DELIBERATELY UNTRUE.

LONDON, Nov. 29. A condensed report of the session of the House of Commons, early this morning, is given in the German wireless service of Nov. 27. The attacks on the German Government are omitted in this report, but it includes an account of Dr. Sol's speech. The Foreign minister is quoted as saying that the spirit of victory prevails.
The German Government has been given out.

LONDON, Nov. 29. The Imperial War Graves Commission, describing its plans for the maintenance of war cemeteries abroad proposes the erection of headstones of a uniform design, which are to replace the temporary wooden crosses and headstones. They will be thirty inches high and fifteen inches wide.
At the eastern end of the cemetery, a great altarstone will be raised, with broad steps. Each headstone will bear the badge of the soldiers' regiment, or other unit, in metal, across an inscription bearing his name, rank, regiment, date of death, and next of kin will be permitted. A three line inscription will also be allowed.
The graves of non-Christian soldiers will be treated in accordance with their own religious beliefs.

SYSTEMIC DEMOBILIZATION.

LONDON, Nov. 29. The Admiralty, War Office and Air Ministry issue reminders to the public that a general demobilization has not yet begun, and that the naval and military situation does not admit of any general release of men from the forces. When the general demobiliza-tion does begin, it is announced, priority will be given to officers and men who have done distinguished service. However, strictly limited numbers of men will be released before the general demobiliza-tion begins. The general demobiliza-tion will be a gradual process, and will be based on the needs of the country. The general demobiliza-

ASQUITH'S POLICY.

LONDON, Nov. 29. Ex-Premier H. H. Asquith, in the course of an election address to his East Fife constituents, condemns any tampering with the essentials of free trade, and advocates the prompt introduction of Home Rule into Ireland, and the undelayed removal of war restrictions upon personal liberty, and dwells upon the strengthening ties with the Dominions, which have resulted from war comradeship. He anticipates a stimulated inter-Imperial development of common resources, and more frequent and intimate interchange of counsel without in any way impairing local autonomy.

BRILLIANT SPECTACLE.

LONDON, Nov. 29. (Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency)—The first great social event of London, since the Victoria Ball, was given last night at the Albert Hall, was a most brilliant spectacle. It was promoted to start the half million sterling scheme for the National College of Nursing. A feature of the decorations were hundreds of white doves, symbolizing peace. Amidst the great display of allied flags, were an infinite variety of enormous fancy costumes, interspersed with large numbers of naval and military uniforms.

REPARATION THREATENED.

LONDON, Nov. 29. The Interdepartmental Committee of Prisoners of War, reports that since the armistice, 17,173 officers and other ranks have reached England; 6,386 officers and other ranks, and 10,787 civilians are expected immediately. Replying to the Government's protest against the shocking conditions in which the prisoners of war are being released, the German authorities state that the high command was doing its utmost to alleviate conditions, but the severity of the armistice terms presents difficulties. His Majesty's Government replied to the High Command that no excuse will be accepted, and that full reparation will be exacted for unnecessary suffering to British prisoners. If reparation in kind cannot be made, it will have to be made in person by officials responsible therefor.

THEIR NAME ACHIEVETH FOR EVERMORE.

LONDON, Nov. 29. Rudyard Kipling recently submitted to the Imperial War Graves Commission a suggestion for an inscription for the great warzone which forms the central feature in all cemeteries abroad. He writes "It was necessary to find words of praise and honor, which should be both simple and well known—comprehensible and of tongues and standing as far as possible outside the flux of men and things.
After searching and consultation of all ranks, and many races in our Armies and Navies, as those who had given their sons, it seemed to me that no single phrase could be better than that which closed the tribute to "Famous Men" in Ecclesiastes, namely, "Their name achieveth forever." The commission approved the recommendation.

William's abdication have already arrived in Berlin, according to a Berlin

DEATHS FROM INFLUENZA.

CAPE TOWN, S.A., Nov. 29. Viscount Buxton, Governor General of South Africa, said to-day that the number of deaths from influenza among Europeans and natives of South Africa, was estimated at 50-600.

CONDITIONS IN TURKEY.

GENEVA, Nov. 29th. An officer who has arrived here from Aleppo, describes the condition of women throughout Turkey and especially Asiatic Turkey, as deplorable.
Husbands are deserting their wives and girls are being sold for a few shillings.

ISSUES DENIAL.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Peru, through Eduardo Higginson, Peruvian Consul General in the United States, issued a denial to a denial of a recent statement by the Chilean Consul General, that Peru had apologized for its action in driving the Peruvian representatives from Chile. Cables received from the foreign office, in Lima, Mr. Higginson stated, announced that its severance of commercial relations with Chile was prompted not only by attacks in Chilean cities against Peruvian Nationals, but by forcible detention of its Consul at Iquique aboard a ship where he was held for several days communicating with his government.
The messages branded as untrue the claim of the Chilean Consul General, and
of commercial relations with Chile
communicating with his government.

REUNIFICATION.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 30. William Hohenlohe has definitely renounced all future rights to the throne of Prussia and Germany, and has released all officials and officers from their oath of fealty, according to the text of a document signed by the former Emperor, which is quoted in a telegram received here from Berlin.

AIR CASUALTIES.

LONDON, Nov. 29. Casualties in the Royal Air Forces from April, when the air forces were amalgamated, to Nov. 11, were: Killed, 2,680; wounded, 10,000; missing, 1,000; prisoners, 4,000, according to an official statement by the Air Ministry.
The total air casualties throughout the war will be announced later.

ORDER OF MERIT FOR FOCH.

PARIS, Nov. 29. (Havas.)—Following the dinner given at the Elysee Palace to-night, in honor of King George, a reception was held at the British Embassy, during the reception, King George bestowed upon Marshal Foch the Order of Merit.
Marshal Foch is the only French holder of this decoration. In bestowing it, King George said: an happy to give the highest distinction of which I can dispose, to the eminent soldier who has conducted the Allied armies to victory.

WAITING FOR MRS. HOHENLOHE.

AMERONGEN, Holland, Nov. 29. It is understood here that William Hohenlohe has been awaiting the arrival of his wife before going elsewhere. Germans in his suite believe he will return to Germany and are optimistic enough to think he will resume the throne. A member of Count von Bentinck's household said to-day that the former Emperor was greatly moved when his wife arrived and seemed particularly delighted. One of Herr Hohenlohe's servants was reported to have said that his master was much brighter, and to have added "things are looking better for us."

Y.M.C.A. AND PRISONERS.

PARIS, Nov. 29. Allied soldiers, who have been prisoners of war in Germany, are pouring through Metz, and an equal number are being returned through Verdun, according to Y.M.C.A. headquarters. British and Americans are being received at Verdun by the Y.M.C.A. and are given food and tobacco as well as any other aid that may be necessary.

Police Court.

A man was before court for loose and disorderly conduct aboard a vessel at the waterfront. His story was that he and another man went aboard the vessel, where they met a man who described himself as the captain.
They gave him a drink of good, pure whiskey—"none of your Florida Water or Bay Rum, your Honor"—on condition that they could use the ship's boat for a short while. When they were getting the boat the real captain turned up and ordered them not to touch it. However, as they had paid for the use of it in whiskey, the defendant was so enraged that he caught the skipper by the leg, exclaiming, "Over you go." This defendant failed in this and was soon safely escorted to the "emergency." He was fined $5 or 20 days.
Chas. Rose, Bell Island, who is charged with the manslaughter of Ed.
Barnes at that place on October 15th, was before court for 8 days. No counsel represented him.

Mariners Complain.

Some of our mariners and fishermen are complaining that the fog-horn on Green Island, Trinity Bay, is of very little use to navigation, for they state that it is impossible to hear the horn until practically ashore on the Green Island. The fog-horn is generally erected for protecting the lives of our sailors. In this case it apparently must be a toy, for if it cannot be heard by sailors then it is of no absolute use. The need of an effective horn on this island is evident to all sea-faring men acquainted with the section of the coast, and if the horn there is unsuitable, and apparently it must be, why the complain, then it is time that the matter be remedied and something put there of service to our seamen.

Dr. Cowperthwaite Interviewed.

We had an interview with Rev. Dr.
Cowperthwaite this morning, when a very enjoyable conversation took place. Dr. Cowperthwaite is enjoying very good health, can read comfortably with glasses, has a good appetite, and walks about five miles each day. It is to plenty of outdoor exercise that he attributes his health and strength. He is an assiduous reader of current literature and keeps tab on local events.
The Executive Board of the Methodist College presented him with a very expensive and comfortable arm chair this morning, while numerous friends called to congratulate him on the attainment of his 80th year. Rev. Dr.
Cowperthwaite is undoubtedly a popular gentleman. We wish him admultos annos.

A serious accident occurred yesterday evening aboard the S. S. Portia.

very great but Mr. McGittigan was badly shaken up and two of his ribs were broken by the fall. To-day his condition is still dangerous.

NEW BOND STORE.

It is correct that the authorities are going to convert the new barracks into a Bond Store. If it is so, then possibly they are likewise contemplating keeping the soldiers here in barracks for the purpose of making the building suitable for such, and so demobilization of the regiment will be put off until a little more expense has been incurred by our economical government.
