Boyhood

Is the foundation of Manhood.

The DELICATE boy,
the SPINDLING boy,
the PIMPLE-FACED boy
all need

Hood's Sarsaparilla

It purifies and enriches the blood, strengthens the muscles and bones, promotes mental and physical development, and builds up the whole system.

If there is biliousness or constipation, Hood's PILLS should be taken also.

"My boy was suffering from scrofula, which covered his face entirely. I decided to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial. After taking three bottles he was entirely cured."

Mrs. ELBIE HOTALING, Voorheesville, N. Y.

"I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla for years, giving it to my children and grandson for poor appetites and bad stomachs. It has always proved a blessing. It tones the stomach and increases the appetite." Mrs. F. P. DEBOLT, Forest Grove, Oregon.

Accept no Substitutes for Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills.

CHARING CROSS.

Quite a number of the I. O. F. here attended the funeral of their late brother, Samuel Rigby, of Cedar Springs, on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McGraw are the proud possessors of a little baby girl. Congratulations.

Mr. Tyhurst is preparing to remodel the buildings on his farm here this coming summer.

Chas. Rice, who has been sick for the last two months, we are sorry to hear, is not improving as well as was expected.

Thos. Early, of the 11th Con., is busy getting out timber for a new barn which he intends erecting this spring.

Several weeks ago it was reported that the town line between Chatham and Charing Cross was badly in need of repair owing to the washouts caused by the recent floods. Would it be advisable to move the Cedar Springs grave pit out this way?

Wm. Walker, of the Walker House, is reported on the sick list suffering from a severe cold.

Roy Shepley spent last Saturday and Sunday with friends in Merlin.

C. West lost a valuable cock last Friday. The animal had been sick all winter.

SOUTH DAWN.

Benson Houston's little boy was quite ill last week.

Dr. Buchanan, of Zone, was in this vicinity last Tuesday.

Mrs. Smith and Miss Ada, of Florence, visited Mrs. D. M. Healy on Tuesday.

Mr. Condon and Mr. Bloom have two large akidways up.

A home boy that worked for Abe Webster was taken to the asylum last week.

H. Lampman purchased the house and lot owned by the late Mrs. Gray in Florence, last Saturday for $750.

Geo. Brown, the popular auctioneer, wielded the hammer.

About 40 young friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hanks gave them a pleasant surprise one evening last week.

Mrs. Healy, of Chatham, has come to make a prolonged visit with her son D. M., who resides near the village of Florence.

Norman Sterling traded a property in Florence for Ed. Laird's farm, Dawn, near the village.

T. Tadlock is intending to move to his new farm shortly.

Orville Leak, Chatham, visited friends at Florence recently.

Mrs. James Laing is visiting her daughter in Chatham for two weeks.

Morris Brooks visited friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Bothwell Road, visited Mr. A. Christner last Sunday.

Peppy, Peppies or What?

A correspondent (an American, we presume) writes to ask how he shall pronounce the name of the excellent diarist we occasionally quote. "Do you," he asks, "call Peppy 'Peppies' or 'Peppies' or 'Chumley' or what?"

Even among contemporary London talkers there is disagreement, but the question should be settled by one Mr. James Carcas, whom Peppy kindly took in his boat to view the great fire and who returned the compliment by a somewhat virulent set of verses in his volume "Lucida Intervalla."

Get thee behind me, then, dumb devil, begone.

The Lord hath Ephthata said to my tongue.

Him I must praise who open'd hath my lips.

Sent me from navy to the ark by Peppy.

The rhythm is dreadful, but the rhyme is conclusive, and the man who roved the same boat with the diarist called him "Peppy"—London Chronicle.

[An accepted American dictionary authority also gives Pepp as the correct pronunciation of his name.—Ed.]

The palmist is usually looking for a hand-out.
