COMMISSION MERCHANTS, 443 Commissioners Street, Montreal, are regu tarly receiving and selling on Commission all kinds of country produce-such as Flour, Grain, Butter, Cheese, Pork, Pot and Pourl Ashes, Leather, Wool, Clover, and Timothy and Flax Seeds; also purchasing on country account, Dry Goods, Grocories, Hardware, and General Merchandiso.

The want of success in a mercantile career has been frequently assigned to various causes. Few, if any at the out-set, but what flatte: encorrers of cortain success, the starting point and the winning post being the most prominent features of the road. And little does the inexperienced traveller know of the pit fulls does the inexperienced travoller know of the pit tails and quagniers which this rival in the race had to contend with, although apparently under a smooth surices. In the case of those whose success in acknowledged and established, few over reached the goal of success without encountering those obstacles by which the thousands who have never reached it have been overcome. The want of persoverance look may a battle, and proven ed from realizing in the faiture what youtful ineps had patated in these of the most enchanting brilliancy. Stoney making and fortune seeking reem to be the ruling features of our rag, and in the great haste to obtain them, they are lost in the griding. There are principles although and a montent as those which seem so because the reach of the rule of the reaches and the rule of the rule of
