Montreal, March 5.-Miss Tarte, laughter of the Minister of Public Works, who accompanied her father on the tour of the Northwest, has conceived the idea of presenting a bell to the chapel in the little village Wolseley, where Mr. Tarte met with a flattering reception from his fellow-countrymen. The bell has been purchased, and will in all probability arrive to-morrow. As no clergyman but a sishop or a higher order, except by special dispensation, has the power to consecrate the bell, an initial difficulty presents itself at present. In view of the present vacancy in Montreal's epis-copal see, Canon Archambault has ac-corded permission to have the cere-mony performed at the chapel of the Deaf and Dumb Institute, St. Den's street, opposite Mr. Tarte's residence, the parish church of the family, St. course of construction.
