Department of Public Works,

The department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender. By order, FRED. GELINAS, Secretary. Department of Public Works, Emperor Francis Joseph, and the taking of the Archduke Francis Ferdinand, the heir-presumptive, into his even turning some of the duties of ruler over to him. It is said that the Emperor believes that this will be an excellent idea, because in the even of his death it will prevent a sudden break of continuity in policy when the archduke comes to the Naturally plans like these are enough to set going countless rumors of abceived at this office until Monday, May dication. As a general thing, the Aus-1905, inclusively, for the construction trian press has kept silence regarding two breakwaters at Rondeau, Kent the intention of the Emperor to summon a family council, and his majessputes, it may be taken as certain that he himself will do his duty to the last. Though his majesty is rapidly ageing in appearance, his health is all that expected, his step is firm, his can eve bright. He participated recently in the ceremony of "washing the feet of the poor," and it was remarked at the time that he has apparently not displayed more energy in many years. The discussion is all the more pronounced because the Archduke Franeis Ferdinand is especially unpopular in Hungary. The heir-presumptive is be an advocate of the known to strongest kind of repressive measures. His absolutist and clerical tendencies are said to be the chief reason why a separate army. Nor is the threat to demand for the future a separate army a point most o be feared by the Emperor and the rchduke. A fresh threat from an ulra-Magyar quarter deserves to be registered. Its author, M. Barabas, is the ost influential vice-president of the ndependence party, and must be even when most travagant. He threatens that if Hungarian national demands be onger resisted, he will move that Parliament suspend payment of the 60,000,-000 kronen ($12,500,000) a year which Hungary is pledged to furnish for the services and sinking fund of the common Austro-Hungarian debt.
