GODERICH TOWNSHIP. (Too late for last week.) The annual public school examination which was held in S.S. No. 1, Friday,the 20th inst., was crowned with success, but owing to the inclemency of the weather the visitors were not so many as was expected. The pupils were exam-ined by other teachers, and the readiness with which they reaponded to the source of the teachers, and the readiness with which they reaponded to the with which they reaponded to the with which they reaponded to the source of the teachers, and the readiness with which they reaponded to the with which they reaponded to the source of the teachers, and the readiness with which they reaponded to the source of the teachers, and the readiness with which they reaponded to the source of the teachers, and the readiness with which they reaponded to the source of the teachers, and the readiness with which they reaponded to the source of the teachers and the teach on Friday, the 20th inst., for a two or three weeks' visit to the latter's par-ents. Mr Calbick has received notice that his presence will be required at Mrs Edward's trial, as he buried and embalmed the body of the late Hugh J. Whitely. He has to certify whether there was argenic used in the said embalming. Mr Calbick has always made his own embalming fluid and says that no arsenic is used in preparing the same. Trustees, Clinton, have engaged Mr E. A. Morrow, B. A., as classical master, to fill the place vacated by Mr Perry.
