THE CAMPAIGN FUND.—The campaign fund is a free-will offering made by people who would be pleased to save the country at so much per year.

About every four years the people decide to vote on President and see if it will raise the price of fall pigs. A great many people who do not own any pigs have to be coaxed to the polls in an automobile, and this requires a large sum of money. Therefore it is necessary to have a campaign fund which can reach its long, sinewy fingers into every voting precinct and yank the glaze citizen to the ballot-box, also instructing him how to vote en route.

There was a time when campaign funds were made up largely of the spontaneous contributions of disinterested corporations, who had no interest in the election whatever save in seeing the old flag flourish. Some of the best corporations we have paid in to the campaign fund every four years merely to keep the protective tariff from being strangled to death. And yet there are newspapers which denounce the corporations and demand that they be brought under the provisions of the guarantee act.

Nowadays the campaign fund is provided by the docile and semi-intelligent office seeker, aided by the hopeful but parsimonious office holder. This is why campaign funds are smaller than they used to be. No sooner does a party worker get appointed postmaster than he backs up under the pretentious activity regulation and becomes harder to get money out of than a slot machine. When a man is Lady Davidson Addresses Gower St. League.

Quite a large number of the members of Gower Street League were present at the Church last night and listened to an interesting address ably delivered by Lady Davidson in her usual gracious and pleasing manner. On arriving at the Church, Lady Davidson was received by Rev. D. B. and Mrs. Hemmison and Mr. R. Heard, President of the League and Miss Wornell, Vice-President. Her Excellency chose for her subject "Women and the War," and in easy conversational style related her experiences while visiting the Old Country last winter, and pointed out the great part the women of the world were playing in the present war. During the evening Miss Flora Curtis gave as a reading "Florence Barclay's story of the making of the Red Cross Flag." Miss Clara Wood rendered "Mother, March." Pts. Roy Kendall, of the 1st Newfoundland Regiment, presided at the piano. A vote of thanks to Lady Davidson was carried by acclamation. A collection was taken up in aid of the funds of the W. P. A., and just before the closing of the meeting a cheque for the amount was handed Lady Davidson.

Nfld. Officer Married in England.

A very pretty wedding took place on November 14th at the home of the bride's parents, "Springvale," Cavendish, Botley, England, when Lieut. E. Jeffery, son of the Rev. C. and Mrs. Jeffery, Pouch Cove, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Joyce R. Davies, youngest daughter of the late Captain Robert Davies, R. N., and Mrs. Davies. The gallant young officer and his bride are spending their honeymoon at Lyndhurst, Hants. The Telegram wishes Lieut. and Mrs. Jeffery many years of married happiness.

Fads and Fashions.

A novel feature of some of the new coats is the opening in the hip, from waistline to hem. Through this, one catches a glimpse of the skirt. Evening gowns hang straight from the shoulder and are loosely belted. Sometimes hats and suits are stitched and embroidered in silver thread.

Long chiffon over-tunics are worn with a sash over the one-piece chemise robe. Persian embroideries and Rumanian colorings are seen in evening gowns.

Black chiffon velour with a gold motif makes a beautiful model of an evening robe. The cross-over fichu effect is seen on some of the corsages for velvet evening robes.

A broad gold and silver ribbon is used extensively as garniture on many of the new hats. Loose narrow belts, long easy sleeves and odd cuffs are features of the new gowns.

is allowed to print several miles of free plate matter and watch the corner hand take in the money. The campaign orator also works for small pay, but lives in the hope of being made ambassador to some coral isle, where the inhabitants struggle along without culture and underclothes. At the close of the campaign a startling deficit is usually encountered, which is made up cheerfully by enthusiastic patriots who have not returned from Washington with damp feet and a low temperature.
