REV. DR. COOKE'S MEMORIAL.

CORNER-STONE CEREMONY AT THE NEW CHURCH TO-DAY.

Interesting Historical Sketch of the Formation and Progress of Cooke's Presbyterian Church in This City—Description of the $50,000 Church Now Being Erected in Queen-street.

At 3.30 o'clock this afternoon the corner-stone of the new Cooke's Presbyterian Church at Queen and Mutual-streets will be laid with more than the usual ceremony. In addition to psalmody there will be scriptural reading by Rev. Dr. Parsons, prayers by Rev. Dr. Reid and Rev. Dr. Gregg, the latter a former pastor of the church; presentation of trowel by Pastor Patterson; corner stone laying by Mr. Robert Kilgour, and addresses by Mr. William Johnston, M.P. for South Belfast; Mr. P. G. Close, who will officiate as chairman; Mr. James Alison, one of the trustees; Rev. Dr. McLaren and other ministers and prominent citizens.

Architectural Description.

The style of architecture in which the building is designed is modern Romanesque, and is to be constructed in red bricks and Portage entry stone. Owing to the smallness of the ground the trustees found that in order to erect a church large enough it would be necessary to put the Sunday school in the basement. This has been done and will give accommodation for nearly 900 scholars. The class-rooms, which radiate from the platform, are so arranged that when the doors are opened the superintendent commands a view of every one present. The effect throughout the Sunday school will be bright and cheerful, the stained glass in the fanlights and doors shedding a beautiful glow over the entire lecture room. Access to the Sunday school is had from either side of the main church entrance at the front of the building, and also from the rear off Mutual-street. The large infant class-room, having a separate entrance, will be placed in the most remote part of the Sunday school, yet every scholar will have a view of the superintendent when the doors are thrown open.

A kitchen, with large pantries, also janitor's sitting-room, lavatories, etc., will be at the north end of basement and separated from Sunday school by a brick wall.

The main floor of the church will have seating accommodation for 1200 people with six entrances. The walls throughout the body of the church will be tinted in harmony with the beautiful stained glass windows, which, with the ornate vaulted ceiling and enriched arches, will tend to make the effect most delightful and inviting.

In the rear of the building on the ground floor are the large session room with vault, also choir vestry.

There are four flights of stairs and four entrances for access to gallery, which will have a seating capacity of upward of 700.

In the rear and on the gallery floor will be the pastor's study and church parlor with fireplaces.

All the floors and galleries will be supported on steel girders and cast iron columns.

The elevation of the church towards Queen-street will present a magnificent view, the soft warm color of the stone harmonizing with the deeper color of the dark red bricks, and the entire surface will be relieved by rich carving.

On the southeast corner of the church will rise a lofty yet quaint tower; on the other side of the front there will be a smaller tower. Between the towers and standing out in front of the building will be an arcade porch with massive brick and stone entrances. The towers and porches are to be covered with Spanish tiles.

The church will cover an area of 86x129 feet. The cost will be in the neighborhood of $50,000.

The architect is Mr. Henry Simpson, Toronto.

Historical Sketch.

In presenting a brief sketch of Cooke's Church it is not easy to do justice to the congregation that has done so great a work in the past, many years before any of the Presbyterian churches north of Queen-street were established. It is to be regretted there are now connected with the congregation but few who were then prominently identified with its organization 40 years ago. Of the six stated pastors, three have joined the great company of the redeemed in glory: the others are yet laboring in the Master's service. Such names as Rev. Professor Gregg of Knox College and the late Dr. Robb speak of the former strength of the pulpit. Few churches have so eventful a history as this; none have done more to uphold Presbyterianism in Canada. And above all Christ and Him crucified was the theme ever set before the people.

The history of the church makes one instinctively think of the great man from whom the church derives its name—the late Rev. Henry Cooke, D.D., LL.D., of Belfast, Ireland, a man whose name is dear, not only to the hearts of his own countrymen, but to all who rejoice in the triumphs of truth over error and superstition.

This congregation had its origin years before Cooke's Church became an accomplished fact. On Jan. 20, 1851, a meeting of persons favorable to the establishment of a new Presbyterian church was held at the residence of the late Mr. John Henry in Victoria-street. Steps were taken at this meeting for the organization of a congregation in connection with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Ireland. At another meeting, held on Jan. 28, quite a number of families specified their intention to join the church in process of foundation, and a committee was appointed consisting of the following: Messrs. J. B. Boyle, John Carr, George Coulter, Robert McClelland, Thompson McCleary, John Henry and Samuel McClain to open a subscription list for the purpose of raising funds for a minister's stipend. They were also empowered to correspond with the Rev. John Davis, county of Down, Ireland, with the view to obtaining his acceptance of the pastoral charge of the congregation, and offered to him an annual stipend of £250. This call Mr. Davis did not accept. Failing in the attempt to secure a minister from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Ireland, a meeting was held on May 28 and the following resolution was adopted:

Joined the Church of Canada.

That as we have hitherto postponed the necessary measures from legal organization awaiting a definite answer from Mr. Davis, and as delaying the matter may injuriously affect our future prospects, resolved that application be made forthwith to the synod of the Presbyterian Church of Canada.

In accordance with the resolution Mr. J. B. Boyle appeared before the Presbytery of Toronto on June 5, 1851, and presented a memorial signed by himself and others, praying the Presbytery to organize them into a distinct congregation. The memorial was favorably entertained and acted on. On March 26, 1852, a call was moderated in by Dr. Willis. The call was given to Rev. Robert Irvine of St. John, New Brunswick. On May 14 the call was sustained by the Presbytery of Toronto and transmitted to the Presbytery of N.B. and presented to Mr. Irvine. The call was accepted.

On June 24, 1852, the Rev. Robert Irvine was inducted as the first stalled pastor of new congregation. Mr. Irvine continued pastor until May 12, 1854, when he accepted a call from Knox Church, Hamilton.

During his incumbency the congregation met for worship in the Temperance and St. Lawrence Halls and in the frame church on George-street. This property Cooke's church congregation eventually purchased, also a lot on the corner of Queen and Mutual-streets on which to erect a new brick church, plans were also obtained from Mr. Thomas, architect. On the 3rd of July, 1856, a call was moderated in and given to Rev. Andrew Marshall, formerly of Ireland, but now of New Brunswick. The call was sustained, and accepted, Mr. Marshall's induction took place on the 8th of August, 1856.

On May 5, 1857, a call was given to Rev. William Gregg of Belleville, and sustained by the Presbytery and accepted. Mr. Gregg was inducted into the pastoral charge on July 8, 1857. Having received an appointment from the senate of Knox College as professor in apologetics he resigned the pastoral charge of the congregation in June, 1872. He has taken part in the settlement of three of his successors in the pastorate, namely, Rev. Dr. Robb, Rev. John Kirkpatrick and Rev. William Patterson. During Dr. Gregg's ministry the congregation met for worship in a frame church in George-street, built by the Wesleyans and purchased by them as a temporary building and used under the name of "Cooke's Church." On April 10, 1854, a meeting of the congregation was held to consider the building of a new church, Mr. John Laidlaw, chairman. Mr. Campbell moved and Mr. Joseph McCauley seconded, That the Building Committee and trustees be authorized to obtain plans for the erection of a new brick church in the corner of Queen and Mutual-streets. Mr. William Thomas was appointed architect.

The Queen-Street Church Opened.

On Sept. 30, 1856, a full building committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs. John Carr, chairman, Nathen Gatchell, John Greenlees, Thompson McCleary, C. S. Patterson (now Judge Patterson), Hugh Miller, James Farrell, Thomas Saulter, James Rusk, Arbuckle Jardine, Samuel McClain, Andrew Riddell, Elijah Robinson and William R. Orr, and on Oct. 20, 1856, the tenders were received and the following were accepted: John Worthington, stone and mason work; G. R. Burrows, carpenter work; Joseph McCausland, painting and glazing; Mr. Reddin, plastering. Estimated cost £4000 or $16,000. Estimated cost of the building $16,000 and the lands $3100, making a total cost for the old building of $19,100.

On July 4, 1858, the congregation met for worship in the George-street church for the last time. The services for the two following Sabbaths were held in the St. Lawrence Hall, and then on July 25, 1858, the congregation met for the first time in the new church.

The next important step taken by the congregation was when it invited the Rev. James Gardner Robb of Clougher, Ireland, to preside over her destinies. Although quite a stranger to the members of the congregation yet from the favorable reports received of him a call was moderated in and sustained by the Presbytery, with an annual guaranteed stipend of $3000 and transmitted to Dr. Robb and accepted by him. His induction took place in May, 1874. On Jan. 26, 1879, Dr. Robb resigned the pastoral charge of the Congregation, having received a call from Galway, Ireland, which he accepted.

Dr. Robb's successor was the Rev. John Kirkpatrick of New York. A meeting of the congregation was held on Nov. 12, 1879, when a call was moderated in by Dr. Gregg. The call was given to Mr. Kirkpatrick with a promised stipend of $2000. The call was sustained by the Presbytery of Toronto and transmitted to Mr. Kirkpatrick, which in due time was accepted. The induction took place on Feb. 5, 1880. During the five years of Mr. Kirpatrick's ministry the balance of the old mortgage indebtedness of $1000 was paid off, and the document presented to the congregation. There were also added to the church membership, upon profession of faith and on certificate, 179 persons. Rev. Mr. Kirkpatrick resigned his pastoral charge of the congregation on Feb. 3, 1885, and closed his ministry in Cooke's Church on June 30. Rev. Robert Monteith declared the pulpit vacant on Sabbath, July 5, by order of presbytery.

The Advent of the Present Pastor.

On May 29, 1886, a call was moderated in by Dr. Gregg, and transmitted through presbytery to Mr. Wm. Patterson, a student in Knox College, with a guaranteed stipend of $1600. The call was accepted and Mr. Patterson's ordination and induction took place on July 22, 1886. Previous to the settlement of the present pastor in 1886, a series of circumstances had the effect of greatly reducing the membership and making the cause of Christ in the church a small and failing one. The coming of Mr. Patterson in 1886 was the beginning of a new era and the dawning of a brighter day for the congregation. It soon became apparent that for the welfare of the congregation considerable improvements were necessary.

During the year 1887 the interior of the church was completely changed through instructions given by the trustees to Mr. William R. Gregg, architect, and a new Sabbath school was built for the increasing attendance. The entire cost of these improvements was $19,000, for which leave was given by the Presbytery of Toronto to mortgage the church property to the extent of $15,000. On Aug. 28, 1887, the church was rededicated.

During these extensive improvements the congregation met for worship in the New Orange Hall, Queen-street east.

The last few years have been so singularly blessed of God both spiritually and temporally that the time came when the managers found it impossible to accommodate the ever-increasing congregation. On May 5, 1890, a meeting of the congregation was held to take into consideration the advisability of enlarging the church and school-room. Plans were also submitted by the architect, when it was reported that the property north of the church would have to be purchased at a cost of $6000. This, with the estimated cost of the alterations, would involve an expenditure of $20,000 without the desired results. The scheme was not adopted. A committee was appointed from members of the session and the Board of Trustees to solicit subscriptions, with a view to building a new church if a sufficient amount was subscribed to pay off the present mortgage of $15,000. A circular letter was issued Feb. 13, 1891, inviting the cooperation of members and adherents towards the liquidating of the mortgage of $15,000. From the liberal response to the appeal made by the committee, it was agreed that a sufficient amount had been subscribed to warrant the congregation in building a new church to seat 2000 persons. Plans for a new church, prepared by Harvy Simpson, architect, were also adopted. Messrs. James Alison, Thomas Kinnear and Thomas A. Lytle were appointed a committee to appear before the Presbytery and ask leave to mortgage the church property for the sum of $40,000. The request was granted by the presbytery. The progress attained during the past few years has been unprecedented in the history of the congregation. From the settlement of the present pastor there have been added to the roll by certificate and on profession of faith 1930 persons, the membership at present being 963, the largest since the formation of the church 40 years ago, while the receipts for the year 1890 were $6800.

The Best Pills.—Mr. William Vandevoort Sydney Crossing, Ont., writes: "We have been using Parmelee's Pills, and find them by far the best pills we ever used." For delicate and debilitated constitutions these pills act like a charm. Taken in small doses, the effect is both a tonic and a stimulant, mildly exciting the secretions of the body, giving tone and vigor.

The Ontario Ministers.

The Premier and Mrs. Mowat, who left Toronto some days ago with the intention of spending two months on Mackinac Island, found the weather too cool and went to the Canadian Sault, where they are now sojourning. They will return about Sept. 1.

Hon. G. W. Ross and Mrs. Ross left on Thursday on a trip to British Columbia. They will be absent a month or six weeks.

Farmer-General Dryden is on a visit to England.

Hon. C. F. Fraser is spending his summer at his cottage on one of the islands of the St. Lawrence near Brockville.

The only Ministers in town are Hon. Messrs. Hardy, Gibson and Harcourt.

No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels promptly and causes a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market.

A Fine Group.

In Dixon's photo window, corner King and Yonge-streets, can be seen a fine photo group of the employes of Messrs. W. R. Brock & Co. The photo is for presentation to Mr. Edward Roach, who has been in the employ of the firm for some 20 years, but who is now leaving to take the management of his late father's estate.

WHOSE BODY IS IT?

A Floater That Did Not Come from the Yacht Mabel.

PORT COLBORNE, Ont., July 24.—Mr. Barber of Simcoe came down last evening and saw the body washed ashore here. Mr. Barber says it is neither of the two, Messrs. Bunker and Ryerson, lost off the Mabel. The body is that of a man about 30 years of age, with light hair, small mustache and a thick head of hair. The left eye is cut under the lid. He is dressed in a black silk shirt, no vest, dark striped trousers, black shooting jacket, coat with lining frayed, heavy rolled lace shoes and black straw hat with ribbon; $6.50 in money, a knife with one blade and a wooden handle were found in the pockets of the trousers. Deceased wore a truss. There were no papers on the body. A clinker boat came ashore on July 17, marked yacht P.D., painted white, formerly black, had two seats. A fishing spoon marked 5 Croft & Son, Toronto, was found in the boat.

Manager Conner's Show.

This afternoon and evening at 4.30 and 9.30 p.m., Zamora, the wonderful Mexican Aerial Artist, and McDonald, the noted club swinger, will give their two last entertainments, the Queen's Own Band furnishing the music on both occasions. On Monday J. C. will introduce another novelty, being an entire Japanese circus of eight artists, which has recently arrived from Europe, playing their last English engagement at the Paragon Theatre, London, during the week of May 4. As this is the largest company presented this season by our Canadian Barnum at Hanlan's, and as all performances are given on an elevated stage entirely free of charge to the spectators, it is probable the largest attendance will be next week in the history of the Island. There will be two performances daily during the week at 4.30 and 9.30 p.m.

The Place to Get Furs.

Mr. James Harris, 99 Yonge-street, is really the hatter and furrier of Toronto. His stock is the best, no old shelf goods. He is now selling out his entire stock of hats at less than cost, as he intends in the future to devote his entire attention to the fur trade. Ladies who wish really good furs, guaranteed best quality, should call and see Mr. Harris and his handsome stock of fur mantles, capes, jackets, etc., 99 Yonge-street.

Severe colds are easily cured by the use of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, a medicine of extraordinary penetrating and healing properties. It is acknowledged by those who have used it as being the best medicine sold for coughs, colds, inflammation of the lungs and all affections of the throat and chest. Its agreeableness to the taste makes it a favorite with ladies and children.

International Sunday School Conference

In accordance with the recommendation of the Executive Committee, approved by the International Convention held at Pittsburg, Pa., June, 1890, a conference of members of the International Executive Committee, with the officers and members of the Executive Committees of the state, territorial and provincial Sunday school associations, will be held at Chautauqua, N.Y., Aug. 15 to 18, 1891.

This time is chosen for the conference because, being at the very height of the assembly season at Chautauqua, it is believed a larger number could be secured than at any other time or place.

In addition to those included in the call prominent Sunday school workers who have manifested a special interest in the work of the association are invited to attend the general meetings of the conference.

HISTOGENETIC

ANOTHER HOPELESS CASE

SPRINGFIELD ON THE CREDIT, Ont.
March 18, 1891.

Histogenetic Medicine Association:

GENTLEMEN,—

Wishing to testify to the superior merits of Histogenetic Medicine for the cure of lung diseases, I submit the following statement: Two years ago I found myself, as a result of exposure to cold and wet weather taking frequent colds. I took a severe cough and got run down in vitality and had several spells of hemorrhage of the lungs. I coughed a great deal in the morning and some during the night. I consulted two or three physicians, one very clever Toronto physician. He treated me without medicine by hand rubbing and did me considerable good, but in the course of time the hemorrhage returned.

Two of the physicians I consulted considered mine a serious case, and one of them gave me to understand it hopeless, and I have no doubt that consumption would soon have caused my death. I heard about the new system of medicine and consulted Dr. Rear at the head office for Canada, 19 Yonge street Market, who examined me very thoroughly and thought Histogenetic remedies would cure me in about six weeks. I commenced taking the medicine about Jan. 1. In two weeks the cough and breathing were better. The amount of sputa rapidly lessened. There was considerable bronchitis and it soon disappeared. My strength came again with astonishing rapidity and the rapid breathing disappeared. I have not had any hemorrhage since the first lot of medicine was taken. I have gained steadily in the body generally as well as the lungs, and feel almost as well as I ever did. I can walk fast now or do anything in a hurry and not get rapid breathing or palpitation. I am now following my usual employment and can stand any kind of weather. It is the best treatment for the lungs I have ever known, and I can conscientiously recommend it to my friends and acquaintances who may need lung treatment as far superior to any other system. Sincerely,

T. M. HAMMOND.

Medical examination, consultation and books free.
