Whole sections were wiped out and cleaned up. The city was purged, cleansed, purified. Clergymen and church officials took leading parts in those leagues and were foremost in calling for their formation.

If this or something else is not done here St. John's will wake up one of these days to be confronted with a terrible problem.

Let us anticipate that and strike now, "while the iron is

At last the British authorities have decided to withdraw their troops from North Russia, so that they will now be able to return to their homes and well-earned rest. Their stay in Russia was by no means pleasant and there will not be one of them sorry to leave that frozen land. The usual incentive to fight and endure hardship was there missing and they did not even know for what they were fighting. They were not alone in their ignorance.

An Appeal TO THE GAME AND INLAND FISH-

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir:-Through the medium of your paper I should like to ask the Game and Inland Fisheries Board, to give one reason, only one, in support of their action in enforcing the close season for Beaver for 1919. In this section of the Island the eeling is very strong on this subject and I am going to give a few reasons, patent to most people intimate with this section of the Colony's na-1919 should be an open season for Reserve, near Sandy Lake. Which might be made a permanent Game Reserve or Sanctuary.

Some reasons why an open season should be allowed are as follows:1 .-Beaver skins worth only about $4.00 a few years ago are now worth

2.—It is generally thought that this price is unlikely to remain as high very long, and from an econwould suggest selling.

3.-The close season, which the Game and Inland Fisheries Board very wisely and thoughtfully enformendously in that time, and even if the Close Season act was generally well observed, it would appear to most people, a wise course to sell at every trapper. 5.-When it is known, and it is generally known, that the Beaver skins, illegally taken, are sold by the Trapper at insignificant prices, and that the perchasers export surreptitiously and sell in Foreign markets at several hundred per cent. profit, it should be another strong incentive to the Board for action.

Come gentlemen of the Game Board, you acted wisely in enforcing Paper Jelly, Jam Tops, selling at close season for Beaver, now act just as wisely; tell the people how you have fostered this industry: that it S.S.
