The Horse's Vacation.

I'm going to have a vacation; I don't know where it will be; I know it's away from the city; And that is enough for me.

They say I shall roam in pasture; And roll in the fresh green grass; Where neither street cars nor autos Can terrify me as they pass.

I'm going to leave the harness; I'm going to caper and run; Perhaps I shall have companions To join me in my fun.

I shall dip my nose in the water Of a brook that sings its way; Through this wonderful, sweet, green pasture Where I for a time shall stay.

There are trees with wide-reaching branches; To shelter me from the sun; Rushes that I can nibble When weary of frolic and fun.

I shall sleep at night in the open; With stars shining over my head; The air blowing fresh in my nostrils; And the soft grass for my bed.

Good-by to the hard city pavements; Where the scorching sun beats down; To feed bags and stuffy stable— I'm going away from town.

I'm going to have a vacation The first one I've ever had; Out in the country I'm going; Do you wonder that I'm glad?

Ponderous Personages.

SIR WALTER RALEIGH. Sir Walter Raleigh is the world's greatest example of what can be accomplished by politeness. Born in 1552 in a peculiarly unhealthy time, owing to the general hostility prevailing, he eked out a precarious living by fighting and discovering until about 1608, when he returned from America with the price of a few weeks' board and lodging in his pockets, and while walking on the palace grounds discovered Queen Elizabeth hesitating before a muddy spot where the lawn sprinkler had flooded the vicinity.

He continued to explore and discover with great zeal and soon became so well acquainted with America that he would find the site of New York City in a few months from any given point without a guide. He colonized several southern islands, but owing to the promptness with which the colonists died, volunteers ran out and he had great difficulty in selling enough town lots to fund the city of Raleigh, North Carolina.

Sir Walter led a busy life for fifteen years, helping to put the royal kibosh on the Spanish Armada and fighting up and down the map of the world with great energy to the intense disgust of Spain. He discovered tobacco and introduced it in England, but was not guilty of rolling cigarettes. All would have been well for him if Elizabeth had not died. Her nephew, who took over the stock, fixtures and good will of the Empire, looked coldly on Raleigh and declined to fall for the coat game or any other form of politeness. He stuck Sir Walter into prison where the latter lived for thirteen years writing poetry and books and feeling for his head each morning nervous as he awoke. Finally he was released because of some skillful press agent work concerning some of the king's mines in Guinea, and burned a Spanish town to show his gratitude. However, the Spanish ambassador was a friend of the king's, and this proved his undoing. He was tried for murder, arson, malfeasance in office, treason, and on suspicion of being a suffragette and was beheaded October 29, 1617, with great éclat, going through the ceremony with a grace and courtesy which endeared him to all.

Sir Walter was a perfect gentleman through all his life to all except Spaniards, and deserved a better fate.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DYPHTHERIA.

Pig Swallowed $300.00.

Conn. Isiah Morrison, of Queensbury, gave his dogs an expensive meal quite accidentally a few days ago. He was coming to the city and just before leaving went to his pigery to see that the dogs were all right and to provide them with a parting feast. In some manner his wallet containing about $300 fell from his pocket into the trough. The

Varicose Veins and Itching Piles

Nearly everybody knows of Dr. Chase's Ointment as the most effective treatment for piles or hemorrhoids that medical science has been able to compound. So much suffering and misery arises from this ailment that one is not long in telling his friends when he has found an actual cure. This accounts for the enormous sales of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Many suffer from this trouble not knowing the comfort to be obtained by the use of this great soothing ointment.

Mrs. B. J. Evans, 157 Munro street, Toronto, writes: "We have used Dr. Chase's Ointment for years. I have been troubled with varicose veins, and find it the only thing that gives relief. For every purpose when a soothing, healing ointment is needed there is nothing so good as Dr. Chase's Ointment." 40 cents a box from J. Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

S.S. KYLE—The s.s. Kyle will sail for Labrador ports on Wednesday, Nov. 12th, at 1 p.m.

The Income Tax.

I am always coughing up, it seems to me; there's the tax upon my bow wows, two or three; and I have to ship a crate of my money to the state, and the poll tax makes me hotter than a bee. And the city needs my money for its game; and the country comes along and climbs my frame, crying, as it wields its ax, "You must pony up your tax," and the while doddered business is a shame. For it's money that I work so hard to get! Every nickel means a bucketful of sweat; and my gauds and my marks go to fatten up the sharks who are holding down the offices, you bet! And the final blow is coming down etsons; it will make our boastful freedom look like prunes, when our nery Uncle Sam, the original I Am, puts his hand into the voter's pantaloon. And he'll take your little wad and count your scads, and he'll confiscate the dollars of your dads, saying "I require the same, to conduct my little game"—then you'll be a mighty mournful bunch of lads. And his motive—if you do not see its drift—is to penalize all energy and thrift; to the prudent man he cries, as he robs him, "You'd be wise if you didn't earn this cash for me to lift!"

The Fall of Pompeii.

There was a good house at Rossley's last night. The Dora Patterson trio in a new act; Miss Arkandy, the clever young English vocalist, was heard to great advantage in a beautiful song, entitled "We have much to be thankful for." The new pictures brought out on the s.s. Digby, are splendid subjects, many big features among them. Jack Rossley is making arrangements to have the nine reel feature film, "The Fall of Pompeii," one of the most wonderful photo plays ever seen. It has been seen at Marcus Lewis Broadway Theatre, New York City, for four weeks. Mrs. Rossley has commenced training the city children for a big production at Christmas, and it will be both novel and surprising; a beautiful little Fairy story, dramatised by herself. She has engaged a larger number of people than last Christmas. Every costume will be new and in keeping with the story.

S.S. KYLE—The s.s. Kyle will sail for Labrador ports on Wednesday, Nov. 12th, at 1 p.m.
