KLONDYKE KATE VISITING AT BATH

Interesting Account of Well Known Woman Pioneer—Other Bath News

There arrived in town on Saturday afternoon Miss Catherine Ryan after an absence of nearly twenty years, spent chiefly in the Canadian Northwest, and who will pay an extended visit to her brother, John Ryan of this place.

Miss Ryan on her journey east was accompanied by her nephew, John Ryan, Jr., and while en route visited her brother, James, who resides in Minneapolis, and in South Brewer, Me., her sister, Mrs. Thomas Day.

Miss Ryan was for many years a resident of the Yukon, and can narrate many a thrilling experience of the days when the big gold rush was at its height, she being the first woman of the Caucasian or white race to rush her way over those Klondyke trails, and because of that fact is more widely known throughout Canada and for many more scattered far and wide over the face of the globe as "Klondyke Kate."

For many years Miss Ryan acted in an official capacity under the Dominion Government as Customs and Revenue officer, and resided at White Horse, Yukon.

From Portland, Me., two nephews, Robert and Charles Ryan, accompanied her. The latter, having during the past year visited England, France, Cuba and the United States and while in the latter country, sojourned chiefly in the cities of Philadelphia, New York, Boston and Portland, Me.

Walter Ryan arrived home Monday from Juniper and his arrival marks the first time that the family have all been assembled together for many years. It is truly a family reunion or what might be more appropriately phrased, "When East Meets West."

The long drawn out hopes were finally realized on Sunday afternoon when the power was turned on, for the first time, flooding numerous homes with electric light. Hydro is here at last! At the hope of all that it has come to stay and that it will mark the beginning of a new era, of prosperity, industrial expansion and brightness for Carleton county, and in a special measure, for Bath and her sister towns along the line.

Mrs. S. McDonald has as guests her mother, Mrs. Stammers, recently arrived from New York, and also her sister, Mrs. J. Addy of St. John.

Miss Mary McArthur who was the guest of Misses Genevieve and Milton Bohan, Main st., returned to her home in Stellarton, N. S., on Friday last.

P. M. and Mrs. Giberson made a trip to Woodstock during the past week.

Murdock McKenstry and Vince Giberson attended Court which last week was held in Woodstock.

Congratulations! Born to Mr. and Mrs. George Nixon—a daughter.

John Patterson, Kintore, was a business caller in town on Saturday.

Miss Long, Glasville, is visiting in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Burke.

Councillors Louis Boyd and G. W. Perry left on Monday to attend the county council, which is now in session at Woodstock.

On Wednesday evening last, a most enjoyable whist party was held under the auspices of the ladies of St. Joseph Church, at the home of Miss M. Gallagher.

Last Wednesday was marked by the return of many commercial men to the road, after spending Xmas and New Year's at their respective homes, among the number were Messrs. Kierstead, O'Dell, Brown, Christie, Barter, Doyle and McDonald.

J. E. Andrews, manager of the Bath United Farmers Co-operative Co., Ltd., has gone on an auditing tour of the different branches of the United Farmer chain of stores. Mr. Barter of Hartland is relieving him.

The new rink, situated on the school grounds is fast taking shape, under the capable direction of Montague Shaw.

A record which should be hard to beat by amateur hikers, was the feat performed by Martin Gee and Arlington Ruff on Dec. 24. They having set out from Stellarton at Foreston about 9.55 a.m. arriving in Bath about 2 p.m. They walked the entire distance with the exception of a ride of not more than a quarter of a mile on the main line from the Church of England at Glasville and then only as far as Glasville Corner. And even though one takes into consideration that the road was slippery thus quickening their pace and the greater part of it down hill. Notwithstanding all of this it was pretty good time for approximately a 25 mile hike.

HARTLAND HAS TOWN ELECTION

Mayor and Aldermen Returned, but Two Wards Were Contested

At last the Town of Hartland has experienced a civic election. There was very considerable interest among the voters and a friendly spirit withal. As forecast in the Observer last week the old council, with A. Y. Dickinson running in place of G. M. McLeod, placed their names in nomination, and there also came forward Harry Barter in Ward 1 and ex-alderman, J. S. Faulkner in Ward 2. The result of the election on Monday was a triumphant endorsement of the old Council.

In Ward 1 the votes polled were, Nixon, 74; White, 71; Barter, 51. In Ward 2 the votes were Hatfield, 59; Dickinson, 57; Faulkner, 33. The votes show that the council of last year satisfied the people with its administration and for the first time the council takes hold of the town's affairs, feeling certain that they were chosen by the people at large. This should give them great confidence and the satisfaction of knowing that their efforts to serve have met with popular approval.

Ald. White was again appointed representative to the County Council and is now at Woodstock for January session.

The Town council this year will have some difficult problems to solve, one of them being provision for $9000 bonds, which mature this year. But being comprised of successful business men there is little doubt that the council will succeed and overcome whatever difficulties may confront it.

D. E. MORGAN IS LAID TO REST

Well Known Hartland Business Man Dies After Long Illness

The death occurred on Sunday at 8 a.m. of D. E. Morgan, one of the town's oldest and best known business men, after eight weeks illness, during which he was an invalid sufferer. Mr. Morgan would have been 72 years old in March, and was born at Caverhill, York Co., descended from United Empire Loyalists, who came from Glamorgan, Wales, in early colonial days. He was one of a family of 11 children, but two of whom now survive—G. M. of Carleton and Solomon of Millinocket. In his early career Mr. Morgan was construction boss in the building of the old N. B. R. and resided in Hartland for 52 years. Here he married Lola, the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. M. P. Orser, 49 years ago. He is survived by the widow, two sons, Edmund C. Hartland, and Rev. W. B. Morgan of Russell, Ont., and one daughter, Mrs. J. Stirling King of Hartland.

Soon after coming to Hartland Mr. Morgan entered business and for the past 23 years he with his son, Edmund, were associated, for years conducting a meat and provision business and latterly engaged in groceries and fruit. The deceased was a Baptist in religion and for many years was a deacon of the Primitive Baptist church, and the doors of his home were ever open to welcome the ministers of not only this but all denominations. Mr. Morgan was a man of cheery nature, kindly by instinct, a devoted husband and father and a friend to all. In politics he was a Conservative.

The funeral on Tuesday afternoon from the United Baptist church was largely attended, and interment was made in Greenwood. The funeral service was by his pastor, Rev. G. F. Holter, United Baptist, assisted by Rev. E. W. Lester, Reformed Baptist, Rev. J. K. King, Methodist, Rev. W. P. Quigg, Anglican, Rev. P. J. Quigg, Primitive, and E. B. McLatchey, United. The pallbearers were six of the oldest citizens of the town. Music was furnished by the church choir of 21 voices, and the hymns were "Nearer, My God, to Thee," "O! Thou in Whose Presence," "My Hope is Built on Nothing Less" old favorites of the deceased.

The floral tributes were beautiful and from the following: The Family, G. M. Morgan, Clyde Morgan, Mrs. Irving, Hartland Baptist church, Masonic Lodge of Russell, Ont., H. H. Hatfield, J. F. Murdoch, Philathea Class, R. J. Potts, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Keswick, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Keith and Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Keith, Hartland.

"Mo's are conceded by all lovers of good chocolates to be the best in Canada and are especially popular in Mo's this year, having bought 5 packages to 1 of other makes." The London Fruit Store, New Glasgow.

All last year's experiments were carried on in Mo's laboratory and in the plant to produce a certain article that would stand apart from anything now on the market. Some splendid results were attained—but perfection is the goal and so the article has not yet been produced. It may take a year more, it may take many years more, but no matter how long it will not be placed on the market until it is perfected.

Incidentally, this is the policy aimed at in every article made by Mo's.
