

OF THE
PRESBYTBRILI OHDRUI OR NOVI MCOTIL.
7013.1

DECEHEBER 1852,

CONTENTS

Abstract

So our Radere-17\%. Hosre Departurnt.-Letters from kif Sprots-178-180,-Letter'ford Mr SicCurdy-181. Foneign Mrssioss,-Mr Geddie's Journal-182-187Lato igtellisence-1Ê8. Mibcemaneocs,-Ber. H. H. Garnet-189,-Madagasoar-180,- United Presbyterian Clurch Hymn Book-100. Norices,-191-193.

TO OUE REABERS.

The present number of the Register, implements $0 \cdot \mathrm{r}$ portion of the contract with Subscribers for 1852; but as we propose its renewal for another year, it is proper to state the precise terms on which this proposal is entertained. Our Readers must he perfeelly satisfied, that the present charge does not admit of reduction. The neecssary expenses for printing and distribution, would require the entire issue of 1750 enpies monthly, to be paid in advance. Edtorial services are gisen gratuitously, and a considerable number of eopies are distributed freely in eschange for similar periodicals, and in such quarters as the Board of Foreign Missions consider entitled to receive them. Were it not for the many important, though indirect benefits whick flow from the maintenance of such a pubbication as the Register, the Boand would never have projected, neither would they continuc to uphold, its issue. Our nemerous friends 要ight easily render it a source of income, instead of, as now, a source of expenditure. Give us but two thousand rrompt and fiuhful subscribere, and this most desirable object would be secured. Our last year's ancounts aro etill, to a considerable ecteat, unspuled, although no Scbscribar osuld well be ignorant that pagment was lesnacted ia advance. find aiter shl, there is no greater dificulty in pre-payment, than in after-payment, especially, where the sum is so smatl as pene quarter coliar for one year. We anticipate then, not only the speedy remittance of all sums for 1852, but that for 1853, every Subscriber will be forward to comply with our terms. Agents in the different parts of the Prov- 1 ince will please, make sigorous effort, to complete and remit their subscription lists to Mr John D. McDonald, the publisher for the ensuing year. To avoid disappointment on the pa $:$ of our present Patrons, the number of coples to be issued, for January and February, will be as now arranged, but afterwards, the issue will be regulated by the number of paid sub. scriptions.
A.terua year's experience of assoneiate Editorehip, the Board have fernd that the most desirable course is, in commit the sole responsibility of Ediang to one individual, with the distinct anderstanding, that whenever absence from home or other necessary hindrance mag interfere with has discharge of duty, one or more of the Brethren in the ministry, will bo prepares: to take his place. The individual whe has beon solected for the honorable but on crous ufice of sole Editor, is quito sfasible that he orres tiais preeminence, oo the par:icular locality to whech, in the Providesser of God, his ministry has been ast apast .

