MONDAY AFTERNOON, March 24.

HOUSE IN COMMITTEE ON THE AWARD, &C.

Hon. Mr COLES.—No, Mr Chairman, I see it stated that Nova Scotia and New Brunswick bills are at a premium. They have thus, by going to the British money market, got their public credit established. How much better it would be for this Colony, too, did our paper go at home for £100 or £112 per cent. I said yesterday that I was happy we could meet on the same ground—that as the Liberal party were in favor of the loan, though they were opposed to the part of the award relating to the fishery reserves, and some other things, yet they would waive these objections in consideration of what would be gained by the loan; but, sir, when I hear that the Government are not likely to go for the loan, and that they are saying that it is no part of the Award, I shall content myself with voting for the amendment which I have submitted, in order to test the Government.

Hon Mr LONGWORTH—I do not intend to answer the lengthy remarks of the hon. leader of the Opposition, nor of the hon. member for St. Peter's: but I shall correct, or rather contradict, some of their statements. We purpose to confirm the award, so far as it can be made binding; but though these hon. gentlemen cannot complain of our liberality on that point, yet they seem to be of opinion that some capital can be made by separating the loan part of the award from the rest, and submitting a resolution to the effect that a Bill should be introduced to guarantee the interest of a loan. The Commissioners had no power in reference to the loan; all their powers were exhausted when they suggested that it should be guaranteed by the British Government. It is stated that we are opposed to the loan. The Government have said nothing of the kind; they have submitted such a resolution as will allow them to secure the loan at any time.

Hon. Mr COLES—We wish you to do that now.

Hon. Mr LONGWORTH—I will come to that point before long. The loan is only a recommendation, and the resolution leaves it open to take up that matter at any time. But did we require a Commission to apply to Her Majesty's Imperial Government for a loan? We had power to apply for such ourselves as Her Majesty's subjects. The Commissioners have, however, recommended it, and we can take it up at any time. The hon. member for Princetown, Mr Sinclair, has put the matter in a very clear light; the way which he did so does credit alike to his ingenuity and to his standing as a member of this House. We are under no necessity to rush headlong in for the loan; but by confirming the Award, and getting the arbitration clause to work, the loan might afterwards be found useful. It would be difficult to obtain a loan in England, if capitalists found that it was to be taken up in driblets of £500 or a £1000. Go with such a proposal to the Rothschilds and they would laugh at the idea. If we were going to take up a loan in such small sums, we would require to go to a third rate capitalist, and he would charge six or seven per cent. When we are prepared for the loan, we may get the whole £100,000 for some 4 per cent. In reply to the hon member for King's County, I must say that I give him credit for consistency in regard to this matter of the Commission, and for the able manner in which he has advanced his views; but, Sir, we have seen them all in the Examiner during the last few months. With respect to the despatch before the Committee, he says it does not appear to be the intention of the Duke of Newcastle that we should take any legislation upon it. He passed very smoothly over that part which says that it is to be laid before the Legislature, and after going on for some time, asked if we were going to stultify ourselves by any action on the Award, in face of the objections made to it by the Duke of Newcastle? But are we, because his Grace objected to one or two clauses, to take up our hats and walk out of this House? Have we not the right to discuss the whole merits of the case, and then legislate on the matter. Are we to possess the rights of free men, or are we to be mere serfs? In respect to the Elective Council Bill, that hon. member said we ought not to be such serfs as to be tied down to the opinion of the Colonial Minister, and that he had a constitutional right to express his views on the subject. I agree with him there, and also say that we have an equal right to state our opinions and legislate on the matter under consideration. But he is opposed to legislation in reference to the Award, because the Duke of Newcastle did not give us a carte-blanche upon it. When the hon. leader of the Opposition presented his resolution yesterday, there was some consistency in it, because then we understood that he was in favor of confirming the Award and guaranteeing the loan in the same bill; but now he appears to be in favor of a separate Bill, which is quite a different matter. This change, however, I suppose was made to gain the support of his friends.

Hon Mr COLES—I did not say it was to be a separate Bill, but I understood so.

Hon. Mr LONGWORTH—It is impossible that we should know the intention of the hon. member. Now he says we must have a separate bill.

Hon. Mr COLES—If the Government think they can carry it out in one Bill, I have no objections that they should do so.

Hon Mr LONGWORTH—It would be folly to attempt anything of the kind. I will not follow the two leaders of the Opposition through their objections to the different parts of the Award. This subject has been thoroughly ventilated in the Colony; and now the report of the Commissioners has been printed, and the people can judge for themselves. These two hon members denounce the Award, but what remedy do they propound? They have come forward with no scheme to lieu of it. The only proposition which they bring forward is the amendment of the hon. leader of the Opposition, and that is included in our own resolution. The Commissioners felt that they had a difficult task, but they have given a decision which I think will be received with favor throughout the length and breadth of the land. I feel confident, at least, that the opinion of the great body of the people is that the Award should be confirmed. The 1500 acre clause may not be such as we could wish; but the question is, should the Award be rejected on account of two or three objectionable parts? We cannot cut and carve it, we must take the whole Award. One of the principal benefits it will confer is the remission of arrears of rent. It is well known that the arrears can now be collected for 15, 18, or 20 years back. On some estates the arrears have accumulated to £20,000; and those the Commissioners have struck off by one dash of the pen. I give the hon. member for St. Peter's credit for his consistency in opposing the Award, but I cannot give him credit for suggesting any other remedy.

Hon. Col. GRAY—I stated yesterday that no amount of speechifying could weaken the matter before us; the Award is a accomplished fact. My resolution in favor of confirming it is before the Committee,—vote for it or not. Some hon members do not agree with me, but I have not heard any sound arguments to show that I am in error. The hon member for King's County favored us this morning with a lengthy harangue, but the most of his remarks were foreign to the subject. As for the hon. leader of the Opposition he makes such singular statements that I am forced to believe that he draws upon his imagination for his facts, and that imagination is a most fertile one. What have we to do with the Loan Bill, the Micmac Indians, and several other subjects referred to by the hon. member? The Commissioners made no award with respect to such. The hon. member states that he understood I had offered to become an arbitrator for the tenantry. This is not the fact, for I never made an offer of the kind. He also says that I stated that the land on Lot 34 is worth 20 years purchase, but that the land at Belfast is not worth so much. What I did say will be found at page 28 of the Parliamentary Reporter. The proprietor of the land at Little York, who I understood would not dispose of it all, I said would be compelled by the Award to sell at 20s an acre, while in some parts of the Island, where the land was inferior to that on Lot 34, the people, by the arbitration clause, might not have to pay more than 5s. an acre.

Hon. Mr COLES—The inference I drew was that the tenantry in the one place were to pay 20s., and those at the other 5s. an acre.

Hon. Col. GRAY—The inference, then, was a most unfair one. Arrears of rent have also been referred to. £20,000 is more than £10,000 to the amount that might be collected even to the last farthing, if the Award did not come into operation. A great burden of 2s, 5s, 7s or £10 will be thrown off the tenant's neck.

Hon. Mr WHELAN—I would ask the hon. member if the arrears are to be given up, unless the tenants has made arrangements to purchase?

Hon. Col. GRAY—The hon. member who has risen—or to use his own expression if I had risen—"the hon member who interrupts me," has the Award before him; it speaks for itself. The hon. leader of the Opposition in referring to the loan, seemed to think that the Commissioners said that all which should be allowed the proprietors for the land was 2s. 6d. sterling an acre. I wonder if my hon. colleague is willing to sell Lot 31 for 2s. 6d. an acre. I would ask how many estates the hon. leader of the Opposition could purchase for 2s. 6d. an acre, when he was in power? The Selkirk estate was bought at nearer that rate than any which he purchased. He sees no good in the report of the Commissioners except in the loan part, because the loan is his hobby. I agree with the hon. member for Charlottetown, that the loan forms no part of the Award.

Hon. Mr COLES—I am glad the hon. member has made the statement, because he said his resolution was to confirm the Award, and now he says that the loan is no part of it.

Hon. Col. GRAY—The first part of the report of the Commissioners is the evidence brought before their Court, and the last is their decision; and I would ask which of the two is the people most interested in? Supposing we could get the loan—supposing we had the £100,000, what benefit would it be? Would one proprietor sell his land for 2s. 6d. an acre? Would Mr Bruce Stewart, or my hon. colleague, if inclined to sell, give their land for 2s. 6d. an acre? Suppose the amount given for the land was 7s. 6d. an acre, as limited in the Purchase Bill, what price could be set upon it to make it pay? What we want, in connection with the loan, is a power to make the proprietors sell, and that at a reasonable rate. Would it not be prudent for the hon. leader of the Opposition to get the proprietors to promise that they would sell at 2s. 6d. an acre, before we borrow the money? Because if we had the £100,000, and could get no land to purchase, where would the money go? Echo answers where?

Hon. Mr COLES—The money would not be drawn unless it was required.

Hon. Col. GRAY—I ask any financier if money could be obtained on such terms. Though I generally differ with the hon. member for Princetown, as he is my political opponent, and has sometimes, I think, treated me harshly, yet, Sir, I agree with him in his views on this question, when he says we can purchase land at any time under the Purchase Bill. This is what I have been advocating. The hon. member for King's County has been boasting of the return of his party at the next election.

Hon. Mr WHELAN—What I stated was that I believed at the next election the country would give a good account of the position of parties in this House.

Hon Col. GRAY—I do not see much discrepancy between the statements. It is impossible that any person can know by intuition what shall take place at the next election. It is in the womb of futurity. But I am willing to test this question now. I am willing to test who are the friends of the people to-night, and see how many of the hon. members of the Opposition will vote for the resolution which I have submitted. I would like to see them vote against it

[EXTRACTS FROM THE NEWSPAPERS.]

On reference to a return made to Parliament, and ordered by he House of Commons to be printed, 7th June, 1861, it will be seen that the increase of Duty for the year, paid by the QUEEN was £2367, being upwards of £1000 more than paid by any other office ever yet established in this city.

[From Gore's General Advertiser, Oct. 24, 1861.]

"Indeed, we believe that we are perfectly justified in saying that no other Company, within the same period, ever attained so large an income in either the Fire or Life Departments, as the Queen Insurance Company. In making this statement, we make no exception even in favor of our older local companies, namely, the Liverpool and London, the Royal, and the Lancashire Insurance Companies."

[From the Civil Service Gazette, Nov. 2, 1861.]

——"Among these important institutions, stands eminent for its solidity, as well as for its success, 'the Queen Insurance Company,' which last week held its annual meeting of proprietors in Liverpool. A reference to the ample report in another page will fully satisfy every reader of the signal progress made by this association since its foundation. Such success is, indeed, rarely attained; and it attests at once the excellence of its management, and the public confidence in its constitution.

[From the Liverpool Mercury, Nov. 2, 1861.]

"It must be gratifying to the public generally, and especially to the proprietors, to find that its income during the past three years has increased at the rate of £20,000 per annum. We believe that no other Company, within the same short period, ever attained so large an increase, either in the Fire or Life Department. This speaks highly for the activity and zeal of the management, while the promptness with which all the claims, arising out of the late disastrous fire in London were met, testifies to their financial ability and the care and prudence which marked the investment of those funds."

Valuable piece of Land for Sale.

THE SUBSCRIBER, INTENDING TO leave the Island in a short time, offers for sale a valuable piece of LAND, consisting of 257 Acres, covered with Hard and Soft Wood. It is situate on Lot 28, in King's County, about 60 chains from the Main Post Road; fronting on one side on the road entering at Patrick Kenedick's; on the other, on the road entering at John McEwen's. It is nearly a square block. About 20 acres of it was burned 3 years ago, and many of the trees are blowing down. The remainder was burned last summer. It would be very easily cleared, the trees being generally small. There is a stream, capable of driving two or three Mills the year round, and a good place to build a Dam, about 100 yards from Kenedick's Road.

PHILOSOPHY AND FACT!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

THE EXCITING CAUSE OF SICKNESS.

The blood is the life-sustaining agent. It furnishes the components of flesh, bone, muscle, nerve and integument. The stomach is its manufactory, the arteries and veins its distributors, and the intestines the channels through which the waste matter rejected in its production, is expelled. Upon the stomach, the circulation and the bowels, these Pills act simultaneously, relieving indigestion, purifying the fluids, and regulating both the secretions and excretions.

THE NATIONAL COMPLAINT.

Dyspepsia is the most common disease among all classes in this country. It assumes a thousand shapes, and is the primary source of innumerable and dangerous maladies; but whatever its type or symptoms, however obstinate its resistance to ordinary prescriptions, it yields readily and rapidly to this searching and unerring remedy.

SICK HEADACHE AND LOSS OF APPETITE.

A certain cure for headache, loss of appetite, and low spirits These Pills may be taken without danger from wet or cold, and require no restraint from business or pleasure. They strengthen the stomach, and promote a healthy action of the liver, purifying the blood, cleansing the skin, bracing the nerves, and invigorating the system.

A WORD TO FEMALES.

The local debility and irregularities which are the especial annoyance of the weaker sex, and which, when neglected, always shorten life, are relieved for the time being and prevented for the time to come, by a course of this mild but thorough alterative.

DROPSICAL SWELLINGS—TURN OF LIFE.

This is the most distressing period in woman's history,—it destroys thousands; the whole of the gross humors collect together, and like a tide sweep away health and life itself, if not timely and powerfully checked. The most certain remedy for all these dangerous symptoms is Holloway's Pills. Armed with this great antidote, the fiery ordeal is passed through, and the sufferer is once more restored to the possession of unimpaired health. These Pills are equally efficacious in all female complaints, and obstructions at the dawn of womanhood.

DISEASES OF THE HEAD AND HEART.

Why are these diseases so fatal? The answer is self-evident—because the first disordered action is neglected, or the means for its rectification are misapplied. Neither need be the case at the present day, when these excellent Pills can be purchased everywhere, at a price which places them within the reach of everybody. No misapplication can occur if the printed directions are properly attended to, as they invariably address themselves to the seat of the affliction, without deranging those organs which are already acting healthily.

Holloway's Pills are the best purifiers, and therefore the surest preventives of serious maladies; of which, if they be already established, they then become the most unremitting extirpators.

NERVOUS DISORDERS.

Any derangement of these delicate organs affects disastrously both the body and the mind. To the nervous invalid, Holloway's Pills are an article of vital necessity. They impart tone and vigor to the internal organs, and consequently to the nervous system, which pervades and connects them. Hence their marvellous cures of hysteria, low spirits, spasms, fits, headache, nervous twitchings, and other kindred complaints, which are all radically removed by the use of these invaluable Pills.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following diseases:—

Ague	Female Irregularities	Sore Throats
