THE CLOSING AT EDGEHILL

The Guild Banquet a Very Pleasant Affair—Miss Kaulbach Won Tennis Championship

Windsor, June 12.—The closing exercises at Edgehill commenced on Friday evening upon the arrival of the Guild girls and as a welcome the members of the senior elocution class gave a pleasing presentation of Yates' "Land of Hearts Desire." This was followed by "Sleeping Beauty," cleverly enacted by the girls. Refreshments were afterwards served by the senior girls.

The present visitors at Edgehill are, Mrs. John Gibson, Pittsburg; Miss Ross, St. John's Island; Miss Isabel Dodwell, Halifax; Miss Barker, St. John; Mrs. Rafuse, Bridgewater; Miss Mary Forbes, Toronto; Miss Ida Leslie, Halifax; Miss Pipes, Amherst; Miss Lowerison, Sackville; Miss McNeil, New Glasgow; Miss Francis Fairbanks, Oxford. Other former pupils in town are Miss Richardson, Fredericton; Miss Marjorie Pipes, Amherst; Miss Whitman, Annapolis; Miss Coll, St. John.

On Saturday afternoon the tennis tournament for the school championship was played off and won by Charlotte Kaulbach. The tennis between the Guild girls and the present girls was a splendidly contested exhibition and with Mrs. R. Christie and Miss Isabel Clift playing for the Guild they won out by score of 6-4, 6-4. The weather was ideal for all out door games, and Edgehill at this season is wonderfully attractive in its lovely green foliage and flowering shrubs and trees.

A very important and much enjoyed event was the Guild banquet on Saturday evening at which 129 guests were present. The toast list was a particularly interesting one and the menu reflected much credit upon those having it as their special charge.

Miss Evelyn Russell was toast mistress. The first toast "The King" was proposed by Miss Dodwell and in response "O Canada" was sung. The lady principal, Miss Roebling, was proposed by M. McNeil, and Miss Roebling was happy to respond. The toast proposed by Miss Kammer, "Old Girls," C. Coll "Leaving Girls," E. Lynch, H. Garlin, "Games," A. Henry, "M. Borden," "Kings," H. Clark, M. Boulden, "K. C. S.," M. Covert, E. Tapp, "Absent Friend," H. Richardson, F. Fairbanks, "U.S.A." proposed by R. Wilson, responded to by Mrs. Gibson.

The reading of the class prophecy by E. Johnson occasioned lots of fun as the writer glanced into the future.

The following school song brought a very happy event to a close: "Alma Mater, rising from the dark pin hills, her frowning sentinels, like a castle stands a school, a home of sunny play and rule, it was there when we were young, all our sweet songs were sung. Alma Mater true, though years may pass we love but you."

Fling out our marching cry, fiddler on high. With hearts and souls as one we sing hurray for Edgehill, hurray for Edgehill. On dear home of youthful dreams, our memory fondly teems, with thoughts of happy hours, spent in thy chestnut bowers, and ever through life when clouds loom sorrows rife, Alma Mater, etc.

Miss Roebling is entertaining the staff and guild at tea this afternoon, and tomorrow evening the annual dance will be held for Guild girls and parents in town. The much needed rain of today has made everything look even more attractive for Kings College School closing tomorrow, and Edgehill's on Tuesday.

A prominent New York debutante recently ordered "four seats on the aisle" at the theatre. When her party arrived at the performance, they were surprised to find themselves arranged in a column instead of a row. Nothing daunted, the debutante turned to a bored, middle-aged man next to her. Surely he would not mind changing with her friend in front.

"I beg your pardon," she said politely.

No reply. He must be deaf.

"I beg your pardon," she repeated, louder.

Still no reply.

"I beg your pardon," she said, bumping his elbow.

He took out a pencil and wrote on his program:

"That's my wife on the other side of me. Safety first."

The third grade was studying multiplication and some of the children were having trouble with the tables. One boy was having an especially hard time, so his folks were helping him at home. One night they were questioning him, and his sister said: "Birch, if you were to go down to the store to buy nine apples and the grocer told you they were seven cents apiece, what would you say?"

Birth answered immediately: "I'd say, 'Nothing doin', I won't pay it.'"

FELT LIKE AN IRON BAND AROUND HEAD

Mrs. Osborne Says She Shudders When She Thinks How She Suffered

"For years," said Mrs. V. B. Osborne, of 718 Lancaster Ave., Lexington, Ky., "I have been in a run-down condition; nervous, weak and dizzy. I was actually so nervous that any sudden noise or excitement would produce a palpitation of my heart that frightened me. I absolutely could not climb stairs, for to attempt such would thoroughly exhaust me. I had nervous headaches and when they came on it seemed that an iron band was drawn tight around my head. I now shudder when I think of those headaches. My stomach was weak and I could not digest the lightest liquid food. Any food of a solid nature caused nausea and the sickening sensation remained for hours.

"My misery was almost unbearable. My sleep was never sound and I was worn out all the time. My condition was indeed a very deplorable one. I finally sought treatment in Cincinnati but nothing helped me one particle. I was on the verge of giving up in despair when a neighbor pleaded with me to try Tanlac. I obtained a bottle of the medicine and began its use.

"I began improving at once and soon felt my nervousness and dizziness disappearing. Then my headaches left me and I realized my strength had returned. My appetite and digestion improved and I am now so much better in every way. This Tanlac is a wonderful medicine and the only one that ever really helped me. I hope every poor woman who is suffering as I did will try it."

Barbers and Music

Barbers are now said to be introducing music during the time of their daily activities.

A large downtown shop in a prominent city in the United States has installed a phonograph. When they shave a man they put on a dreamy melody to lull him to sleep so that he keeps quiet. Haircuts are accompanied by jazz and this keeps the customer awake and ready to shift his head any way the barber requires.

"The End of a Perfect Day" is a favorite during massage while for close shaves they give the victim Chopin's "Funeral March."

No Place For Pat

An Irishman visiting a friend in hospital began to take an interest in the other patients.

"What are you in here for?" he asked one.

"I've got tonsillitis, and I've got to have my tonsils cut out," was the answer.

"And you?" he asked another.

"I've got blood poisoning in my arm, and they're going to cut it off," was the reply.

"Heavens," said Pat in horror, "it ain't no place for me. I've got a cold in my head."

Schooners Wilfred D., from River Hebert; Jennie T., from Belliveau's Cove, and the Halifax tug Musquash, from Digby, arrived at St. John on Monday.

WANDERERS DEFEAT MIDDLETON

The Halifax Team Wins Easily By One Sided Score Of 14 To 4

Middleton, June 15.—Outfitting their opponents throughout, Wanderers of Halifax defeated the locals here today, fourteen runs to four. Handley's gilt edge pitching was a puzzle to the Middleton players and aided by costly errors of the home players and the timely hitting of his mates, he had an easy time. However, Middleton came back strong in the seventh inning and found the visiting twirler for four hits and four runs, but the big lead secured by the Wanderers in the early innings was too big for Middleton to cut down.

Although Wanderers hit hard with more bases and seemed to find Dodge's offerings soft, the local twirler was given raw support and the Middleton error column record was broken. Handley was effective with the bases occupied and his support was excellent. Middleton could not get to the Wanderer moundsman when hits meant runs. Long hits by Tompkins, Ahern, Beazley, Dalziel and Graves counted for runs in the first inning.

H. T. McKenzie, of Bridgetown, and W. A. Spurr, of Middleton, made impartial umpires. The batting orders were:

Wanderers—Phelan, third; O'Brien, s.s.; Thompkins, c.f.; and I.f.; Graves, second; Mullane, c.; Ahern, r.f.; Dalziel, l.f.; and c.f.; Handley, p.; Beazley, first.

Middleton—Harlow, third; Appleby, s.s.; P. Phinney, second; A. Fisher, first; Dodge, p. and r.f.; J. Reagh, c.f.; Goucher, l.f.; Howlby, c.f.; Fisher, r.f.; Reagh, r.f.

A SPLENDID TONIC FOR WEAK PEOPLE

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Act On the Blood and Nerves.

Food is as important to the sick person as medicine, more so in many cases. A badly chosen diet may retard recovery. In health the natural appetite is the best guide to follow; in sickness the appetite is often feeble and depraved.

Proper food and a good tonic will keep most people in good health. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a fine tonic medicine, harmless and certain in their action, which is to build up the blood and restore vitality to the run-down system. For growing girls who are thin and pale, for pale, tired women, and for old people who fall in strength, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an ideal tonic. Thousands have testified to the benefit derived from the use of this medicine, among them is Mrs. William Gallie, Hansport, N.S., who says: "Before I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I was so weak and run down that I could hardly do my own work. I often suffered from headaches and I was very nervous. I then began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I can truthfully say I have found them the best medicine I have ever taken. You may depend upon it I will advise other sufferers to take these pills."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
