A GRAPHIC STORY.

LONDON, Feb. 2. A graphic story of his experience s given in a letter to his sister by Capt. Wilson, member of Parliament, who, with Col. Napier, formerly military attache at Sofia, was taken off a Greek steamer in the Mediterranean in December by an Austrian submarne. Capt. Wilson says he spent 48 nours on the submarine during which ime the vessel fought an action with in Entente Allies' patrol boat. eelings of the prisoners on board the underwater boat are described as having been mixed between a desire having been mixed between a desire for the success of the patrol boat and anxiety over their own safety. NEWSPAPER ATTACK ON THE GOVERNMENT. The Mail, Empire and Daily Mail nds in Monday night's Zeppelin raid fresh material for an attack on the Government. If the Government had aken its advice, it says, all would have been well; as Great Britain in that case would have possession of an neroplane service capable of preventing Zeppelins coming to England and all important cities of Germany and ppelin lairs would have been raid.

The Mail accuses the Government of inertia, slackness and lack of pre-cision. It adds, we are perpetually on the defensive, owing to elementar; blunders and lack of foresight. We are on the defensive in France an Mesopotamia, at Salonika and in th air, and since Lord Fisher resigned we have been leading no attacks at sea. A most enjoyable time was spent by friends and pupils alike, at St. Mary's Sunday School, South Side, mediate reprisals against. German towns for damage done by Zeppelin raiders in England. The Chronicle says the Allies have means of exacting not merely an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth, but three cyes for each eye, and three teeth for each tooth. Such a policy of reprisals opens up a tragic perspective but at a certain point the demand for it may be justified. Something must be done to safeguard human lives in this country, says the Daily Felegraph, and punish those who commit these barbarous acts. The British public has no desire to hear that the German women and children have been seen as a service of the steamer California left here to assist the Maru.
