A TRIBUTE TO PARNELL.

THE IRISH LEADER BANQUETED AT DUBLIN.

Nearly Six Hundred Nationalists Present - A Grand Demonstration - The Reception of the Address.

DUBLIN, Dec. 11.—The banquet given in the Rotunda, at which a national tribute was presented to Parnell, was attended by persons from all parts of Ireland and Great Britain. Five hundred and eighty tickets for the banquet had been sold, Great precautions were taken to prevent any members of the national league from entering. Lord Mayor Dawson presided.

The address accompanying the tribute presented to Parnell to-night was enclosed in an imperial quarto album in which were included a number of valuable illustrations. Parnell's family arms, family miniatures, painted, and the borders of the illuminated pages are inscribed in a style of the best Irish manuscript. The album is enclosed in a richly wrought oxidized silver casket of elaborate workmanship.

The device and designs are the work of the artist, Mr. Deane, of the National League. The album is enclosed in a richly wrought oxidized silver casket of elaborate workmanship. The device and designs are the work of the artist, Mr. Deane, of the National League.

The banquet room was crowded. Among those present were Messrs. Sullivan, Sexton, O'Brien, McCarthy, Biggar, Gray, Healy, O'Connor and other members of parliament. Mr. Devitt in the course of his response to the toast of "Ireland a Nation" said that by Parnell they might better themselves on the threshold of heralding in the Irish nation. Lord Mayor Dawson then read an address to Parnell. He referred to the fact that "Never was there a movement formed to contend against such a system of robbery and fraud in the carrying out of which there was so much moderation displayed and such an absence of crime. There are 300,000 soldiers and 15,000 police in Ireland. The law of the harem is observed. The law of the harem is observed. The law of the harem is observed.

At the close of his speech Parnell was presented by Lord Mayor Dawson with a check for £38,000.

EL MAHDI'S TRIUMPHS.

THE BODY OF HICKS PASHA SAID TO HAVE BEEN FOUND.

Excitement at Suakin—A Night Attack Expected—The Arabs Disgusted at Getting no Plunder.

Cairo, Dec. 11.—There are only 500 men fit for service at Suakin; 800 are crippled or otherwise disabled. The Arabs are said to be sick of war, having lost heavily and obtained no plunder, and are returning to their villages. The officials at the war office believe that El Mahdi has retired to El Obeid, being unable to advance for want of transportation facilities.

It is reported that the body of Hicks Pasha has been found with one hand grasping his sword, and the other revolver. Reports have been received that El Mahdi's forces have marched, or will march, into the mountains from El Obeid, possibly with a view of going round to Dongola.

Mahmoud Taper Pasha, who was sent from Suakin with the five companies, which were defeated on the 24th inst., has been promoted to the rank of Major-General. Suleiman Pasha, a veteran of the Crimean war, has succeeded him. Advice from Suakin of the 7th inst. states that there was great excitement there in consequence of an anticipated night attack by rebels. The English gun boats were throwing rockets over to town to scare the enemy.
