Death of an Old Resident.

The people of Prospect Hill will hear with regret of the death of Mrs. Shaw, of Lion's Head, who passed away in her 76th year. Mrs. Shaw, whose maiden name was Freckelton, was born in the township of Mosa, moved to London with her patents is 1819, where she married Robert Shaw, and with him moved to Blanshard in 1846. Her husband dying in 1858 she was left with a large family. After residing a number of years in this township, she, with part of her family, moved to Lion's Head where she has lived ever since, making her home with her son William. It can well be said of her she was the young people's friend, and the old people's solace; when there was no doctor nearer than London she was had in great requisition; was there a refractory tooth, Mrs. Shaw had to pull it: was any one sick or in trouble, Mrs. Shaw was called on for help and advice. Trades and Labor Ccunoil.

Last evening the Trades and Labor council met in United Labor Hall. There was a large attendance of delegates and the proceedings were of more than ordinary interest. It was resolved to make a determined move to include every labor organization in the city in the council. A committee of three was appointed to attend the meeting in Shorwood Hall on Tuesday evening. The street railway question was debated at length and the following resolution was passed: "Resolved, that as a Trades and Labor Council we are not satisfied with the manner in which the City Council have handled the street railway question, and we ask on behalf of the workingmen of this city that the rights of the toilers shall be protected and that no agreement be made with either company unless with the distinct understanding that no man in their employ shall work more Lincoln, Bennett & Co.

THE STREET RAILWAY DISPUTE.

THE STREET RAILWAY DISPUTE.

The Decision in the Case of Lenden vs. Street Railway Company.

The following is the full text of the judgment by Mr. Justice Rose; I find that there is no time limit by implication, that there is no express limit fixed by the bylaw; that there was a right given to the London Street Railway Company with respect to the streets named; that the company had the right to exercise its franchise with reference to those streets subject to the provisions of clause 23 giving the ten days notice; that the laying of a proposition before the city council did not suspend the right that had been granted to the Street Railway Company by clause 2 of its bylaw, giving it the exclusive right, and that as long as the Street Railway Company was proceeding in accordance with the provisions of the agreement to occupy the treats it had the right to do so unobas leng as the Street Railway Company was proceeding in accordance with the provisions of the agreement to occupy the streets it had the right to do so unobstructed by the city or its officials until by operation of the provision of section 21 that right was suspended.

Mr. Meredith—Does your Lordship say when that would arise?

His Lordship—When by a proposition accepted by the city in such a manner as would be binding upon the city so that if the Street Railway Comyany did not accept the option the city would be in a position to go on under that proposition, it seems to me that, perhaps without being necessary to say so, it certainly would not be fair to hold the franchise granted by section 2 was suspended, certainly not until by some preposition, whether in a binding manner or not, something definite had been arrived at.

Mr. Osler—I ask you to pass upon the matters stipulated on the motion. Do you give the costs of the action?

His Lordship—The costs follow the result.

Mr. Osler—I ask for the costs of the

Mr. Oster—I ask for the costs of the motion for interlocutory injunction, and for an order for payment of the opening and closing of the streets. It was provided we should close the streets and referred to your Lordship to decide.

tion?

His Lordship—Yes; there may be a stay until term.

Mr. Osler—Then there is a stay also of the delivery of the option?

His Lordship—A stay of the delivery of the option until the end of the litigation.

Mr. Meredith—I would not ask for a stay on any condition of that kind. As to these particuler streets, Dundas and Richmond, that is the full extent it should be asked for.

Mr. Osler—That and Rectory street.

His Lordship—As to any streets named in the original agreement.

Mr. Meredith—The roads in question here. Supposing the judgment in the appelate tribunal is in favor of the city I should not be put on terms now to be tied up while my learned friends were appealing from that judgment.

Mr. Osler—I am content that the power vested in your Lordship as to the non-exercise of the option shall be in the Divisional Court from time to time.

LETTER FROM MR. BLAKE

The Member for Scuth Longiord on Bis Mission to Britain.

Boston, Oct. 14.—The following letter has been received here:

HUMEWOOD, TORONTO, Can., Oct. 10.

To the Hon. Nathaniel Matthews, mayor of Boston; the Hon. Alanson W. Beard;
the Vory Rev. Wm. Byrne, D.D., V.G.;
the Hon. Patrick A. Collins, and other citizens of Boston:

Dear Sirs.—I am honored by the invitation extended to me by your letter of the 7th inst. to address the people of Boston at a public meeting in the interest of the Irish home rule movement. I have to return my very hearty thanks to those who extend to me this invitation, and will be glad to be with you on the evening of Wednesday, Oct. 26.

I rejoice that you recognize the fact that this is perhaps the most critical moment in the long protracted Irish struggle; that you are ready to express your continuing sympathy with the cause, and that you propose once again to manifest that sympathy in so unmistakable a fashion.

When I remember the privations and sufferings, the toils and struggles so long endured by many bettermen in the furtherance of the cause, I confess I am ashamed to read the words by which your too great kindess characterizes my comparatively trivial sacrifices in entering the ranks of the Irish Parliamentary force.

I cannot appropriate those words. Yet you may rest assured that your language will stimulate me to more fervent and zealduty I have undertaken. Faithfully yours, Enwand Blake.

Political Union.

To the Editor of the ADVENTIBER:

Though agreeing with Messrs. Cameron and Britnell that it is high time Canada ceased to be a colony, I can see little advantage to be derived from declaring our independence, nor any radical remedy for our ills except political union with the United States, the new confederation assuming our national debt. Fiscal burdens are increasing here and decreasing on the other side of the line. Independence would not alter this. Neither would it lead to the Investment of American money in our country, nor cause a movement of population toward our shores. With heavier burdens and fewer opportunities for success in life than our neighbors, the exodus would continue until the country was impoverished. The fact is the national discase has now become so firmly rooted that nothing short of union will avail. Independence, free trade and other proposed specifics are only anodynes, giving no permanent relief. The Continental Union Association of Ontario is now being organized in this city with a large number of avowed adherents, and for every open supporter of the cause there are at least ten secret sympathizers, and it seems certain that the prevailing unrest will result in an irresistible movement for union with the neighboring republic. S. R. CLARKE.

IS YOUR HOME AN EDEN WITH

Baby can be made a joy in the home if the mother thoroughly understands how to care for it. Some mothers make baby a nuisance, owing to ignorance regarding its care and management.

Mothers who do not know how to feed

Acre and management.

Mothers who do not know how to feed their babies in a sensible and proper manner incur terrible risks and responsibilities. Infants of careless and ignorant mothers soon become cross, peevish and sickly. Although fed with plenty of food they are starved—starved because the food is unwholesome and unfitted for weak digestion. Wise mothers use Lactated Food for their little ones, and the results are always pleasing and satisfactory. Regularity in feedand in the quantity of food given produces health and strength; such babies become hearty and happy; they sleep well, and are free from all the troubles of ordinary baby-hood. Babies who are fed on Lactated Food are treasures in the home; mothers are happy, and are relieved from scores of cares and worries, and home is an Eden.

Mother, is your home happy and peaceful with baby? If not, try Lactated Food at once and all will be well in the future.
