The largest, handsomest, most valuable gardening magazine is The American Garden of New York. It writers are practical, successful gardeners, fruit growers, florists, investigators, and amateurs, whose experience covers all states and countries: thus it is adapted to the needs of all sections and It is thoroughly independconditions. ent, not being connected with any nursery or seedsman's interest, as are many so-called horticultural journals. It is firmly established, covering 42 years of age, dating back to the old Horticulturist of Downing and the Gardener's Monthly of Mechan. is practical, beautiful and finely illustrated. It is valuable to the fruit grower, marketgardener, florist, farmer, country gentleman, amateur, to the professional man and merchant with small place or house lot in country, town or village, to every woman and man who loves flowers and Nature.

You come the nearest my ideal of a Horticultural Monthly for popular circulation of any of the makers of such literature.—Chas. W. Garfield, See'y Michigan Horticultural Society.

Indispensable to the fruit growers, horticulturists, gardeners and florists (both practical and amateur) of this country. -Cyrus T. Fox, State Pomologist of Pennsylvania.
