

Bolshevik Revolution Breaks Out In Jugo-Slavia; Hundreds Slain by Machine Guns In Riots at Belgrade

Serious Riots Are Also Reported at Laibach
and Agram

SERBIANS ARE NOT ALARMED

Attribute the Uprising to
Faction of the Italian
Trouble Makers

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)
London, April 27.—A Bolshevik revolution has broken out in Jugo-Slavia, says a Central News despatch from Rome, quoting Trieste advices to the Messagero of that city.

Machine guns have been brought into action in Belgrade, where hundreds are said to have been slain, it is said, while fatal riots have occurred at Laibach and Agram.

SERBS NOT ALARMED
OVER THE REPORTS

Official Jugo-Slavian quarters here are not alarmed over reports of revolutionary troubles in that country and declare diplomatic despatches from Belgrade yesterday indicated nothing amiss.

The Trieste report of an uprising is attributed to "a faction of trouble makers making Italians, who are seeking to embarrass the impending Italo-Serbian negotiations."

The Conflict at Laibach.
Vienna, April 27.—Ten civilians were killed and twenty injured in a conflict between strikers and gendarmes at Laibach, the capital of Carniola, in Jugo-Slavia, according to the Jugo-Slav press bureau. The strikers attempted to hold a prohibited meeting and the police surrounded and attempted to disarm them.

Thereupon, the message states, the communist leader called a general strike, which took effect immediately. The workers in the gas and water services remained at their posts.

The Adriatic Problem.
San Remo, April 27.—The question of the Adriatic settlement between Italy and Jugo-Slavia was discussed at a meeting in Nice yesterday between Vittorio Scialoja, the Italian foreign minister, and Anton Trumbitch, foreign minister of Jugo-Slavia.

When Mr. Trumbitch left Nice after the conference it was arranged that the two foreign ministers should meet again shortly at Trieste, on Lake Maggiore.

CHINESE BOYCOTT JAPANESE GOODS

New York, April 27.—Six hundred Chinese merchants from all sections of the United States, members of the On Leong Tong, went on record at a meeting here yesterday against the sale of Japanese goods. The merchants expressed resentment at the attitude of Japan toward China and vowed neither to import nor deal in Japanese merchandise.

ENGLISH ATHLETES WILL NOT COMPETE

Toronto, April 27.—A special cable to the Mail and Empire from London says that English athletes probably will not compete in the international games at Antwerp. The British Olympic council announced that the public is not supporting the appeals for funds to meet the expenses. Sixty-five thousand dollars is needed and so far only $9,000 has been subscribed.

Turkish Nationalist Troops Have Cut Bagdad Railway

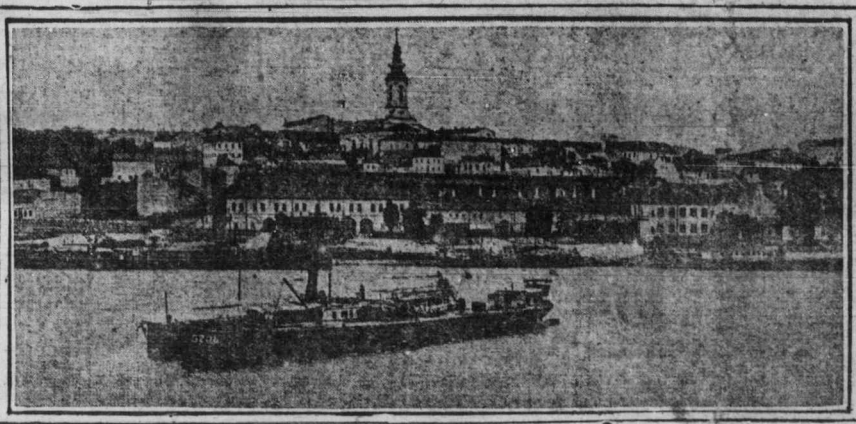

Severe Fighting in Several Places in Asia Minor.—The French Troops Have Re-occupied Aintab—Report of Destruction of Greek Villages Unfounded.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)
London, April 27.—French troops re-occupied the village of Aintab, Asia Minor, on Monday, according to a Constantinople despatch received by Reuters, Limited.

Forces supporting Mustafa Kemal, the Turkish nationalist leader, have cut the Bagdad Railway north and south of the Cilician Gates, where some fighting has occurred, and in which several Italian workmen have been killed and others made prisoner. Planch detachments have repaired the railway between Marash and Adana, which was cut by Turkish forces.

Reports that Greek villages north of Hadjin have been destroyed, are declared to be without foundation.

Scene of the Latest Revolution

BELGRADE, FROM THE RIVER.

Wholesale Desertions From Russian Soviet Army By Men Who Would Rather Sow Crops Than Go Into Battle Disturbs the Bolshevik

One Reason for the Failure of the Bolshevik Attack on the Polish Front Lately.

NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN RUSSIA AND FINLAND

Soviet Delegates Refuse to Consider Armistice Along
Lines Asked by Finland.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)
Bucharest, April 27.—Russian soviet troops would rather sow spring crops than go into battle, and this was one of the reasons for the failure of the offensive against the Polish front, in the opinion of Simon Petliura, peasant leader of Ukraine.

He spent a short time here on his way from eastern Galicia to the Prague conference, and said the shortage of men to work on Russian farms had resulted in wholesale desertions from the soviet army.

Soviet-Finn Negotiations.
Moscow, April 27.—The armistice negotiations between Russia and Finland reached a crisis Sunday and ended with the recall of the Russian delegates. The Russians demanded as a basis of the negotiations the status quo ante of 1914, and the Finns the status prior to their last offensive. This involves Finnish occupation of Petschenga and Karelia, a wide strip of territory extending almost to Murmansk and giving Finland great strategic advantage in the peace negotiations.

Another reason for the untenability of the proposal, according to the Russian viewpoint, was the declaration of Norway some time ago that in such a case the Government could make demands for a strip of territory on the Murmansk coast.

Negotiations Suspended.
The Lettish-Russian peace negotiations were suspended in order to permit the Letts to communicate with their Government regarding the question of boundaries.

Russia, it is said, is willing to grant the Letts part of the Ostrov district and the Pysalovo railroad junction, but demands Russia's former eastern administrative frontier. The Letts demand the inclusion in Lettvia of the districts of Opotchka, Sebesen and Drissa.

A member of the Lettish delegation said today that the demands of Lettvia were known to be endorsed by the Estonians.

The Annihilation of a Japanese Division is Reported From Siberia According to a Story From China

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)
London, April 27.—A Russian firm in Tien Tsin, China, has received a cablegram announcing the annihilation of a Japanese division in the Khabarovsk district of Siberia, according to a despatch from Tien Tsin to the Exchange Telegraph Company, under Monday's date. No official statement on incident could be obtained, the despatch adds.

German Minister Declares The Financial Collapse of Fatherland is Drawing Near

War Profiteers Are Turning the Nation's Economic Plight to Own Advantage—Refers to Huge Sum Required to Support Occupational Armies in Rhineland.

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)
Berlin, April 27.—Germany's financial collapse is near, according to a statement made before the National Assembly yesterday by Dr. Wirth, Minister of the Treasury, while presenting the budget for the coming year. The Minister attacked war profiteers who, he declared, "are turning the nation's economic plight to their own advantage."

Pointing to empty benches in the chamber, Dr. Wirth said the real truth of the situation was not adequately realized. He declared the army and navy budgets reached their present dimensions because Germany was maintaining a paid defence force, which former enemies should take into account in demobilizing the old army. This force has cost two billion marks, he asserted, while the government has already expended 3,000,000,000 marks on the maintenance of the occupational armies in the Rhineland and elsewhere. The postal deficit was given as one billion marks and the shortage reported by the administration of state railways was 12,000,000.

Dr. Wirth favored the early flotation of an internal loan and demanded that Germany's obligations imposed by the treaty of Versailles be clearly fixed.

Pointing to empty benches in the chamber, Dr. Wirth said the real truth of the situation was not adequately realized. He declared the army and navy budgets reached their present dimensions because Germany was maintaining a paid defence force, which former enemies should take into account in demobilizing the old army. This force has cost two billion marks, he asserted, while the government has already expended 3,000,000,000 marks on the maintenance of the occupational armies in the Rhineland and elsewhere. The postal deficit was given as one billion marks and the shortage reported by the administration of state railways was 12,000,000.

Dr. Wirth favored the early flotation of an internal loan and demanded that Germany's obligations imposed by the treaty of Versailles be clearly fixed.

Pointing to empty benches in the chamber, Dr. Wirth said the real truth of the situation was not adequately realized. He declared the army and navy budgets reached their present dimensions because Germany was maintaining a paid defence force, which former enemies should take into account in demobilizing the old army. This force has cost two billion marks, he asserted, while the government has already expended 3,000,000,000 marks on the maintenance of the occupational armies in the Rhineland and elsewhere. The postal deficit was given as one billion marks and the shortage reported by the administration of state railways was 12,000,000.

Dr. Wirth favored the early flotation of an internal loan and demanded that Germany's obligations imposed by the treaty of Versailles be clearly fixed.

Pointing to empty benches in the chamber, Dr. Wirth said the real truth of the situation was not adequately realized. He declared the army and navy budgets reached their present dimensions because Germany was maintaining a paid defence force, which former enemies should take into account in demobilizing the old army. This force has cost two billion marks, he asserted, while the government has already expended 3,000,000,000 marks on the maintenance of the occupational armies in the Rhineland and elsewhere. The postal deficit was given as one billion marks and the shortage reported by the administration of state railways was 12,000,000.

Dr. Wirth favored the early flotation of an internal loan and demanded that Germany's obligations imposed by the treaty of Versailles be clearly fixed.

Pointing to empty benches in the chamber, Dr. Wirth said the real truth of the situation was not adequately realized. He declared the army and navy budgets reached their present dimensions because Germany was maintaining a paid defence force, which former enemies should take into account in demobilizing the old army. This force has cost two billion marks, he asserted, while the government has already expended 3,000,000,000 marks on the maintenance of the occupational armies in the Rhineland and elsewhere. The postal deficit was given as one billion marks and the shortage reported by the administration of state railways was 12,000,000.

Dr. Wirth favored the early flotation of an internal loan and demanded that Germany's obligations imposed by the treaty of Versailles be clearly fixed.

Pointing to empty benches in the chamber, Dr. Wirth said the real truth of the situation was not adequately realized. He declared the army and navy budgets reached their present dimensions because Germany was maintaining a paid defence force, which former enemies should take into account in demobilizing the old army. This force has cost two billion marks, he asserted, while the government has already expended 3,000,000,000 marks on the maintenance of the occupational armies in the Rhineland and elsewhere. The postal deficit was given as one billion marks and the shortage reported by the administration of state railways was 12,000,000.

Dr. Wirth favored the early flotation of an internal loan and demanded that Germany's obligations imposed by the treaty of Versailles be clearly fixed.

Pointing to empty benches in the chamber, Dr. Wirth said the real truth of the situation was not adequately realized. He declared the army and navy budgets reached their present dimensions because Germany was maintaining a paid defence force, which former enemies should take into account in demobilizing the old army. This force has cost two billion marks, he asserted, while the government has already expended 3,000,000,000 marks on the maintenance of the occupational armies in the Rhineland and elsewhere. The postal deficit was given as one billion marks and the shortage reported by the administration of state railways was 12,000,000.

Dr. Wirth favored the early flotation of an internal loan and demanded that Germany's obligations imposed by the treaty of Versailles be clearly fixed.

Pointing to empty benches in the chamber, Dr. Wirth said the real truth of the situation was not adequately realized. He declared the army and navy budgets reached their present dimensions because Germany was maintaining a paid defence force, which former enemies should take into account in demobilizing the old army. This force has cost two billion marks, he asserted, while the government has already expended 3,000,000,000 marks on the maintenance of the occupational armies in the Rhineland and elsewhere. The postal deficit was given as one billion marks and the shortage reported by the administration of state railways was 12,000,000.

Dr. Wirth favored the early flotation of an internal loan and demanded that Germany's obligations imposed by the treaty of Versailles be clearly fixed.

Pointing to empty benches in the chamber, Dr. Wirth said the real truth of the situation was not adequately realized. He declared the army and navy budgets reached their present dimensions because Germany was maintaining a paid defence force, which former enemies should take into account in demobilizing the old army. This force has cost two billion marks, he asserted, while the government has already expended 3,000,000,000 marks on the maintenance of the occupational armies in the Rhineland and elsewhere. The postal deficit was given as one billion marks and the shortage reported by the administration of state railways was 12,000,000.

Dr. Wirth favored the early flotation of an internal loan and demanded that Germany's obligations imposed by the treaty of Versailles be clearly fixed.

Pointing to empty benches in the chamber, Dr. Wirth said the real truth of the situation was not adequately realized. He declared the army and navy budgets reached their present dimensions because Germany was maintaining a paid defence force, which former enemies should take into account in demobilizing the old army. This force has cost two billion marks, he asserted, while the government has already expended 3,000,000,000 marks on the maintenance of the occupational armies in the Rhineland and elsewhere. The postal deficit was given as one billion marks and the shortage reported by the administration of state railways was 12,000,000.

Dr. Wirth favored the early flotation of an internal loan and demanded that Germany's obligations imposed by the treaty of Versailles be clearly fixed.

Pointing to empty benches in the chamber, Dr. Wirth said the real truth of the situation was not adequately realized. He declared the army and navy budgets reached their present dimensions because Germany was maintaining a paid defence force, which former enemies should take into account in demobilizing the old army. This force has cost two billion marks, he asserted, while the government has already expended 3,000,000,000 marks on the maintenance of the occupational armies in the Rhineland and elsewhere. The postal deficit was given as one billion marks and the shortage reported by the administration of state railways was 12,000,000.

Dr. Wirth favored the early flotation of an internal loan and demanded that Germany's obligations imposed by the treaty of Versailles be clearly fixed.

Radicals Lose In Denmark Elections

(Associated Press by Leased Wire.)
Copenhagen, April 27.—As a result of the elections held throughout Denmark yesterday, the radical party lost 15 seats in the lower house of parliament. The social democrats, independent rights and independent radicals each lost one seat. The trades party gained three seats, the conservatives seven, the socialists four and the liberals four.

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The election passed like a steam roller over the radical party," says the Berlingske Tidende, commenting on the result. "The majority of the people stood like a wall against the socialists and crushed their brutal arrogance. With an enormous number of votes, the liberal party has conquered. The socialists went to the polls with a republic on their program, but the people, yesterday, rallied around their King."

The next House will be made up as follows: Trades party 4, Conservatives 23, Radicals 17, Socialists 42, and Liberals 48.

"The