

Dominion W.O.T.U.

In connection with the seventh convention of the Dominion Woman's Christian Temperance Union to be held in London, Ont., June 1st to 5th inclusive, the following statement has been issued by the officers: "The annual convention shall be composed of the executive committee and the provincial corresponding and recording secretaries and treasurer, one delegate-at large from each auxiliary province and one delegate for every one hundred paying members of auxiliary provincial unions."

The treasurer's books will close for auditing on May 18th. Provinces which have not yet paid their yearly affiliation fees should do so before that date in order that they may be entitled to full representation.

The president's prize banner, won last year by the Quebec provincial union, will be returned to convention and similarly awarded to the provincial auxiliary which shows the largest percentage of increase in paid-up membership during the past year, as certified by the books of the Dominion treasurer. Provincial treasurers will please notice that no province will be eligible to compete for this banner unless the full amount of its provincial dues is received by the Dominion treasurer before May 18th.

A school of methods will be held on the afternoon of Monday, June 4th, and a "Y" conference is being arranged for Wednesday, June 6th. Daily readings will be given. The latest news from England renders it probable that the president of the World's W.O.T.U., Miss Frances E. Willard, Lady Henry Somerset, president of the British Woman's Temperance Association, and Miss Anna Gordon, world's superintendent of juvenile work, will be present.

The railway companies will be asked for the usual reduced rates, and it is hoped that each province will send its full quota of delegates, and that throughout the Dominion daily prayer will be offered for the success of this convention and the presence of the Holy Spirit to guide and direct all of its deliberations.

A Bunch o' Heather.

Address on receiving a bunch of Highland heather in America.

BY JOHN IMRIE, TORONTO.

Dear token frae my native lan'
Thou bonnie bunch o' heather!
I'll shelter ye wi' tender han'
Frae oor extremes o' weather:
I'll plant ye in a pat o' moor
Brought a' the way frae Olan,
An' a' lochan ye wi' water cool
An' clear as frae Loch Loman'!

An' when the Scotchman's day comes roon—
Saint Andra's day sae cheerie—
I'll tak' ye wi' me to the toon.
To bask my auld Glengarry;
An' you'll see faces there ye ken,
Wha speiled wi' me the heather,—
Braw Hiolan' lasses an' their men
Shall dance a reel togither!

Then will I gie ye bit-by-bit,
Each ane a sprig o' heather,—
To keep ye a' I'll no be fit
Aince ye meet a' thepither!
At sight o' ye we'll a' feel good,
We lasses ane anither;
For, ye maun ken, we're unco proud
O' Scotlan' an' her heather!

How aft your purple face has seen
Auld Scotia's heroes gather?
How aft the martyr's bluid hath been
Spill'd ruthless on the heather?
For Freedom, Liberty, an' Right,
Read Scotlan's a' sthless story,
Oor fathers left us by their might
A heritage o' glory!

The above verses are from the Third Edition of JOHN IMRIE'S POEMS containing about 400 pages, neatly bound in cloth and gold, and will be sent, post free, on receipt of one dollar. IMRIE, GRAHAM & Co., 31 Church Street, Toronto, Canada.

Why Not Save the Two?

St. John, N.B., the wonderful "new city," has been selected this year for the meeting of General Assembly. St. John, N.B., is one of the termini of the Canadian Pacific Railway system, being at the head or commencement (which ever way it is taken) of that division known as the "new Short Line," a part of this gigantic system very appropriately named on account of its "shortening" the journey from Montreal and the west by nearly three hundred miles, and nine hours of railway journey.

A writer in a contemporary says: "I will remember having occasion to travel to St. John, N.B. in the old days, and with what qualms I set out on the journey. Now I would undertake the journey with feelings of pleasure, as once on board the Canadian Pacific trains one feels quite at home, so well arranged are they in their outfit and comforts."

St. John is conveniently situated for the taking of "side trips" to the many interesting points in the vicinity, and, everything considered, the city is well chosen as the rendezvous for Presbyterian representatives.
