HELL WAS LOOSE IN VLADIVOSTOCK

American Tells of Manchurian Army Revolt.

CHINESE QUARTER WIPED OUT

Thousands of Chinese Ruthlessly Siain-Wounded Burned to Death -Russ Officers Defied.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 2.-Henry Bush, tock, has returned on the steamship Tartar.

and returned to their homes at the termination of the war. They had expected to go home as soon as peace was ratified, and when the days passed and there was no sign of a Mr. Edwards' remarks upon reading, house they were bundled off to bed as homeward movement they naturally began to grumble. Several minor rlots well-selected list of books in each suboccured, and on Nov. 13,40f our calen- ject for reference and supplementary dar, a considerable number of Russian purposes is another useful feature. soldiers crowded about a large Chinese bazar close to the water front of Vlad-Avostock. The bazar was a great open Advertiser Correspondence building, with many stores or stalls. Started by Russians.

"How the row started is not quite clear to anyone, but it is said to have To the Editor of The Advertiser: been because a Chinese butcher ated to me—I was there at the time—that the soldiers surged against the that the some surged against The instruction contained in his re-stalls together by some pre-concerted ference to the business I am conductplan and began a general fight. There ing leads the public to believe that only to prevent their wares from being loot- false, and Mr. Keenleyside made the The Russians began the shooting and ness. clubbing, and, with wild yells, beat hands on.

been thus begun many of the soldiers as the London station is. went to the dock and carried back can In regard to the accommodation afthe place.

and Koreans, of whom many were clubbed to death, and many of the clubbed t dead—yes, and also numbers of the wounded—were thrown into the flames.

and lunch counter can accommodate publishers this Christmastide. "Out of date," was the terse explanation of a There must have been 1,000 Chinese killed in the fight. The Chinese, as a general thing, were not armed, as were the soldiers, or the loss of life would the Christian Endeavon Soldiers. the soldiers, or the loss of life would the Christian Endeavor Society, the one shouted, 'Let's help ourselves at one shouted. Let's neip ourselves at $10,010 in groceries, meats, poultry, All of these are pedigree ghosts, with ordered by their officers to cease loot- he appears to be a man of somewhat bey, the wraith of the Lady Hobby; unable to exercise any authority, then fled. When Commander Kersoff arrived with his troops he ordered them your valuable space, I am, yours truly, erine Howard and Jane Seymour. they lifted up their rifles and fired instead into the upper story of the Kuntz : Albers building.

L oted the Stores.

'At noon Kuntz & Albers' place had been looted and was in flames, the rewoiting soldiers having saturated with To the Editor of The Advertiser: the kerosene what they could not carry Please permit a word of explanation. At drive the Earl of Derwentwater to the Vaughan Township, York... the owners must have lost upward of a million in gold.

of their own men, for these officers are aware of their unpopularity, fled from the city. Commander Kersoff was one of the first to run. He went to Santank on a special train as soon as it could be made ready and from that

"The soldiers in the meantime went about the streets, killing and burning, looting and breaking; and what Chinese had not taken refuge in flight were shot or clubbed to death. Building after building was fired, until fully twothirds of the business section of Vladi- derer" because he made so many miswostock was in ruins.

rioting lay unburied in the streets for an earnest, honest soul, but he did not three days just as they fell. There was seem to learn anything concerning the strength. Many pills, in order to keep them from adhering, are rolled in powders no order, and no one to look after the details of the business. funeral plans. Commander Kersoff continued to telegraph proclamations, coal to two wrong addresses, he was which were posted in public places and rether short and amount amount and amount and amount amount and amount and amount laughed at.

attention to these proclamations, until fice and got your money. I've been as that bring heaven near at hand. the third day of the rioting Kersoff patient with you as I could be, but There is no happiness in all this

LEARN THE TRUTH about Coffee by a 10-day change to

AND BETTER FEELINGS.

Read "The Road to Wellville." in as trains could be secured to transport them. The mutiny died. "As soon as order was restored, arrangements were made to bury the dead and the refugees began to return. The bodies were gathered up by the #### soldiers and carted, wholesale, out of the city, to fill a general grave." A USEFUL PAMPHLET issued by Public School Inspector Edwards for Guidance of Teachers.

Mr. C. B. Edwards, public school inspector of London, has issued a pamphlet dealing with the course of sturdy as outlined by the regulations of the education department of Ontario. It is intended to supplement the "Limit Table" published in 1904, and to make the necessary divisions a witness of the outbreak at Vladivos- in the subjects in each of the four forms into which the public school course is divided. The object aimed at is to secure a reasonable degree of "The Russian soldiers were greatly uniformity in the work of the schools, dissatisfied," he says, "because they allowing at the same time a large cent of them bridge had ousted all measure of freedom to the individual teacher.

The Educational Monthly of Canada comments favorably upon the idea of

THE GRAND TRUNK RESTAURANT

Kindly allow me to correct a statetacked a Russian soldier who had ment made by Mr. C. B. Keenleyside helped himself to a meat ball. It seem- at the licensed victuallers' meeting on must have been 200 soldiers there, a bar business is done on the premises. struggling with the Chinese storekeepThis, as any person who travels, or Passing of Ghost Lore. ers, who fought hard and courageously goes to the station, knows, is quite ed, some with cleavers, others with statement either through ignorance or sticks and clubs, a few with revolvers. a malicious desire to injure my busi-

It occurs to my mind that this gendown the stalls and killed owners, tleman's traveling experience must inlooting everything they could lay their deed be very limited, if he cannot recognize that it is an absolute necessity "There was a steamer at the dock to have a dining, lunch and refreshclose by discharging a cargo of oil. Af- ment room for the benefit of the trater the carnival of destruction had veling public at a railway station such after can of kerosene, which they forded, I think it is fair that I should threw over the stalls of the bazar, sat- be allowed to state some facts for the urating everything. They then fired information of this gentleman, as well as any intelligent citizens of London "The scene was an awful one. Chinese who wish to know the facts. I will en anything like as great. National Educational Association, and dismal shrieks." But five Russians were reported killed many others. On ordinary days we Dreary, tumbled down houses, and provide meals and lunches for a great cient feudal castles and melancholy 'After the Battle of the Bazar,' some connectionthe traveling public.

house of Kuntz & Albers, a German wages, fuel, etc., as expenditure in officially recorded appearances: firm, was situated directly across from connection with the dining-room and At Dilston Castle, Lady Westmorethe Bazar. After about an hour's lunch counter. Does this appear as if land; at Cullaly Castle, wicked priests; fighting and rioting at the Bazar, the morely the station restaurant was conducted at Beddiscombe Manor, a screaming soldiers rushed across to this two-story that this statement of expenditure Calverley; at Bradenham House, Isaac building and smashed in the plate glass compares unfavorably with the expenditure for similar purposes made by lady; at Corby Castle, a radiant boy; their rifles. Many ran to the wharf other places which accommodate the at Newstead Abbey, a black friar; at to get more kerosene from the steamer other places which accommodate the at Newstead Addey, a black frair, at traveling public? Should anyone doubt Brookhouse, a headless woman; at mander Kersoff ordered out the troops gladly do so to any respectable citizen and a dog; in Llyne Valley, a white who were in barracks to disperse the who is not prompted by idle curiosity horse of Llangynwyd; at Holland 40 places heard from 30 have given good majorities in favor of the bylaws, inmutineers and rioters, who had been —not excluding Mr. Keenleyside, though House, Lord Holland; at Bispham Ab-

> JAMES BUTLER, Proprietor G. T. R. Restaurant.

(Not bar only.) London Jan. 2, 1906.

AN EXPLANATION.

the license holders' meeting in the city hall on Saturday night, I was answering the cry that the reduction of licenses would seriously cripple the hotel accommodation and in doing so mode the company of Lord Holland, used to be headed form of Lord Holland, used to be company to the license scaffold. Isaac Disraeli, father of the Pickering Southwol Southwol Nottawas Elmira, in the license holders' meeting in the city scaffold. Isaac Disraeli, father of the Pickering Southwol Nottawas a ghostly coach and pair, and the behavior of the pickering scaffold. Isaac Disraeli, father of the Pickering Southwol Nottawas a ghostly coach and pair, and the behavior of the pickering scaffold. Isaac Disraeli, father of the Pickering Southwol Nottawas and pair, and the behavior of the pickering scaffold. "Meanwhile the troops which had been brought up to stop the revolt were distinctly apathetic, and many of the officers, fearing death at the hands for the traveling public. At this point there was a very general call for names there was a very general call for names, and in response to the call I read out the six places to which I referred. Now temperance workers. It was not so in-tended, but was simply used to show that station, 20 miles from Vladivostock, issued proclamations.

**Willing and Burning.** tended, but was simply used to snow that in point of accommodation we could well spare six licenses. As a matter of fact, some of those on the list are among the least objectionable, and some are at the other extreme. Volume other extreme. Yours, C. B. KEENLEYSIDE. London, Jan. 2, 1996.

Why Barney Wasn't Fired.

One morning, after having delivered which were posted in public places and rather short and crusty in answering There is no hiding from the suba regular customer, so the proprietor poenas of court of conscience. "The soldiers paid not the slightest discharged him, saying: "Go to the ofsent in a proclamation that the soldiers you are too thick-headed to ever learn world if there is none in the heart.

"All roight, sir," answered Barney. "Mebbe O'im t'ick-headed, as yez say, but Qi've learned wan t'ing, anna-

"If you have really learned one thing, and learned it well. I'll not discharge you," said the proprietor banteringly. "Now, tell me what you have learned."

"Oi've learned, sor, that siventeen hundred makes a ton in this place," replied Barney, and he went back to work."-Lippincotts.

The happiness reaped today depends on that sown yesterday. They hear the best angel's songs who listen for earth's sighs.

BRIDGE PLAY LAYS YULETIDE GHOSTS

Gambling Is Sole Holiday Sport at Many Places.

BECOMES

Folk Lore Also Disappears From Christmas Magazines and Current Fiction.

London, Dec. 1.—"If a census were taken of the amusements which occupied the guests at the country houses during the Christmas holidays it probably would be found that in 60 per the round, rowdy games associated with the old-fashioned Christmas festivities," says the Daily Express. "If the pamphlet, and quotes approvingly there were one or two children in the which are a portion of the preface. A early as possible, and the house party settled down in religious silence to bridge. In many houses the game was played on the four successive afternoons and nights without a thought of turkey, plum pudding or crackers. The one anxiety was to rush through a short meal as quickly as possible. Bridge, in fact, has killed, in certain circles, the old-fashioned Christmas." In London several "waifs and strays" parties were given on Christmas Day, the idea being to gather together the lonesome souls who dislike noisy festivites, pull down the blinds, play bridge from luncheon until the small hours of the morning. Tea and a short dinner were regarded as interruptions and small talk as super-

Among the destructive effects of bridge is a total discomfiture of ghosts. Ghost stories, without which in the good old-fashioned days no Christmas annual could be complete, have had no place in this year's Christmas periodical literature, and current fletion equally is silent on the subject of the ghostly visitant who contributed to the Christmas festivities of a decade ago. White ladies, headless monks, gray friars, wicked lords, and all the vast army of spooks who were wont to wax obstreperous on Christmas eve, no longer are a part of the novelist's stock in trade. Women who anxiously inquire for a really good ghost story at the shops meet with a date," was the terse explanation of a clanking chains, rattling bones many citizens of London as well as for moated granges as may be seen from moated granges as may be seen from the following list of Christmas fixtures, have been their favorite baunts During the past year I paid out tures, have been their favorite haunts.

merely as a bar, or can anyone say skull; at Calverley Hall, Sir Hugh this statement, I can produce vouchers Copley House, two heads; at Pomeroy to confirm the truth of it, and I will Castle, a lady; at Churton Hall, a lady Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your at Cheadle Rectory, the Abbess of kindness in allowing me so much of Godstown; at Hampton Court, Cath-

Fine Old Coterle of Wraiths.

Derwentwater, so goes the tale, has been wont at Christmastide to revisit the earth to explate the crime of restless ambition which impelled her to late Lord Beaconsfield, is said to drive Southwold, Elgin County... a ghostly coach and pair, and the beheaded form of Lord Holland used to Markham Township ..... walk in the gilt room, carrying his Amabel, Bruce head in his hand. The wraith of Lady Hobby carried a spectral basin, wringing her hands, vainly, trying to Enniskillen, Lambton...... wash out the stain of guilt, for, according to the legend, she murdered North Grimsby her boy because he blotted his copybook Cistercian father, dressed in white, always appeared to women ghosts are reported to have manifested Reppel. Grey Derby, Grey themselves. What is the use of them Osprey Township ...... 2 troubling themselves when everybody is too deep in bridge all night through to watch for them.

NOT A NAUSEATING PILL.-The exr building was fired, until fully twoirds of the business section of Vladiistock was in ruins.

They called him "Barney the Blunderr" because he made so many mistakes. He had been working for a coal dealer about six months, and was an earnest, honest soul, but he did not strength. Many pills in order to know the property the substance which enfolds the ingredients and makes up the pill is so compounded as to preserve their moisture, and they can be carried into any latitude without impairing their strength. which prove nauseating to the taste. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are so pre-

Tears in the eyes are often telescopes

"Clobe" brings buyer seller

Bargains are constantly being advertised in "The GLOBE Business Opportunities." If you want to buy or sell, use "The GLOBE Business Opportunities." 2c a word. THE GLOBE, Toronto

Suffered for years with Stomach Trouble

Fruit-a-tives" promptly cured her.

Stomach Trouble is usually bowel trouble. The bowels become constipated. Poisonous matter, which should leave the bowels every day, stays in the bowels, two and three days at a time. These poisons paralyze the stomach muscles, prevent the digestive juices from reaching the food, and stop the whole process of digestion.

MRS. F. H. WALLACE, St. Mary's, Ont. 1
"I have used most of one box of 'Fruitaa-tives,' and found them all right. I have had a good chance to recommend them as I have been in bed for a week with a billous attack and am getting around fine thanks to 'Fruita-tives'."

Doctors talk of dyspepsia and catarrh of the stomach when they should talk of Constipation.

cure Stomach Troubles because they tone, sweeten and stimulate the stomach and they cure the Constipation which is the chief cause of dyspepsia. These concentrated and specially combined fruit juice tablets act directly on the liver-increase the flow of bile—and make the bowels move regularly and naturally every day.

More than that. "Fruit-atives' regulate the kidneysstrengthen them-make them excrete more urine-and rid the system of excessive urea and uric acid. They stimulate the glands of the skin to increased action-take away pimples and redness-and keep the skin clear, soft and lovely.

A month's treatment with "Fruit-a-tives" will make you think you had a new stomach. 50c. a box or 6 boxes for $2.50. Sent prepaid on receipt of price if your druggist should not have them.

FRUIT-A-TIVES LIMITED, CTTAWA.

FOR LOCAL OPTION

The Bylaw Was Carried in Thirty Out of Forty Municipalities.

majorities in favor of the bylaws, including the city of Owen Sound, the first city in Ontario to accept local option. But it was not won without a big fight. Against local option are Petrolea, Bar-Godstown; at Hampton Court, Catherine Howard and Jane Seymour.

Fine Old Coterle of Wraiths.

A fine ghostly company these. Lady

Acton and Drayton, with three. License reduction carried in London, Oshawa and Peterboro, and votes to raise hotel licenses carried in Oshawa and Parry Sound. The following is the result of the local option votes:

For Local Option.

Licenses. Maj. for. Southam Sophlasburg, Pr. Edward... Thornbury, Grey ..... Sydenham, Grey .....

Peel Township ...... Lakefield, Peterboro ...... Arian, Bruce ..... Rawden, Hastings ..... Wales Otonabee, Peterboro Peterboro ..... ...... Against Local Option. Municipality. Licenses. Maj. Agst. Acton

Grafton ..... Markham Markham
Seneca, Haldimand
Stamford, Welland Orayton .....

Uxbridge, Ont., Jan. 2.—Local option day. carried in Scott Township yesterday by majority of 37.
Bothwell, Ont., Jan. 2.—Local option carried in the Township of Euphemia by a majority of 17. Three hotels will be Allenford, Ont., Jan. 2.-Forty-eight majority for local option. Elsinore, Jan. 2.—Thirty-six majority for local option.
Wales, Ont. Jan. 2.—Local option carried in Osnabruck by 102 majority.

Mount Forest, Jan. 2.—Local option carried in Egremont by over 300 of a

MANY PATENT MEDICINES have come and gone, but Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup continues to occupy a foremost place among remedies for coughs and colds, and as a preventive of decay of the lungs. It is a standard medicine that widens its sphere of usefulness vear by year. If you are in need of something to rid yourself of a cough or cold, you cannot do better than try Bickle's Syrus.

SMALLMAN & INGRAM

THE WEATHER TODAY Sleet or rain.

THE SATISFACTORY STORE.

Ladies! Here's Your Wrapper Opportunity

Thursday we will place on sale 150 FLANNELETTE WRAPPERS at greatly reduced prices. These wrappers are an accumulation of odd and broken lines which we desire to clear quickly. Not all sizes in every line, but all sizes from 32 to 46 in the lot. If low prices are anywise magnetic they should draw a crowd of eager shoppers to this deparement Thursday morning. Early arrivals will, of course, have best choice.

50 Wrappers, regular price $1.00, for ...... 78c 100 Wrappers, regular prices $1.25, $1.35 and $1.50 for . . 98c

These are made of extra heavy quality flannelette-soft, warm and cozy. Designs are tasteful and pretty. Many have yokes. All are nicely trimmed with fancy braid. Good full skirts with deep flounce at bottom. Free and easy to walk around in. Colors are principally blues, reds, black and whites.

On Sale Thursday Morning--See West Window.

1--2--3

Felt Hat Shapes 25c

Just three days till the great January

Linen Sale

Commences. All housewives should be prepared to take advantage of this big economizing event. To miss it would be to miss the chance of saving many dollars.

Selling rapidly under the magic influence of this little price. If you want one or two it would be advisable to make an early choice.

Felt Hat Shapes 25c

SMALLMAN & INGRAM.

149, 151, 153 and 155 Dundas Street.

JOTTINGS FROM

Furnished by the Special and Occasional Correspondents of the Advertiser.

THAMESFORD.

Thameville, Jan. 2.-Mr. and Mrs. J. Luke and son spent New Year's Day with Mr. and Mrs. McTavish, at Botany. Miss Etta Breaton spent New Year's Day with friends in Detroit.

Miss Vansickle, of Jerseyville, is visit-ing Thamesville friends. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Whitzel, of Detroit, spent New Year's Day with friends in N. K. Cornwall has gone to New York to show his chickens. There is no doubt but Nate will bring honors home him. He wins wherever he goes. The town was made quite lively night with sweet strains from our band, which turned out to honor the councilors and our worthy reeve.

Mr. Charles Obeay, the popular manager for Mr. N. Cornwall's big establishment to Delaware and Strathroy. The election here passed off in the usual pulet way. Mr. Wm. McKenzie was chosen reeve by acclamation. The coun- also enliven the gathering, cilors are: W. R. Ferguson, D. Wallace, Edgar Sherman and Mr. Mills, sen. DUTTON.

Avery, of London, were in Dutton for Hall's, to hear a paper on the "Origin such a thorough equipment to become The Dutton Council for 1906 includes: Reeve W. S. Kendall, Councilors Will Hocken, Malcolm McFarlane, William by the Rev. Adamson and seconded by to you this, my recognition of you as ronto. Miss Francis Porter has returned home, after visiting her brother at St. Thomas, Mr. William Porter. The Dutton Brass Band serenaded

Mrs. Wm. Porter, of St. Thomas, is 121 this village. Mr. E. Nelson, of Ridgetown, visited " his brother, Mr. J. Nelson, on Mon-

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McKellar, of Windsor, formerly of Dutton, was renewing old acquaintances here on New Year's Day. Mr. Alex. McRae, of Indian Head, farry. has returned home. Mr. F. Fowler has been visiting friends in Shedden. Mr. J. Dowswell and son, J. R. Dows well, were in Chatham on Saturday. NILESTOWN. Nilestown, Jan. 3. - Mr. and Mrs.

Fred Giles, of Toronto, spent a few days recently at the home of Mr. Fred O'Dell. Clifford Reynolds, of Detroit, has been here on a visit to his grandfather.

Mr. H. Reynolds. Holly Wilson spent a few days here lately.

Mr. Crossier spent New Year's with his father and mother near Toronto. lege, Wingham, spent a Miss Cora Reynolds went to London friends in Adelaide.

tainment on Friday night, the seats in lew days with friends here during the the hall being every one filled. In their holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Brown and family spent recitations and songs, the little folks Mr. and Mrs. J. Brown and family spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Uren, at recitations and songs, the little long.

acquitted themselves splendidly. The acquitted themselves splendidly. The Brron.

Harry James and sister Gladys, of the larger scholars and Grathery spent a few days with their dialogues of the larger scholars and ment, "Bridget's Investment," "The aunt, Mrs. Houlton. Train Tomorrow," and "'Way Down L. East," were on the list. Ivan Edmunds, last week.

L. P. James and son Harry visited a little lad, of London, visiting here, sang "Mamma's Boy," and was heartlly encored. The applause accorded the ly encored. The applause accorded the "As You Like It" Male Quartet was and son Murray returned to London on Salar School of the Salar School of Salar School so pronounced that only by dint of su- Saturday, after visiting relatives here Mrs. J. D. Davis and son visited friends in Chatham during the New Year holi- wildered reindeers to his destination, on Monday over the election of Mrs. A. Chatham during the New Year holi-

Violet Albertson is home for her concession 2, of Westminster; then gart. Mr. C. Van Valkenburg spent New Brownlee's; then keeps straight along D. Small, last week.

Rev. Mr. Reid is beside the town line on the different skirts of this village; then it cuts a little across lots and runs close beside have been visiting some time with rela the Hamilton road to Ingersoll.

DELAWARE.

DELAWARE.

The annual Sunday school entertain Lulu Nash, to Rev. Mr. Mead, of Woodment of the Methodist Church, Delaware, will be held in the basement this (Wednesday) evening, Jan. 3, at 7:30 for Mr. N. Cornwall's big establishment, p.m., when a good programme will be New York teturned home on Saturday, accompanied by his wife and son, after a pleasant visit given, consisting of music, dialogues Miss Belle Brown:

rather large meeting of the Anglican her teacher. Dutton, Jan. 3. — Mr. and Mrs. Young People's Association at Mr. Very seldom one finds a singer with of Santa Claus." Unfortunately, Mr. an artist, wonderful control of breath, Trumper was unavoidably detained, purity of tone and easy emission, never and in the meantime it was proposed forced. I take the liberty of sending Mr. A. A. Trumper, that an impromptu an excellent teacher of the voice. Miss conto.

Mr. A. A. Trumper, that an impromptu debate be held. This was carried out.

Burnip is studying very hard, and I several subjects were chosen, and each am sure of her success as an oratorio member was allowed two and a half and a concert singer, in the near fuminutes to speak. Mr. Trumper then ture. arrived, and delivered a clever paper the councilors and reeve on Monday Santa Claus," a very suitable theme on the difficult subject, "The Origin of thanks to Mr. Hall for his hospitality. ADELAIDE.

Adelaide, Jan. 2.-Mrs. Houlton and Ira Downer visited friends in London and Stratford during the holidays.

Miss Carrie Martin, of London, spent the Christmas holidays at her hon Misses Sara and Amy Down, of London ent Christmas at their home at Mulli-Miss Gertrude Eastman, of Arkona, spending a couple of weeks with friends in Adelaide. Mr. Archie Campbell left on Monday take a course in the Agricultural College, Guelph. Miss Vida Reid, of London, is visiting riends on the second line. Friends on the second line.

Frank Martin, of Hamilton, spent Christmas at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. McNeil, of Sarnia, spent
New Year's Day with Mr. and Mrs. Paul

Miss Sara Campbell is the guest of Saturday to visit with her brother. of Napperton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bowley and son Morgan, Raymond.

There was a good turnout at the Sunday school Christmas tree enter
Of Napperton, were the guests of the Misses Martin one evening last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dowding were guests at Hazelbrae Farm recently.

Miss Mary Paydell of St. tainment on Friday night, the seats in few days with friends here during the Miss Mary Randall, of Sylvan, spent a vith friends in Detroit.

George Miner visited his sister, Mrs. L. Welch, at Mount Brydges, one day

J. D. Davis and son visited friends perior skill Old St. Nick guided his beThere was quite an exciting time here in Chatham during the New Year holidays.

Mrs. James Henderson and daughter spent New Year's Day with their many Thamesville friends.

In last week's report the name of little Johnnie Longhorne was left out of the drill of the "Little Soldiers."

Wildered reindeers to his destination, thus enabling him to distribute the presents of the tree to the glee of the small ones.

The electric road, as surveyed past here, comes down the north side of former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Taggart, of Michigan, spent the New Year holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Taggart, of Michigan, spent the New Year holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Taggart, of Michigan, spent the New Year holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Taggart, of Michigan, spent the New Year holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Taggart, of Michigan, spent the New Year holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Taggart, of Michigan, spent the New Year holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Taggart, of Michigan, spent the New Year holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Taggart, of Michigan, spent the New Year holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Taggart, of Michigan, spent the New Year holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Taggart, of Michigan, spent the New Year holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Taggart, of Michigan, spent the New Year holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Taggart, of Michigan, spent the New Year holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Taggart, of Michigan, spent the New Year holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Taggart, of Michigan, spent the New Year holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Taggart, of Michigan, spent the New Year holidays with the former had the New Year holidays wi crosses over into Dorchester at A. Mrs. J. Jones and daughter hald a short crosses over into Dorchester at A. Wisit to the former's parents. Mr. and Mrs. farm properties until near the out-skirts of this village; then it outs of Church. Messrs. R. and L. Yager, of Michigan, > stock, on Saturday. Agramonte's Opinion. 489 Fifth avenue,

Mr. and Mrs. McGregor, of Hamilton

New York, Dec. 22, 1905. and recitations, by the school. The My Dear Miss Brown,-I take grea Maple Leaf Glee Club. of London, will pleasure in extending to you my congratulations for your excellent and Considering the inclemency of the thorough teaching of Miss Burnip, weather last Thursday, there was a whose singing reflects great credit on

Very respectfully yours. EMILIO AGRAMONTE.

Miss Belle Brown last week received for this festive senson. A very enjoy- the above letter from Signor Agraable evening was brought to a close by monte in reference to one of her puvisiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Porter, of the Rev. Adamson, after a vote of pils, Miss Burnip, and coming, as it did, unsolicited, it speaks well for Miss Brown, who is a teacher at the London Conservatory of Music.

They are laughing in Paris at the trick of a not unknown artist, who, having been given notice to leave his apartment, conceived a novel way of taking revenge upon his landlord. Before he departed he painted the of the ceilings and walls of the black, and then relieved them in white paint with death's heads, skeletons and cross bones. The landlord summoned the artist, but the judge held the artist had a right to "decorate" the rooms as he liked, so long as he did not "deteriorate" them. DON'T FORGET, YOUR WIFE friends at Sanilac Center, Mich.

Richard Down and sister, Miss Etta, visited friends at Appin and Thedford and Beans, and remember she won't during the holidays.

Misses Annie and Florence Miner spent Christmas with friends in Mount Brydges.

Mr. J. A. McKone, of the Business Col mato sauce. 56 and 16c tins.