DAY, REBRUARY 16, 1864 . VANCOUVER ISLAND. TU

L. P. FISHER is our only authorized Agent for the

Algar, Clement's Lane, London Street. 3 - 3 - 30 Cornhill, London

Arrival of the Pacific.

WAR NEWS TO THE 6th INSTANT.

Later from Europe, Mexico, Japan, Sandwich Islands, California &c. 3181

The steamsnip Pacific arrived on Sunday norning, bringing the following intelligence: News to January 31st a offar officer at Knoxville, received here, says the rebels are gathering together all their cavalry preparatory to a grand raid through Tennessee and Kentucky to get horses and supplies; if they are ansuccessful in Kentucky, the writer says they may be tempted to cross into Ohio.

States, crediting and dedecting therefrom a many as may have been enlisted or drafted into the service prior to the lat of March, and not hereofore selected.

Under the call of October for 300,000 men, about half has been filled by volunteering and re-enlisted or drafted into the service prior to the lat of March, and not hereofore selected.

Under the call of October for 300,000 men, about half has been filled by volunteering and reference as many as may have been enlisted or drafted into the service prior to the lat of March, and not hereofore selected.

Under the call of October for 300,000 men, about half has been filled by volunteering and re-enlisted or drafted into the service prior to the lat of March, and not hereofore selected.

Under the call of October for 300,000 men, about half has been filled by volunteering and re-enlisted or drafted into the service prior to the lat of March, and not hereofore selected.

Under the call of October for 300,000 men, about half has been filled by volunteering and re-enlisted.

NASHVILLE, January 27.—Later information from Geo. Dodge at Pulaski, Tenn., under date of January 26th, says the enemy crossed the Tennessee river last night and attacked Athens this morning, and were defeated. They are now trying to get back.
The troops at Athens had mostly gone to Florence to attack Johnston's force, which was crossing there, and Col. Harrison, with Florence to attack Johnston's force, which was crossing there, and Col. Harrison, with 600 reviels and two pieces of artillery, took advantage of their absence to attack Athens and was badly defeated. Still later advices say that Bodge badly whipped Johnston at Florence, and in all probability the raid is at an end.

Chicace, January 29.—A Knoxville letter of the 20th says: On the Friday previous Gen. Sturgis advanced in the direction of Dandridge, 40 miles from Knoxville, and on Saturday he drove in the enemy's pickets, but learning that the enemy was in force, but were driven back. On Sunday a large body of rebels made a desperate attack on our lines, but were driven back by a gallant cavalry charge. Our loss was 150; the enemy's loss is supposed to be greater.

Gus Sanday night our forces anticipated a flack movement, and fell back to Strawberry Plains, 16 miles from Knoxville. The enemy and cressed the French Broad river, seem ingily for the purpose of a flank movement or Knoxville. Storgis fell back to Knoxville on the 19th, and the same evening crossed the Holston, with the view of intercepting the enemy at Sevierville, where a battle is believed to be pending. Several of the prisoners taken on Sunday were fresh from Richmond.

Levenwoorns. Junuary 29.—The Lower House of the Legislature have adopted amend-

LEAVENWORTH. Junuary 29 .- The Lower the control of the 2.5 leave the control of the control of the 2.5 leave the control of the 2.5 leave the control of the 2.5 leave the control of the control of the 2.5 leave the control of t

It is reported that John Morgan with seven regiments of cavalry, will make a raid into Kentucky through the gaps of the eastern part of the State.

Chicago, January 28.—A Chattanoga despatch says that Johnston's army has fallen back from Dalton. Col. Baker of the 10th Ohie, with a flag of truce, went out 45 miles and could find no enemy. He had sent in for provisions and followed on. The rebel advance picksits are near Kingston, 40 miles south of Dalton, probably to cover the retreat to Mobile, where Cheatham's division went last Monday.

A special to the Times from Washington, January 27th, keys: A letter from a general officer at Knoxville, received here, says the rebels are gathering together all their cavalry vice pripr to the lat of March, and not be resolved.

fairs, to include the abovementioned call, being, in effect, an additional call for 200,000. Volunteering is supposed to furnish at present an average of 2,000 per day.

From information recently received at the Navy Department, it appears that very few obstructions at Charleston have been washed away. About 300 feet of obstructions floated down at one time, and all that has drifted towards the fleet were rafts, built by the rebels for the purpose of crippling the vessels.

The Herald's special from Head-quarters of

News of February 2. 00 000

Leavenwoars. Junary 29.—The Lower House of the Legislature have adopted amendments making St. Joseph the easten terminus of the Pacific Railroad.

Washington. January 30.—The following has been received at head-quarters: Geo. Foster telegraphs from Knoxville, January 28th, as follows:

The cavalry under Geo. Sturgis achieved a victory over the eastenly experience of the received at head-quarters: Geo. Foster telegraphs from Knoxville, January 28th, as follows:

The cavalry under Geo. Sturgis achieved a victory over the eastenly experience and the received at the cavalry yesterday, near Fair Garden, ten mines from Sevierville.

McCook's Division drove the enemy about two miles, after a stubborn fight, lasting from daylight until four in the evening. We cap tured two steel rifled gune and over 100 prisoners. The enemy's loss was considerable, 75 being killed or wountied in a charge of Wolford's Division, which came up to time to be sent in pursuit.

Janus Rawlings, Seig-Gen. Com'g.

A despatch from Nashwile, the 29th, says:

The essemy, 600 strong, attacked the garrison at Athens, but, efter a fight of 24 hours duration, were regulated. Our loss was 15 things and the command of France the surface, instructed to demand of France the surface, instructed to demand of France the surface, instructed to demand of France the surface and the certain there is some scrious difficulty the first of the enemy was much greater.

On the 27th, Gol. Miller had a severe fight this side of Florence, repulsing the enemy.

Our loss was 15 thilled and 75 wounded.

New York, January 31.—A New Orleans letter says there are no signs of a lorward movement on the part of our army.

The same correspondent also says that an attack is expected at Pert Hudson and Baton.

The Riemond papers contain the control of the received for the surface of the same of the same of the received for the surface of the same of the received for the surface of the same of the same of the received for the surface of the same of the same of the same of the same of oner to annibilitie such miceuclings, chief

CHICAGO, February 4.—The Senate yesterday confirmed Ralph S. Dorr, Receiver of Public Moneys, San Francisco.

Newbern, N. C., February lat.—Early this morning our outposts at Bachelor's Greek were attacked by the enemy, represented to be 15,000 strong, consisting of Pickett's division with Hook's brigade, It being impracticable to make an adequate defence, our forces fell back in good order, destroying the camps and abandoning a few stores, with a loss of 60 to 100 men, and one section of artillery. Our forces are now so arranged that we are confident of a successful resistance.

The special Washington despatch of the Tribuse says that it is atated that Mr. Dayton will shortly be recalled from France. Gen. Fremont has been appointed to succeed him. There are those who assert, however, that Fremont could not be tempted even by a daintier dish.

Private advices say that gold yesterday was 158

Creek Villey at noon; 500 of the rebest with tempted to burn the North Branch and Courses. They were driven off without doing serious damage.

New York, February 2.—A Harrisburg special despatch reports that Imboden had crossed the Potomao, three miles below fiancock, and had arrived at Chambersburg and Cumberland Valley, and will reach Harrisburg, if, possible. He has no artillery or infantry, except two sections of a six-pounder baftery. There is no adequate force to pursue or littercept him.

The Post says that information has been received that Gen. Gilmore will come north in about two weeks. He is now at Hillson Head, Everything in his Department is settled down into the old routine. Several of his best regiments have been sent elsewhere, and others are preparing to follow.

Rumors are in circulation of a raid towards Martinsburg.

The Philadelphia Enquirer and 1 (2014).

seen sent elsewhere, and othere are preparing to follow.

Rumors are in circulation of a raid towards artinsburg.

The Philadelphia Enquirer says 1,200 rebels, who had taken the outh of allegiance; arrived yesterday afternoom from the West. The majority of them were immediately placed in service as said-ors.

The Herald's New Orleans letter, says that troops are being towed over Lake Ponchaftrain and landed at Madisonville. All agree that Mobile is to be attacked by land and water.

The World's fillion head etter says attactions against Charleston have virtually ceased. Gen.

Glimore pose to Washington to represent affairs between himself and Admiral Dehigren.

Oesian E. Dodge, the humorist, and Ms. Hayward, ballad singer, left for Californis tonday.

The steamer Western Metropolis, from New Orleans, when 50 miles from Tortuges apprent of the 28th dehile and enter the success of the 28th dehile and enter the property of the coast below.

Carron Pebruary 2.—The Little Rook Democrat of the 28th days 800 rebels, under Gel. Shelby, were encountered and defeated on the 19th, 20 miles below Pine Bluff, by Federals, under Col. Clayton. The fight lasted half an hour. The rebels were badly beaten, and drives a miles. Another fight took place on the 18th between 40 federal case was 8 killed and wounded.

News of February 2.—The Senate yesterday confirmed Ralph S. Doer, Receive of Fost Fostor, and holds have been belowed at the following: Two steam forms and the first of Montage to the Fort are reported.

Centor of the 28th days 800 rebels, under Gel. Shelby, and a still going on this evening. No seattless and no damage to the Fort are reported.

Centor of February 2.—The Senate yesterday confirmed Ralph S. Doer, Receive of Fost Pools.

Sentinel of Monday has the following: Two steamers can the blockade into Wilmington recently.

Mobile, January 30.—A despatch from Okolona says that the 12th Mississippi regiment entered Corinth this morning, and captured a quantity of arms, etc. The Yankees left as they entered.

CHARLESTON, January 33.—The bombardment of Fort Sumpter ceased at dark last night. 150 shells have been thrown, 129 of which struck. The bombardment was renewed this morning with 8 240-pounder Parrots. The firing continued all day, mostly directed against the western wall. Only three persons have been wounded since the bombardment commenced.

CHARLESTON, January 31.—The enemy's bombardment commenced.

CHARLESTON, January 31.—The enemy's bombardment of Sumter keeps up by day, and closes at night:

Harrond, Const., February 6.—The stock of pistola and nifles, completed and in process of manuacture, which was destroyed by the burning of Colt's Factory, is valued at $1,000,000. The machinery destroyed is valued at $500,000. The machinery destroyed is valued at $500,000. The insurance is only $600,000. The minier iffe factory continues in operation. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

New York February 6.—New Orleans papers

Private advices say that geld yesterday was 162 in New York.

Washington, February 4.—The Wateres, ganboat, now here, is destined for the Bacific, Frank K. Murray, her commander, states that with heavy guns she makes 12 miles an hour steadily at 362.

New York, February 2.—The Times special despatch from Washington says. We have authority for contradicting the sensation reports published in the Northern papers on Tuesdal, or apprehended difficulties with France, grewing out at correspondence of Mr. Seward with Drouya de Lhuys on fitting out rebel privateers in French ports. There is not the slightest apprehension felt by those who are conversant with all the facts in the case of any difficulty with the French Emperor on the subject. On the contrary, the latest despatch from Mr. Dayton is of quite a different tenor.

CHICAGO, February 4.—A Cincinnati telegram says that the steamer Levi with Gen. Scammen on board, was captured by guerrillas yesterday at tenor.

CHICAGO, February 2.—A Cincinned telegram says that the steamer Levi with Gen. Scammon on board, was captured by guerrillas yesterday at Beed Landing, on the Kanawha. No particulars.

A bill was reported in the House yesterday, for Our loss is not heavy; perhaps 100 would cover the guns of our forts. Our total loss is probable 20 to 30 killed and wounded, 100 were captured. The enemy's loss is supposed to be from 10 to 12 killed and 40 to 50 wounded.

The Tribune's Washington despatch says that Gen. Butler confidently believes that an exchange of prisoners will yet be consummated. Commissioner Ould had returned to Richmond from 13ky Point fully convinced that our Government intended to sustain Gen. Butler. Ould is in favor of a exchange.

There are hearly $21,000,000 in gold in The Treasury.

Richmond papers have the following:

Russeltvilus: Tenn., January 26.—Our estally are still in the vicinity of Knazville. Their captures during the recent retreat of the Unions army were $0.00 cattle, 500 waggons, 200 of which were loaded with tobacco, and several hundred barrels of flour.

were loaded with cobacco, and several hundred barrels of flour.

Dalton Ga., January 23.—Forrest is doing good service. He has whipped the chemy at Laggrange, Colliersville and Germantown. There is a large force in West Tennessee ready for him. Charleston, January 26.—Twenty-four adictive were fired at the city within the last 24 hours. The flect remains quiet.

Charleston, January 27.—The enemy have been engaged all day in hauling ammanism to Batteries Gregg and Wagner. Several shells were fired into the city since last report.

The dissatisfaction in Lee's Army in consequence of the reduction of rations has reached to such a pitch as required the commander to use an order appealing to their patriotism and teligion to prevent mutiny. Recentification has reached to prevent mutiny. Recentification the time habitants thereabout, and that the horses of the army received only four ears of corn a-day. (The animals are) not allowed to be used except on an extraordinary emergency.

It appears from deepatchest-read in the reach Congress that several brigades have re-culisted for the war. Streamous efforts are being made to initiate a general movement to the effect.

Great complaint is made by the following the fire against mail irregularities. Letters registed seen days to guest Friday has the following.

BROOK HAVEN, Miss., January 22.—Gen. Adams's cavelry entered Silvertown, near Natocapturing 35 prisoners. 60 wagoon teams, quantity of cotten, and about 80 negroes.

RUSSELLVILLE, Tenn., January 27.—The engine of the country of country of the country of country of the country retreating towards. Cumberland Gap. Maj. Descending the place the same day, capturing consisters and property. Our troops are being rapidle clothed. Gov. Vance has offered Longature. Mentplan, Miss., January 26.—The enough of clothing to supply his command.

Mentplan, Miss., January 26.—The enough of clothing to supply his command.

Mentplan, Miss., January 26.—The enough of clothing to supply his command.

Reinforcements have been sent there from Memphis. Stark's cavalry had a skirmish with the enemy at Messenger's Ferry on the Big Blandard few days ago. Some prisoners were taken a few days ago. Some prisoners were taken a number of Yankees were killed. Our cavalry had a brush with the main brigade near Rodner, and the 18th, defeating the Yankees.

Meradian. Miss., January 22.—Vicksburg ago.

MERADIAN, Miss., January 22.-Vicksburg

vices of the 20th, state that the enemy are king preparations to move out to occupy leads on. Pontoon bridges are being thrown across the Big Black for that purpose.

CALIFORNIA

THE "AQUILA."—The wreckers have discharged the between decks aft, and are now discharged from the mizzen hatch and forward. To-day a bors up to one o'clock resulted in the recovery of two large dunkey steam pumps a number of plates and cases of miscellaneous goods.—(Butfetin 6th.)

WORKING FORWARD.—The wreakers are working forward on the Aquila, having already commenced operations at the mizzen hatch, and will continue to advance until the between-decka carries is all discharged.—(Alta. 7th.)

ACCIDENT — Mrs. Dr. Pilkington was severally injured yesterday by the explosion of a spinilamp. The lady was taking a bath at the sime, and was severely injured, though hopes are caterianed of her recovery.—(Bulletin.).

DBATH OF MRS. PILKINGTON.— Mrs. Emeliance of her recovery.—(Bulletin.).

DBATH OF MRS. PILKINGTON.— Mrs. Emeliance of the terrible accident by the explosion of a fluid lamp on Friday, and lated in the Alta of yesterday morning lingered in great agony until four, p. m. yesterday, when death put an end to her sufferings.—(Alta.) death put an end to her sufferings.—(Alta.)

THE GOVERNMENT VETO AGAINST THE EPORTATION OF BLASTING FOWDER TO MEXICO CONFIRMED.—We have seen a despatch from a member of the Cabinet at Washington dated 28th in answer to enquiries from this city, which sees a
"The Secretary of War thinks it inexpedient at this time to give permission for the exportation of blasting powder to Mexico." Shippers of blasting powder to Mexico will now require to send in fixed to the free port of Victoria, V. 11, and from these forward it.

forward it.

Wardk and Loss on Two Lives.—The bellevatine Jenny Ford went ashore on Diable Poinces. the Sist uit, and the second mate, and one senger named Osgood, were drowned. The second rain and the rest of the crew and passengers and ed by getting on the rocks. The Jenny Ford second of the next day, but was so badly damaged that she was sold on the 3rd inst.

PROM JAPAN

New York, January 29—The Tribunal Japan latter of lat December, confirms the statement that Prince Saturns had offered to pay £25,000 indemnity for the most ref. Richardson, but a number of days had passed without the money being for hooming was supposed that the Tycoon would be the party really making payment.

The Yedu Government has promised to pay £10,000 for firing into the American steamer Pembroke, by the Prince of Nagata and has refused to pay the indemnity demanded by the English, notily they exacuse Yokohama.

Yokohama. The English are awaiting reinforce ments