Dr. G. K. Smith, of Hantsport, wishes to announce to any patients in Grand Pre and vicinity that if they will call in the morning at Miss Stuart's, phone 311-3, that he will call on them the same day. And further that any calls left there will be promptly dealt with.

A very sudden change in the weather occurred last night. The transition from the balmy breath of "Indian summer" to winter temperature came suddenly and this morning the ground was covered with snow. Winter has been longer delayed than usual this year and is now due, so why worry?

High School

A number of her friends had the pleasure last Friday evening of listening to Miss Evelyn Duncanson sing on the radio. She with some of the other pupils of her teacher gave a concert which was broadcast by station WBZ from their Hotel Brunswick studio at Boston. Miss Duncanson's selections were greatly enjoyed by her friends here.

Those who have not yet completed their Christmas shopping—and we presume this will include most of us—will do well to give careful perusal to THE ACADIAN ad columns this week. There they will find many useful suggestions that may be of great assistance in the solution of vexing problems which always present themselves at this season.

The Ladies of the First Cornwallis Baptist church held a meat supper and sale in the vestry of their church, Upper Canard on Tuesday evening. The class rooms were decorated very attractively with red and green and made charming booths where candy, aprons, fancy work and all kinds of cooked food was sold. The proceeds amounted to $160 for church purposes.

Competition Concert

The Acadia Choral Club, organized under the direction of Prof. Farnsworth, Director of the Acadia Conservatory of Music, is now well started on its winter's work. Preparation is now being made for an informal program which will be given in Convocation Hall on Tuesday of next week, in conjunction with the Acadia Orchestra, under the direction of Miss Beatrice Langley. The club, which includes out ninety voices, plans to give a series of such entertainments during the winter, one to occur about every six weeks.

In the sphere of recreation and amusement next week promises to be an eventful one in Wolfville. On Tuesday evening there will be given in University Hall a concert by the Acadia Conservatory Orchestra and the Choral Club; Wednesday evening the annual Competition Concert by the pupils of the High School will take place at the Orpheum Theatre; a play by the Acadia Dramatic Society, entitled "The Goose Hangs High" will be put on at University Hall on Thursday evening; while on Friday evening the centre of attraction will be a dance under the auspices of the Wolfville Athletic Association in Community Hall. Be sure to take them all in.

The death occurred on Saturday morning last at his home at Maitland of Elmer Campbell, an esteemed resident, aged 57 years. He had been seriously ill for more than a year, and his death was not unexpected. Besides his wife he is survived by two daughters, one of whom is Mrs. Frank Godfrey, of this town. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at his late residence, the service being conducted by Rev. D. K. Grant, minister of the United Church at Maitland, where the interment took place.
