Col. Sergt. W. Will the Champion Shot of the Regiment--- the Full Scores.

The forty-first annual matches of the Thirteenth Regiment were completed on Saturday last and the statistical officers have been busy making up the records. The year's work by this regiment is one that the city and the officers of the regiment, as well as every man control of the regiment, as well as every man control of the regiment. nected with the regiment, has good rea-son to be proud of. The reliable old Thirteenth fully maintained its reputation as being one of the best shooting regiments in the whole service.

As will be seen the shooting was exceptionally high, and a record for the home ranges. The regimental team at the ontario Rille Association matches won the "Lait Cup" with an average of 96 points per man, being the highest sobre ever made in the competition. B Company also won the "Brassey Cup" with an average of 93 1-4 points per man, being also a record for that match.

Composed of teams of five N. C. O. and men representing the right and left halt of the regiment, targets being twenty inches square, distance 500 yards, each man being allowed ten rounds of ammunition; time allowed for match, ten minutes. The ten targets represented the men of the competing teams, and as a each target was hit the man it represented became a casualty and ceased firing. At the expiration of 2¼ minutes the team representing the right half was annihilated, the left half suffering the loss of only three men, were the victors. This match being the first of its kind in Hamilton, proved very interesting, and the extraordinary marksmanship being the result of faithful practice on the ordinary target. MATCH NO. 10.

HACK'S BACK UP.

Russian Lion Refuses to Meet Joe

Rogers.

London, Oct. 18.—Hackenschmidt, the "Russian Lion," whom Joe Rogers, of New York, expected to wrestle here, has crawfished out of the match made for him by his manager, Charles Cochran, and Tom O'Rourke, of New York, acting for Rogers. It was a bitter disappointment for O'Rourke, who had brought his protage from the United States purposely to wrestle "Hack." Cochran has split with the "Russian Lion" because of his "throwdown" of O'Rourke, and is no longer looking after his interests.

Hackenschmidt's only excuse for declining to meet Rogers on the mat was that if he wrestled him he would have to meet a dozen others who are here clamoring for a match. He is planning a tour of the United States next spring, and a defeat now would, of course, knock his scheme into a cocked hat. Maybe that is why he refuses Rogers.

Cochran, "Hack's" former manager, has what he thinks a world beater in Zybisco, champion of Switzerland. Hackenschmidt has repeatedly dodged a match with Zybisco, and it is open talk here in aporting circles that the Swisswould probably defeat him if they ever stepped on the mat together.

O'Rourke has challenged Zybisco for Rogers, and a match is almost a certainty.

Rogers, and a match is almost a certainty.

If Rogers defeats the big Swiss, Hackenschmidt will have to wrestle him or retire. There is no dearth of wrestlers here now, and all are busy at theatres, London being "wrestling crazy" just at present. Pardouncy, the Cossack; Koch, the German champion; Olif Hasson, the Turk, and a dozen minor lights are seen on the mat here every night. It is possible a tournament will be arranged.

WALCOTT WON.

Rockland, Me., Oct. 18.—Just a few minutes before the end of the last round of the six-round contest last night between Joe Walcott, of Boston, and Billy Payne, of Philadelphia, the latter was counted out. Walcott inflicted severe punishment with body blows all through the contest, and Payne was four times down for the count of nine. In the sixth round Dr. G. L. Crockett who refereed the bout, threw Walcott through the ropes into the crowd because the latter disregarded his command to "break" in a cinch.
