

We Take Hood's

Barsaparilla and Hood's Pills, and we cannot praise them too highly. First, Hood's Sarsaparilla cured a swelling of my right breast, which was called a cancerous tumor. This winter we all had the Grippe, but resorted to Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills and were soon well again. We all take Hood's Sarsaparilla when we feel bad or our blood is poor and it always makes us well. Mrs. J. Fallowfield, Brampton, Ontario.

Hood's Cures

Take Hood's Pills for Sick Headache.

IN SPORTING CIRCLES.

Flying Jib Races a Mile in 2:03 1/2— Draughts, Lacrosse and Other Matters.

THE TURF.

FLYING JIB'S FAST MILE.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 25.—A large crowd witnessed the race of the Louisville Fair and Driving Association today. The sport was characterized by sensational finishes. One of the features of today's programme was an exhibition mile by Flying Jib and running mate. The pacer went the distance without a skip in 2:03 1/2. Robert J. was sent an exhibition mile, covering the distance in 2:07 with a running mate.

DRAGHTS.
Mr. C. F. Barker has challenged Mr. Ferris to play him a match in Providence, R.I., for a stake of $500, and offers to allow him $20 for expenses. He adds that under no consideration will he play in Great Britain.

Two hundred and twelve players took part in a great match which was played in Australia recently between Melbourne and the surrounding country. The city won by 75, the figures being: City, 250; country, 215; draws, 117.

GOOLIES.
Mr. James McLaren, Newark, N. J., the veteran goolier, offers to play a match with any man of his own age, 66 years, for $1,000 or any part thereof—distance 18 yards.

CURLING.
There are 35 curling clubs in the Manitoba branch, which number may be augmented this season to 40, with an aggregate of 2,000 active members.

LACROSSE.
The long expected and deciding game for the intermediate championship between the Young Shamrocks and the Quebecs at Montreal, after a keen contest Thursday, resulted in a draw.

FOOTBALL.
QUEENS VS. TRINITY.
KINGSTON, Ont. 25.—Score in the Trinity-Queens football match here today, 30 to 10 in favor of Queens.

FRED YOUNG HEARD FROM.
TORONTO, Oct. 25.—Fred Young established a new Canadian wheeling record this afternoon at Rosedale, accomplishing two miles in 4:34. Carman tried to down the 25-mile record of McCarthy, but in an hour's riding was behind McCarthy all the way, being 100 yards in the rear at the end of the hour, when he gave up.

TELEGRAPHIC BOTS.

The tone of the London stock market is still improving, but almost nothing is doing. Clarence Cogswell, a prominent citizen of North Attleboro, R. I., Thursday afternoon killed his wife and then committed suicide.

A special from Caracas, Venezuela, says it is reported the cabinet, feeling that it is impossible to sustain President Crespo, will resign.

The Italian Government will allow dissolved co-operative societies to be re-constituted on condition that they formally renounce their adherence to the Socialist pact.

Mr. Sexton, aged 102 years, the mother of the late multi-millionaire and banker, A. M. Sexton, died on Thursday, October 26 at St. Joseph, Mo. Mrs. Sexton accumulated $500,000 by her own investments.

Judge Reach in the New York Supreme Court on Thursday decided that the will of the late Charles Katigabe Beck is valid. The Beck estate is valued at from $1,500,000 to $5,000,000, and a large amount is left to charitable institutions.

The question of the appointment of a receiver for the Commercial Alliance Life Insurance Company was fully discussed on Thursday before Judge Barrett in New York Supreme Court chambers. Judge Barrett said he would examine the papers before passing the application.

Steamship Arrivals.
At	From
Oct. 25.	New York.	Bremen
Baltimore.	Father Point.	Bremen
Numidian.	Heath Point.	Liverpool
Vancouver.	St. Johns.	Liverpool
Fraser.	The Lizard.	New York
Fries Bismarck.	New York.	Hamburg
St. Paul.	Montreal.	Glasgow

I GAVE HIM A BIG DOSE of rough on rats, and the reason that I never sent the rig for him was I never expected him to come back alive. I said, "For God's sake, Maria, did you do such a trick as that? She only said, 'If I had known you were going to do such a trick as that I would never have come to work here, nor would anyone else.' She laughed and said she had intended for three years to do it, and kept the rough on rats in the house for that purpose.

In the cross-examination by Mr. Osler the witness became mixed and could not tell exactly where he had lived since moving from Hamilton, twelve or thirteen years ago, and in a number of instances contradicted himself. He had sworn at the request and preliminary examination that he was at Norwich on Friday, whereas he swore in court that it was Harley. He said that he confessed to Rev. Mr. Best before the funeral, another time after the funeral and at a third examination three weeks after the funeral.

THE THIRD DAY.
BRANTFORD, Oct. 26.—The third day in the Hartley murder trial opened at Brantford this morning. The interest remains unabated. The cross-examination of Henry Ling was continued. He was quite positive that on the Friday before Harley died that Maria Hartley told him that she had given her husband a dose of rough on rats. He admitted that after being told that she had poisoned her husband he passed Dr. Haight's house on his way to Norwich, but he did not think it necessary to call and tell the doctor that a man had been poisoned. He forgot about that. He remembered going to Rev. Mr. Best. Witness corrected himself and said he had sent his father for the preacher. When he came he told him that Maria Hartley had died. That was the Tuesday after Harley died. Harley died on the Sunday. Ling denied that he had not made the confession for three weeks after the death of Harley. He did know Wm. Cayen, the man, but had not told him that he (Ling) was the man who administered the medicine to him. He had not told a bus driver named High Farrell, of Norwich, that Caleb Hartley took the rough on rats himself. This concluded the cross-examination of Ling. ARRESTED POISONING.

Dr. Haight, of New Durham, took the

"Rough on Rats."

Continuation of the Hartley Murder Case.

Clandestine Meeting Between Ling and the Prisoner Described.

Fred Hartley Was Asked to Bring Home Some "Rough on Rats."

Louis Ling, the Prisoner's "Lover," in the Witness Box.

A CLANDESTINE MEETING. BRANTFORD, Oct. 25.—The second day of the Hartley murder trial opened this morning at Brantford. Mrs. Woodward, who was carried from the witness stand in a fainting condition, again entered the box. She was unable to reconcile certain statements made by her at the examinations before the coroner and police magistrate and before the present court. Gilbert Woodward gave evidence of a clandestine meeting between Ling and the prisoner at his house at Hawtry. He saw them both with their arms locked in each other's arms. They were apparently on familiar terms. He saw the prisoner sit on the other man's lap, and he saw them walking around his house outside with their arms entwined in each other's. Witness was before them all had reproved her as a married woman with showing such unseemly behavior with a young man.

Fred W. Hartley swore that he had a conversation with Mrs. Hartley one day some two years ago. He was going down to Norwich, and she asked him to bring some "rough on rats," and not to give it to anybody but her when he returned, as she was afraid that the hired girl, who was a little weak in the head, might open the package and taste some of it.

Frank Allan saw the deceased on the Wednesday before he died; he told witness on that date that he felt a little better, and could eat more and stronger food; witness was not quite sure that it was Tuesday or Wednesday before Hartley died; deceased had his face swollen and bloodshot eyes when he saw him last.

The case is dragging slowly along. It is not expected to be finished before next week.

Frank Allen, cheese maker, New Durham, sworn—Knew Caleb Hartley, saw him on May 3 near the cheese factory. He was going to the doctor's; his face was flushed and eyes bloodshot. He told me he had vomited five or six times that day; I board near Hartley's, and called after to see deceased; saw him the Saturday night before he died; knew Mrs. Hartley and Ling; never saw them together.

Thomas Stevenson, baker, gave evidence. Witness called at Hartley's house with bread; asked Mrs. Hartley how her husband was, and she said he was not very bad and would soon be all right; that there was nothing seriously wrong with him.

Isaac Haight, farmer, of Newburyham, gave evidence as to Hartley's illness. Mrs. Hartley told witness that somebody must have given Hartley a big dose when he was away in Hamilton; Hartley joined the Home Circle about seven years ago; Mrs. Hartley wanted deceased to join the A. O. U. W.; she said the insurance should be made payable to her, as he had no wife; was provided for in his grandfather's will.

LOUIS LING'S TESTIMONY.
Louis Ling, the principal witness, took the stand. He gave an account of the different places where he had been working for some time previous to his first going to work for Caleb Hartley. Witness first worked two weeks for Caleb Hartley and boarded at Jacob Gould's; first became acquainted with Mrs. Hartley in the store about eighteen months previous to Caleb Hartley's death; went to Hartley's store with George Hall and Harry Walker; saw Mrs. Hartley and remained till 10 o'clock; went again Thursday or Friday night of the same week about 9 p.m. and left between 12 and 1—the others left about 10. Witness said: She took me in the house; there was no light in the house; she set down beside me on the lounge, put her arms around me; somebody came, and she put me in a bedroom until they had done. Witness then detailed the different dates, places and circumstances of his improper relations with Mrs. Hartley. Continuing, witness said deceased vomited on Thursday and Friday. "I was hitching up the horse to get ice for Caleb at his request when Mrs. Hartley came out and said: 'I want to tell you something, and I want you never to tell as long as you live.' I would not promise, but she said 'Thursday Caleb went to Hamilton."

THE PRISONER'S ANSWERS.
Fred W. Hartley, the prisoner, took the stand. He gave an account of the different places where he had been working for some time previous to his first going to work for Caleb Hartley. Witness first worked two weeks for Caleb Hartley and boarded at Jacob Gould's; first became acquainted with Mrs. Hartley in the store about eighteen months previous to Caleb Hartley's death; went to Hartley's store with George Hall and Harry Walker; saw Mrs. Hartley and remained till 10 o'clock; went again Thursday or Friday night of the same week about 9 p.m. and left between 12 and 1—the others left about 10. Witness said: She took me in the house; there was no light in the house; she set down beside me on the lounge, put her arms around me; somebody came, and she put me in a bedroom until they had done. Witness then detailed the different dates, places and circumstances of his improper relations with Mrs. Hartley. Continuing, witness said deceased vomited on Thursday and Friday. "I was hitching up the horse to get ice for Caleb at his request when Mrs. Hartley came out and said: 'I want to tell you something, and I want you never to tell as long as you live.' I would not promise, but she said 'Thursday Caleb went to Hamilton.'"

THE PRISONER'S ANSWERS.
Fred W. Hartley, the prisoner, took the stand. He gave an account of the different places where he had been working for some time previous to his first going to work for Caleb Hartley. Witness first worked two weeks for Caleb Hartley and boarded at Jacob Gould's; first became acquainted with Mrs. Hartley in the store about eighteen months previous to Caleb Hartley's death; went to Hartley's store with George Hall and Harry Walker; saw Mrs. Hartley and remained till 10 o'clock; went again Thursday or Friday night of the same week about 9 p.m. and left between 12 and 1—the others left about 10. Witness said: She took me in the house; there was no light in the house; she set down beside me on the lounge, put her arms around me; somebody came, and she put me in a bedroom until they had done. Witness then detailed the different dates, places and circumstances of his improper relations with Mrs. Hartley. Continuing, witness said deceased vomited on Thursday and Friday. "I was hitching up the horse to get ice for Caleb at his request when Mrs. Hartley came out and said: 'I want to tell you something, and I want you never to tell as long as you live.' I would not promise, but she said 'Thursday Caleb went to Hamilton.'"

THE PRISONER'S ANSWERS.
Fred W. Hartley, the prisoner, took the stand. He gave an account of the different places where he had been working for some time previous to his first going to work for Caleb Hartley. Witness first worked two weeks for Caleb Hartley and boarded at Jacob Gould's; first became acquainted with Mrs. Hartley in the store about eighteen months previous to Caleb Hartley's death; went to Hartley's store with George Hall and Harry Walker; saw Mrs. Hartley and remained till 10 o'clock; went again Thursday or Friday night of the same week about 9 p.m. and left between 12 and 1—the others left about 10. Witness said: She took me in the house; there was no light in the house; she set down beside me on the lounge, put her arms around me; somebody came, and she put me in a bedroom until they had done. Witness then detailed the different dates, places and circumstances of his improper relations with Mrs. Hartley. Continuing, witness said deceased vomited on Thursday and Friday. "I was hitching up the horse to get ice for Caleb at his request when Mrs. Hartley came out and said: 'I want to tell you something, and I want you never to tell as long as you live.' I would not promise, but she said 'Thursday Caleb went to Hamilton.'"

THE PRISONER'S ANSWERS.
Fred W. Hartley, the prisoner, took the stand. He gave an account of the different places where he had been working for some time previous to his first going to work for Caleb Hartley. Witness first worked two weeks for Caleb Hartley and boarded at Jacob Gould's; first became acquainted with Mrs. Hartley in the store about eighteen months previous to Caleb Hartley's death; went to Hartley's store with George Hall and Harry Walker; saw Mrs. Hartley and remained till 10 o'clock; went again Thursday or Friday night of the same week about 9 p.m. and left between 12 and 1—the others left about 10. Witness said: She took me in the house; there was no light in the house; she set down beside me on the lounge, put her arms around me; somebody came, and she put me in a bedroom until they had done. Witness then detailed the different dates, places and circumstances of his improper relations with Mrs. Hartley. Continuing, witness said deceased vomited on Thursday and Friday. "I was hitching up the horse to get ice for Caleb at his request when Mrs. Hartley came out and said: 'I want to tell you something, and I want you never to tell as long as you live.' I would not promise, but she said 'Thursday Caleb went to Hamilton.'"

THE PRISONER'S ANSWERS.
Fred W. Hartley, the prisoner, took the stand. He gave an account of the different places where he had been working for some time previous to his first going to work for Caleb Hartley. Witness first worked two weeks for Caleb Hartley and boarded at Jacob Gould's; first became acquainted with Mrs. Hartley in the store about eighteen months previous to Caleb Hartley's death; went to Hartley's store with George Hall and Harry Walker; saw Mrs. Hartley and remained till 10 o'clock; went again Thursday or Friday night of the same week about 9 p.m. and left between 12 and 1—the others left about 10. Witness said: She took me in the house; there was no light in the house; she set down beside me on the lounge, put her arms around me; somebody came, and she put me in a bedroom until they had done. Witness then detailed the different dates, places and circumstances of his improper relations with Mrs. Hartley. Continuing, witness said deceased vomited on Thursday and Friday. "I was hitching up the horse to get ice for Caleb at his request when Mrs. Hartley came out and said: 'I want to tell you something, and I want you never to tell as long as you live.' I would not promise, but she said 'Thursday Caleb went to Hamilton.'"

THE PRISONER'S ANSWERS.
Fred W. Hartley, the prisoner, took the stand. He gave an account of the different places where he had been working for some time previous to his first going to work for Caleb Hartley. Witness first worked two weeks for Caleb Hartley and boarded at Jacob Gould's; first became acquainted with Mrs. Hartley in the store about eighteen months previous to Caleb Hartley's death; went to Hartley's store with George Hall and Harry Walker; saw Mrs. Hartley and remained till 10 o'clock; went again Thursday or Friday night of the same week about 9 p.m. and left between 12 and 1—the others left about 10. Witness said: She took me in the house; there was no light in the house; she set down beside me on the lounge, put her arms around me; somebody came, and she put me in a bedroom until they had done. Witness then detailed the different dates, places and circumstances of his improper relations with Mrs. Hartley. Continuing, witness said deceased vomited on Thursday and Friday. "I was hitching up the horse to get ice for Caleb at his request when Mrs. Hartley came out and said: 'I want to tell you something, and I want you never to tell as long as you live.' I would not promise, but she said 'Thursday Caleb went to Hamilton.'"

THE PRISONER'S ANSWERS.
Fred W. Hartley, the prisoner, took the stand. He gave an account of the different places where he had been working for some time previous to his first going to work for Caleb Hartley. Witness first worked two weeks for Caleb Hartley and boarded at Jacob Gould's; first became acquainted with Mrs. Hartley in the store about eighteen months previous to Caleb Hartley's death; went to Hartley's store with George Hall and Harry Walker; saw Mrs. Hartley and remained till 10 o'clock; went again Thursday or Friday night of the same week about 9 p.m. and left between 12 and 1—the others left about 10. Witness said: She took me in the house; there was no light in the house; she set down beside me on the lounge, put her arms around me; somebody came, and she put me in a bedroom until they had done. Witness then detailed the different dates, places and circumstances of his improper relations with Mrs. Hartley. Continuing, witness said deceased vomited on Thursday and Friday. "I was hitching up the horse to get ice for Caleb at his request when Mrs. Hartley came out and said: 'I want to tell you something, and I want you never to tell as long as you live.' I would not promise, but she said 'Thursday Caleb went to Hamilton.'"

THE PRISONER'S ANSWERS.
Fred W. Hartley, the prisoner, took the stand. He gave an account of the different places where he had been working for some time previous to his first going to work for Caleb Hartley. Witness first worked two weeks for Caleb Hartley and boarded at Jacob Gould's; first became acquainted with Mrs. Hartley in the store about eighteen months previous to Caleb Hartley's death; went to Hartley's store with George Hall and Harry Walker; saw Mrs. Hartley and remained till 10 o'clock; went again Thursday or Friday night of the same week about 9 p.m. and left between 12 and 1—the others left about 10. Witness said: She took me in the house; there was no light in the house; she set down beside me on the lounge, put her arms around me; somebody came, and she put me in a bedroom until they had done. Witness then detailed the different dates, places and circumstances of his improper relations with Mrs. Hartley. Continuing, witness said deceased vomited on Thursday and Friday. "I was hitching up the horse to get ice for Caleb at his request when Mrs. Hartley came out and said: 'I want to tell you something, and I want you never to tell as long as you live.' I would not promise, but she said 'Thursday Caleb went to Hamilton.'"

THE PRISONER'S ANSWERS.
Fred W. Hartley, the prisoner, took the stand. He gave an account of the different places where he had been working for some time previous to his first going to work for Caleb Hartley. Witness first worked two weeks for Caleb Hartley and boarded at Jacob Gould's; first became acquainted with Mrs. Hartley in the store about eighteen months previous to Caleb Hartley's death; went to Hartley's store with George Hall and Harry Walker; saw Mrs. Hartley and remained till 10 o'clock; went again Thursday or Friday night of the same week about 9 p.m. and left between 12 and 1—the others left about 10. Witness said: She took me in the house; there was no light in the house; she set down beside me on the lounge, put her arms around me; somebody came, and she put me in a bedroom until they had done. Witness then detailed the different dates, places and circumstances of his improper relations with Mrs. Hartley. Continuing, witness said deceased vomited on Thursday and Friday. "I was hitching up the horse to get ice for Caleb at his request when Mrs. Hartley came out and said: 'I want to tell you something, and I want you never to tell as long as you live.' I would not promise, but she said 'Thursday Caleb went to Hamilton.'"

THE PRISONER'S ANSWERS.
Fred W. Hartley, the prisoner, took the stand. He gave an account of the different places where he had been working for some time previous to his first going to work for Caleb Hartley. Witness first worked two weeks for Caleb Hartley and boarded at Jacob Gould's; first became acquainted with Mrs. Hartley in the store about eighteen months previous to Caleb Hartley's death; went to Hartley's store with George Hall and Harry Walker; saw Mrs. Hartley and remained till 10 o'clock; went again Thursday or Friday night of the same week about 9 p.m. and left between 12 and 1—the others left about 10. Witness said: She took me in the house; there was no light in the house; she set down beside me on the lounge, put her arms around me; somebody came, and she put me in a bedroom until they had done. Witness then detailed the different dates, places and circumstances of his improper relations with Mrs. Hartley. Continuing, witness said deceased vomited on Thursday and Friday. "I was hitching up the horse to get ice for Caleb at his request when Mrs. Hartley came out and said: 'I want to tell you something, and I want you never to tell as long as you live.' I would not promise, but she said 'Thursday Caleb went to Hamilton.'"

THE PRISONER'S ANSWERS.
Fred W. Hartley, the prisoner, took the stand. He gave an account of the different places where he had been working for some time previous to his first going to work for Caleb Hartley. Witness first worked two weeks for Caleb Hartley and boarded at Jacob Gould's; first became acquainted with Mrs. Hartley in the store about eighteen months previous to Caleb Hartley's death; went to Hartley's store with George Hall and Harry Walker; saw Mrs. Hartley and remained till 10 o'clock; went again Thursday or Friday night of the same week about 9 p.m. and left between 12 and 1—the others left about 10. Witness said: She took me in the house; there was no light in the house; she set down beside me on the lounge, put her arms around me; somebody came, and she put me in a bedroom until they had done. Witness then detailed the different dates, places and circumstances of his improper relations with Mrs. Hartley. Continuing, witness said deceased vomited on Thursday and Friday. "I was hitching up the horse to get ice for Caleb at his request when Mrs. Hartley came out and said: 'I want to tell you something, and I want you never to tell as long as you live.' I would not promise, but she said 'Thursday Caleb went to Hamilton.'"

THE PRISONER'S ANSWERS.
Fred W. Hartley, the prisoner, took the stand. He gave an account of the different places where he had been working for some time previous to his first going to work for Caleb Hartley. Witness first worked two weeks for Caleb Hartley and boarded at Jacob Gould's; first became acquainted with Mrs. Hartley in the store about eighteen months previous to Caleb Hartley's death; went to Hartley's store with George Hall and Harry Walker; saw Mrs. Hartley and remained till 10 o'clock; went again Thursday or Friday night of the same week about 9 p.m. and left between 12 and 1—the others left about 10. Witness said: She took me in the house; there was no light in the house; she set down beside me on the lounge, put her arms around me; somebody came, and she put me in a bedroom until they had done. Witness then detailed the different dates, places and circumstances of his improper relations with Mrs. Hartley. Continuing, witness said deceased vomited on Thursday and Friday. "I was hitching up the horse to get ice for Caleb at his request when Mrs. Hartley came out and said: 'I want to tell you something, and I want you never to tell as long as you live.' I would not promise, but she said 'Thursday Caleb went to Hamilton.'"

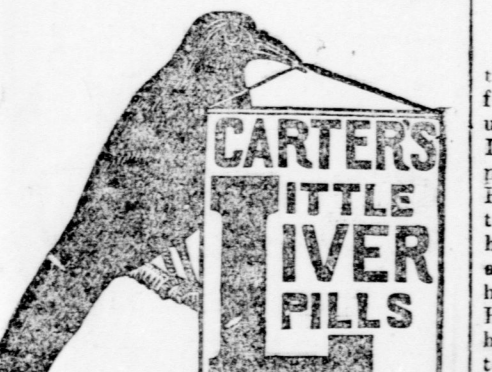

THE PRISONER'S ANSWERS.
Fred W. Hartley, the prisoner, took the stand. He gave an account of the different places where he had been working for some time previous to his first going to work for Caleb Hartley. Witness first worked two weeks for Caleb Hartley and boarded at Jacob Gould's; first became acquainted with Mrs. Hartley in the store about eighteen months previous to Caleb Hartley's death; went to Hartley's store with George Hall and Harry Walker; saw Mrs. Hartley and remained till 10 o'clock; went again Thursday or Friday night of the same week about 9 p.m. and left between 12 and 1—the others left about 10. Witness said: She took me in the house; there was no light in the house; she set down beside me on the lounge, put her arms around me; somebody came, and she put me in a bedroom until they had done. Witness then detailed the different dates, places and circumstances of his improper relations with Mrs. Hartley. Continuing, witness said deceased vomited on Thursday and Friday. "I was hitching up the horse to get ice for Caleb at his request when Mrs. Hartley came out and said: 'I want to tell you something, and I want you never to tell as long as you live.' I would not promise, but she said 'Thursday Caleb went to Hamilton.'"

THE PRISONER'S ANSWERS.
Fred W. Hartley, the prisoner, took the stand. He gave an account of the different places where he had been working for some time previous to his first going to work for Caleb Hartley. Witness first worked two weeks for Caleb Hartley and boarded at Jacob Gould's; first became acquainted with Mrs. Hartley in the store about eighteen months previous to Caleb Hartley's death; went to Hartley's store with George Hall and Harry Walker; saw Mrs. Hartley and remained till 10 o'clock; went again Thursday or Friday night of the same week about 9 p.m. and left between 12 and 1—the others left about 10. Witness said: She took me in the house; there was no light in the house; she set down beside me on the lounge, put her arms around me; somebody came, and she put me in a bedroom until they had done. Witness then detailed the different dates, places and circumstances of his improper relations with Mrs. Hartley. Continuing, witness said deceased vomited on Thursday and Friday. "I was hitching up the horse to get ice for Caleb at his request when Mrs. Hartley came out and said: 'I want to tell you something, and I want you never to tell as long as you live.' I would not promise, but she said 'Thursday Caleb went to Hamilton.'"

THE PRISONER'S ANSWERS.
Fred W. Hartley, the prisoner, took the stand. He gave an account of the different places where he had been working for some time previous to his first going to work for Caleb Hartley. Witness first worked two weeks for Caleb Hartley and boarded at Jacob Gould's; first became acquainted with Mrs. Hartley in the store about eighteen months previous to Caleb Hartley's death; went to Hartley's store with George Hall and Harry Walker; saw Mrs. Hartley and remained till 10 o'clock; went again Thursday or Friday night of the same week about 9 p.m. and left between 12 and 1—the others left about 10. Witness said: She took me in the house; there was no light in the house; she set down beside me on the lounge, put her arms around me; somebody came, and she put me in a bedroom until they had done. Witness then detailed the different dates, places and circumstances of his improper relations with Mrs. Hartley. Continuing, witness said deceased vomited on Thursday and Friday. "I was hitching up the horse to get ice for Caleb at his request when Mrs. Hartley came out and said: 'I want to tell you something, and I want you never to tell as long as you live.' I would not promise, but she said 'Thursday Caleb went to Hamilton.'"

THE PRISONER'S ANSWERS.
Fred W. Hartley, the prisoner, took the stand. He gave an account of the different places where he had been working for some time previous to his first going to work for Caleb Hartley. Witness first worked two weeks for Caleb Hartley and boarded at Jacob Gould's; first became acquainted with Mrs. Hartley in the store about eighteen months previous to Caleb Hartley's death; went to Hartley's store with George Hall and Harry Walker; saw Mrs. Hartley and remained till 10 o'clock; went again Thursday or Friday night of the same week about 9 p.m. and left between 12 and 1—the others left about 10. Witness said: She took me in the house; there was no light in the house; she set down beside me on the lounge, put her arms around me; somebody came, and she put me in a bedroom until they had done. Witness then detailed the different dates, places and circumstances of his improper relations with Mrs. Hartley. Continuing, witness said deceased vomited on Thursday and Friday. "I was hitching up the horse to get ice for Caleb at his request when Mrs. Hartley came out and said: 'I want to tell you something, and I want you never to tell as long as you live.' I would not promise, but she said 'Thursday Caleb went to Hamilton.'"

THE PRISONER'S ANSWERS.
Fred W. Hartley, the prisoner, took the stand. He gave an account of the different places where he had been working for some time previous to his first going to work for Caleb Hartley. Witness first worked two weeks for Caleb Hartley and boarded at Jacob Gould's; first became acquainted with Mrs. Hartley in the store about eighteen months previous to Caleb Hartley's death; went to Hartley's store with George Hall and Harry Walker; saw Mrs. Hartley and remained till 10 o'clock; went again Thursday or Friday night of the same week about 9 p.m. and left between 12 and 1—the others left about 10. Witness said: She took me in the house; there was no light in the house; she set down beside me on the lounge, put her arms around me; somebody came, and she put me in a bedroom until they had done. Witness then detailed the different dates, places and circumstances of his improper relations with Mrs. Hartley. Continuing, witness said deceased vomited on Thursday and Friday. "I was hitching up the horse to get ice for Caleb at his request when Mrs. Hartley came out and said: 'I want to tell you something, and I want you never to tell as long as you live.' I would not promise, but she said 'Thursday Caleb went to Hamilton.'"

CARTERS' LITTLE LIVER PILLS

SICK HEADACHE

Positively cured by these Little Pills.

They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They Regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.

Small Pill. Small Dose. Small Price.

stand after the recess at noon. He was called in to see Hartley the Wednesday before he died. He found him suffering from acute irritation and inflammation of the abdomen. He ascribed that to excess of drink. On Thursday the patient had developed all the symptoms of arsenic poisoning. He called Dr. Hill, of Norwich, who confirmed on the Sunday evening following. Hartley died with all the usual signs of acute arsenical poisoning.

Late Canadian News.

Gold Said to Have Been Struck Near Shoal Lake, Man.

Three Persons "Pulled Up" for Posting Papers With Letters Concealed in Them.

Ottawa's fire losses for the nine months ended Sept. 30 totaled $400,340; insurance, $550,284.

It is reported that the Quebec Parliamentary session will be opened on Nov. 22, but the date is not yet official.

Postoffice Inspector Hawkins at Ottawa and the 20 parties brought before him and fined for infractions against the postal law. The charges against them were sending letters in parcels and using old stamps. A brakeman named Lambert, who met with an accident on the Quebec, Montmorency and Charlevoix Railway about three weeks ago, died from the result of his injuries at the Hotel Dieu Hospital, Montreal, on Thursday.

Messrs. Bush Vining and Fred Vining, of Hamilton, have, they claim, struck gold near Shoal Lake. They have three prospecting parties have struck gold there. The nearest station to the find is Fort Francis, 42 miles off. The brothers have secured 1,000 acres of the land.

The abrupt and mysterious disappearance of John Owens, who has been living at the International Hotel, Windsor, has caused much concern among his friends. He is about 70 years old and disappeared Tuesday, having paid his board a few weeks in advance.

On the 23rd inst. a party of five tramps attacked an Arabian peddler about two miles west of Fort Erie and robbed him of something over $100 in cash, besides the goods he carried. Then they tied him to a tree and left him while four of them made for Uncle Sam's domains. Two of the party, John L. Hubard and Frank Spencer, have just been caught and sent to Welland for trial.

The Dominion Government has issued orders calling for tenders for the construction of about five and a half miles of the Trent Valley Canal on Simcoe and Balsam Lake division and also for the construction of about three and a half miles on the Peterboro and Lakefield division.

BLAKE IN THE QUAKER CITY.

His Address Described as "A Masterpiece of Eloquence."

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—At the Academy of Music tonight the Hon. Edward Blake addressed a large and enthusiastic audience upon the subject of home rule for Ireland. Mr. Blake's address was a masterpiece of eloquence, and he was frequently interrupted by the enthusiastic cheering of his auditors, whose sympathy with the cause he represented was shown in a practical manner by the large contributions that were given at the close of the meeting.

SOLD SMILES FOR SECRETS.

Female Chinese Spy Worked the Japanese Admiralty.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 25.—Among adventures of the Empress of Japan is news of the arrest at Hiroshima of the female spy who gives her name as Oata. She has been using her wiles with effect among Japanese officials and had several of them at her beck and call, with the result that she was piling up a magnificent load of information for wily old Li Hung Chang, of whose extensive household, it appears, she was a member. She is beautiful and accomplished in seductive arts, and as she fitted for the work to which she was assigned. Her accent betrays her Chinese birth. The officers who had been paying for her smiles with military secrets will pay the penalty of their rashness.

A RICH MAN'S WILL.

Leaves Thousands to Charity.—The Late Senator Ross.

QUEBEC, Oct. 26.—On Wednesday last the long standing dispute about the will of the late Senator Ross was finally settled. The Morris College and the high school receive between them $170,000; the Jodery Hall Hospital, $150,000; the three Anglican churches, $40,000; the French methodist, Presbyterian Church in Canada, $30,000; the Women's Christian Associations, $10,000; the Ladies' Protestant Home, $40,000; the Ladies' City Mission, $500, and the Irish Protestant Benevolent Society, $5,000. All this money has been bequeathed to the establishment of the at once $50,000 to the establishment of benevolent purposes in Canada, Scotland, and also to devote $30,000 to the establishment and maintenance of a home for old men and boys of Protestants of all denominations.

Declared Off.

TORONTO, Oct. 25.—A convention of the Christian Workers of Canada and the United States was some time ago announced to commence today at the Massey Music Hall and Association Hall, but was subsequently declared off. Many people, however, attended the hall named, expecting to see the convention in full swing. At the convention held last season at Atlanta, Ga., Toronto was accepted by the delegates as the place of meeting this year, but the executive committee subsequently decided to dispense with the yearly annual meeting and substitute district conventions. The first convention was to be held in Rochester, and to last six days.

Princess Alix's Resolve.

BERLIN, Oct. 25.—The Lokalanzeiger prints a dispatch from Livadia confirming the reports that Princess Alix steadfastly refused to anathematize her former faith in obedience to the rites of the Orthodox Greek Church, which requires such renunciation as a prerequisite to baptism. Even the efforts of the Czar have not been successful in shaking her determination.

A dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette from Yalta says that the state carriages, trappings, etc., to be used on the occasion of the marriage of the Czarevitch and Princess Alix, together with the regiments necessary to an elaborate military display, have arrived at Livadia.

Wife (seriously)—You have broken the promise you made me. Husband (kissing her)—Never mind, my dear, Don't cry, I'll make you another.

ON THE TRAIL

Of the Wretch Who Murdered Jessie Keith.

New Links in the Chain of Evidence Against the Prisoner.

Fergus, Ont., Oct. 25.—Government Detective Murray arrived here this evening on the trail of Chattle, and is securing a train of evidence around the prisoner that will be difficult to break. The fact of the prisoner having been seen here on Saturday last by several persons has created great interest in the development of the case.