Government Objects to Photograph ler; secretary-treasurer, Arch Mac-Taken With President.

Denver, Col., June 16.-The Government has ordered that hundreds of pictures of President Roosevelt's party, taken while it was returning from the hunting trip in the hills of Colorado, be destroyed. The negative from which the pictures were made was taken by C. E. Kruger, of Glenwood Springs, and the reason for the order is that the face of a pretty young girl appears in the background. The young woman is Miss Gertrude Dunn, of Glen-wood Springs, the correspondent of a Den-per paper. In the objectional photograph Miss Dunn's head appears over the shoul-der of Hunter Wells and to the left of the der of Hunter Wells and to the left of the President. The objection which President Roosevelt raised against the picture, and which resulted in the order, was the garb the ground, and where the skirt should be worn, a pair of pretty ankles showed. A cocked hat, a handkerchief around her neck, and her sleeves rolled up "washer-woman style," was the way she appeared.

Marriage of Two Well-Known Residents of Usborne Township.

On Wednesday last "Comfort Castle," the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Passmore, in the townshop of Usborne, was the scene of a very pleasant and happy event, when their second daughter, Ida Grace, was united in marriage to Mr. William Johns, young farmer of the same township. The ceremony was performed in the presence of 85 guests, by Rev. W. C. Beer, of London, who officiated at the marriage of the parents of the groom on the same date 28 years ago. Promptly at 5 o'clock, while delssohn's wedding march was being played by Miss Lizzie Johns, sister of the groom, the latter took his place an arch of maple leaves and snowballs, from which was suspended Little Rheta Cann, niece of the bride, dressed in white silk, performed the duties of flower girl and ing bearer. The bride was attired in silk eolienne, trimmed with embroidered net and applique, with wreath and veil, and carried a bouquet of flowers She was given away by her father. The ceremony being over, the company repaired to the spacious dining-room where a dainty repast was served, after which Mr. Beer in a congratulatory address proposed the health of the bride and groom. This called forth several happy responses. The large number of useful and beautiful presents testified to the high esteem in which he young couple are held. The bride's traveling suit was

The June sessions of the peace. which have been in progress at the courthouse before Judge Elliott for the past week, have been concluded by the sentencing of Harry Donnelly. Donelly was found guilty by the jury of stealing from the person of Lyman Whaley, and Crown Attorney McKillop moved for the passing of sentence. Donnelly was sent to the Central Prison for twelve months. The case against Lloyd Hill, charged with seduction, was dismissed by the judge, on the grounds that there was not any conclusive evidence to show marriage. The prosecutrix in the case was the only witness heard, and before her evidence was complete the court took the case from the hands of the McEvoy and Perrin for the defendant. The civil case will be taken up by Judge Elliott next Thursday in the county court. The sessions will sume on the 22nd of July.

SURPRISED PASTOR SALTON Richmond Street Mission Gave Him an Address and Purse.

The members of the Richmond Street Methodist Mission at the close of their Wednesday night prayer service, pleasantly surprised their pastor by an address and a well-filled purse Mr. Salton was completely taken by surprise, and could scarcely find language to express his thanks and appreciation of the many kindnesses re ceived during the four years of his pastorate. He said he had faithfully endeavored to fulfill his duties as their pastor, but nevertheless he felt he was unworthy of all their kindness. He wished the mission continued prosperity and success. Mr. George Broom read the address, Mrs. Cochrill presenting the purse, after which Miss Myrtle Pool handed the pastor a handsome bouquet of flowers. Following is a copy of the address:
