Today Gold Commissioner Senkler is occupied in trying the case of Merkle, Trabold and Shindler, plaintiffs, vs. Dr. William E. Thompson, defendant. The action involves the title to a valuable piece of hillside property located in the vicinity of Monte Cristo.

The plaintiffs are the owners of a claim described as the hillside, left limit, opposite No. 3 Monte Cristo.

The defendant is the owner of the hillside, left limit, opposite the lower half of No. 29 below discovery on Bonanza; this claim is commonly known as the Dickey hillside.

The rear portions of the plaintiffs' Monte Cristo property and the defendant's Bonanza claim conflict with each other. The plaintiffs contend that their hillside extends 1000 feet in length, and that it includes a part of the hill side claim which the defendant staked off the left limit of Bonanza.

The particular piece of ground in litigation is known to be quite rich, and a suit concerning it was decided some time ago. Nellie Cashman alleged that the property was included in a bench claim, which had been recorded by her; but Dr. Thompson succeeded in securing a judgment adverse to the contention of Miss Cashman.

Now, he is defending his title against the protests of the plaintiffs. The testimony of the several witnesses will not be concluded for several days.

Nugget Producing Claim.

Mike Gollibrich, owner of hillside claim off 79 below on Bonanza found a 17 1/2 ounce nugget on his claim on Monday of this week. The piece of quartz is estimated to contain six ounces of gold. From the dump of Mr. Gollibrich's claim a number of smaller quartz nuggets have been picked up ranging from one to five ounces. These nuggets came from the end of a tunnel 212 feet in length, at which distance Mr. Gollibrich says the ground is entirely free from frost.

A Grand Stand Party.

Agent R. W. Calderhead of the steamers Ora and Flora erected a grand stand over the company's office yesterday which afforded a splendid point of observation of the sports. A number of ladies and gentlemen took advantage of Mr. Calderhead's invitation to witness the sports from his "reserved seats" and during the progress of the sports a merry party crowded the capacity of the improvised grand stand to the limit.

In the party among others were the following: Mesdames Hill, Calderhead, Lancaster, Whitley, Moore, Merriman; Miss Gandolfo, Miss Comer, Miss Finola Gandolfo, Miss Crowley; Messrs. McDonald, Hemen, Calderhead, Bennett, McFarlane, Calderhead, Fitzpatrick and Allen.

The Lucky Ones.

An intermission was taken last night at the ball, during which time Mrs. Capt. Wood raffled off the three remaining steamboat tickets, one to Nome and two to Whitehorse, that had been contributed in aid of the Ottawa fund. The ticket contributed by the A. C. Co. was won by the firm of Barrett Bros.; the Yukoner ticket went to W. A. Schumaker, and the N. A. T. & T. ticket to Nome was won by C. L. Elnerston. The persons winning the tickets can secure the same or an order for them by calling at the T. & E. Company store.

Mail for the Outside.

The next mail will leave Dawson for the outside on the C. D. Co.'s steamer Columbian which is scheduled to sail for Whitehorse at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Mail intended to go with this shipment should be in the postoffice by noon tomorrow.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

William Graham pleaded guilty to the crime of drunkenness and was assessed $5 and costs.

Joseph Harley was convicted of stealing the sum of $160 from James E. Wilson, the packer, and the police justice sentenced the culprit to two months' imprisonment.

Tom Webster admitted that he had been drunk at Grand Forks yesterday, and he was fined $5 and costs.

Ludger Daigle claimed to have been assaulted by Eugene Vincent at No. 4 from the mouth of Last Chance, but the accused proved his innocence and he was accordingly discharged.

P. D. Hawley secured judgment for $150 against R. A. Talbot, captain of the steamer W. K. Merwin. The money was due for labor performed on the Merwin between March 10th and May 23d.

The spring medicine you need is our "Celery, with Beef, Iron and Wine." It does the work; guaranteed. Cribbs & Rogers, druggists, opp. Palace Grand.

Is This a Knock?

The Pioneer is doing a fine business these days. Whether this is owing to the excellent brand of hootch dispensed at that popular resort, or to the fact that the games which have been put in have a tendency to drive men to drink, has not been ascertained. However, George Butler is happy and extends the glad hand to all.
