Harding's Inauguration A Simple Ceremony.

Personnel of Republican Cabinet— Germany in a Fighting Mood— Wilson's Reply to Lodge—Man- slaughter Charge Against En- gineer and Fireman.

HARDING IS PRESIDENT.
WASHINGTON, March 4. The inauguration of Warren G. Harding as President of the United States was carried out this morning with the usual ceremonies. Mr. Wilson the retiring President, accompanied the President Elect from the White House to the Capitol, but yielding to the entreaties of his family and physician took no part in the inauguration ceremony. He appeared very feeble.

THE HARDING CABINET.
WASHINGTON, March 4. Harding Cabinet, officers confirmed by Congress to-day were, Secretary of State, Charles Evans Hughes, of New York; Secretary of Treasury, Andrew W. Mellon, Penna.; Secretary of War, John W. Weeks, Massachusetts; Secretary of Navy, Edwin Denby, Michigan; Secretary of Interior, Albert B. Fall, of New Mexico; Secretary of Agriculture, Henry C. Wallace, of Iowa; Secretary of Commerce, Herbert Hoover, California; Attorney General, Harry M. Dougherty, Ohio; Postmaster General, Will H. Hayes, of Indiana; Secretary of Labor, James J. Davis, of Pennsylvania. They will be sworn in to-morrow.

NOW PLAIN WOODROW WILSON.
WASHINGTON, March 4. Eight storm tossed years in the Presidency of the United States, filled with moments and scenes that will live in history ended to-day for Woodrow Wilson now, as he himself smilingly asserted, under his own roof again as a private citizen the former President rested to-night with his burdens of state transferred to other shoulders and the shouting and tumult of public place behind him.

Through the day that had taxed his broken physical powers greatly he came smilingly and with a whimsical humorous twist to his comments, yet with no hint at regret at his retirement from high office. There was but one incident of the day when that cheerful mood seemed to fall. As he stood in the President's room, Mr. Wilson had been telling Senator Knox that he would not witness in the Senate the inauguration of Vice-President Coolidge as he doubted his ability to negotiate the few steps he must climb. The Senate has thrown me down, he

Harbor Grace Notes.

The S.S. Mary, Captain Bourne, arrived in port this morning from Bell Island, and is being part loaded with fish, packed in drums, from Mr. E. Simmons for Messrs. Harvey & Co. Ltd., St. John's. On account of the ice blockade, she could not get only within a short distance of the Point of Beach, and the fish had to be brought out on the ice to the side of the steamer. All were pleased to know that she was able to reach Bell Island a couple of days ago, which no doubt, relieved matters considerably.

Through letters received in town quite recently, we learn of the marriage of Miss Florence Pugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Pugh, and Mr. Ambrose Parsons, son of Mrs. and the late Leander Parsons, both of this town, which took place on the 12th February at Boston, Mass. Both the contracting parties are well and favorably known here. Mr. Parsons having worked as clerk with the firm of Mr. E. E. Parsons for a number of years, and has been working in Boston for some time. Many friends extend hearty congratulations to him and his fair bride.

The harbor ice is now in a fine condition for skating, and this afternoon quite a number were taking advantage of the good sheet of ice for that purpose.

Business in town has been very slow the past few days, practically nothing doing in the line of trade.—Cor.

said to the Pennsylvania Senator in reference to the battles of the past and the peace treaty, but I am not going to fall down. A moment later someone touched his arm to call his attention to the fact that Senator Lodge had arrived in the room as head of the Joint Commission to inform the President that the Sixty-Sixth Congress stood ready for adjournment, if he had no further communications to make to it. Wilson turned towards the man who led the fight against the treaty, his face lost its smile as he listened to the Senator's formal report, and there was in his own tone a touch of cool formality as he said "I have no further communication to make. I appreciate your courtesy. Good Morning."

GERMAN COMMUNISTS ISSUE PRO- CLAMATION.

BERLIN, March 4.
The German Communist party to-day made the ultimatum delivered by the Allies to the German delegation in London the occasion for a revolutionary proclamation in which German working men are called on to overthrow the Government, erect a Soviet state and effect a political and economic alliance with Russia.

GERMAN COMMENT ON ULTIMA- TUM.

BERLIN, March 4.
German newspapers in their comment on the Allied ultimatum to-day are unanimously demanding that the Government oppose the ultimatum with a determined "no."

FOUR MASTED SCHOONER LOST.

BOSTON, Mass., March 4.
The wrecking and probable total loss of the four masted schooner Anna Laura McKenney of this port, at Puerto, Mexico, was announced in a cable to the owners here to-day. All the crew are believed to have escaped.

TRAINMEN HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER.

VALPARAISO, Ind., March 4.
William Long, engineer and Geo. Block, fireman, of the Michigan Central train struck by a New York Central train at Porter, Ind., on Sunday night, to-day were ordered held for trial on a charge of involuntary manslaughter by the Coroner's Jury which investigated the disaster.

Hints to Home Decorators.

The decorating of the home is a fine art, the best results can only be obtained by careful study of surroundings the following hints may be helpful:
If your room faces North use a Warm Coloured Paper such as Brown, Yellow, or Red.
For rooms which get a good deal of sunshine, paper of cooler shades such as Greys and Blues may be used.
Care should be taken to Harmonize Your Wall Papers with the Paints, Fawns and Tans usually blend nicely with natural wood finish or grained doors and wood-work.
Remember Green is Nature's Colour for a Decorative Background, and Green Papers of the softer shades usually contrast well with rugs, curtains, and pictures particularly if the latter have gilt frames.
Small Rooms may be made to look Larger by the use of Striped Papers.
On low ceilings only use a narrow bordering, or perhaps better again a drop ceiling of white paper which joins up almost unnoticeably with the white ceiling, and so gives the room the appearance of more height than it really has.
It is important to buy your Papers at TEMPLETON'S who keep a Splendid Selection of the Newest Patterns at Prices which defy competition.

Wireless Man Drowned.

WAS WELL KNOWN HERE.
Whilst Mr. J. Gordon Crawford, wireless operator of S.S. Mona, was going aboard his ship at Liverpool one stormy night a few weeks ago, he missed his footing fell, and rebounding off the pier, was hurled into the water. A watchman, seeing the accident, plunged after him, but when brought ashore Mr. Crawford was dead, his head having been crushed by one of the first Marconi operators at the W.T. station at Mount Pearl, and it was he who received the first message that flashed across the Atlantic when the station was completed. Since leaving Mount Pearl he had been to St. John's several times as senior operator on both the Sackem and Digby, his last trip here being on the Digby in November last. Mr. Crawford was buried from his home on Feb. 4th. He leaves to mother a widow, formerly Miss Armstrong, of England, and a little four-year-old son.
