then slumped, and at the end of the In the second the locals played much better, and knotted the count at 3-all, and, on the heavy ice, it was expected that the seventh goal minutes the teams battled on even terms, both having many close calls, and finally Harvey counted, and the game appeared to be over. Kitchener off until, with less than four minutes checking McKay when the latter was down on a rush.

Kitchener tore in, and in two sec onds Gross tied up the score by go-ing right in on Rohmer on a great lone effort. Ten second later, before the crowd had recovered from the first goal, Gross checked one of the Hamilton defence men as he was rushing, and whipped in the winning goal like lightning. It was the quickest change ever seen here, and the crowd went wild with joy. One minute before Hamilton was riding along bell, and one minute later Kitchener was riding along safely at the head the last three minutes both sides had close calls, but Kitchener carried the play to their opponents, and only good goalkeeping kept them off the

FALLS WINS ROUND.

Toronto, March 10 .- The Niagara Falls team is the intermediate champions of the O. H. A. They were beaten here 5 to 4 tonight by Peterboro, but that failed to wipe out the two-goal lead which the Falls had on its home ice last week, and the round away on the second lap of its work

About the only other matter of importance that is likely to come up seleast at the onthe round, despite their lucky goal in the second period. The game was strenuous from the start, and Referee "Bobby" Hewitson was kept busy sending the offending players off the fee. The winners were busy sending the worst offenders, but Peterboro was not far behind. There were, however, no major penalties. The pace set from the start was fast and was maintained throughout. Both teams showed good condition, and there was no slowing of the speed in the last session.
