Deacon James C. Dumaresq is the worthy son-in-law of Deacon McDonald. He is a native of Sydney, C. B., and joined that church by baptism in 185 when 19 years of age. He studied several years at Acadia and then settled in Halifax—an Architect—and joined the N. B. Church by letter. In 1877 he removed to St. John and became an active worker in Brussel's St. Church, returning to this city and church in 1887. Shortly thereafter he was chosen Superintendent of our School, and has been re-elected every year since; last January he reluctantly declined the honor. In 1889 he was elected Deacon, and has devoted much time and energy to the advancement of this Zion. His wife and family are among the active workers in our church.
