

nervous system as exhaustively as those of the other systems would require twice the space allotted to them. The excuse may be that because of their chronicity and in some instances comparative verity, too much space should not be given.

One of the most important things for the student to be able to do is to diagnose a functional from an organic disease, important both as to prognosis and treatment. The functional stigmata are not as exhaustively treated as they deserve, or as we feel the author is capable of doing in this connection.

Taken altogether, the text-book has no superior, and few equals as to its readability, condensed amount of information and its systematic, scientific methods of dealing with the etiology, pathology and symptomatology of morbid conditions.

PUBLISHERS DEPARTMENT.

THE VAN NESS COOPER CO.

This Company, of New York city, opened a branch in Montreal about a year ago, since which time the various preparations which are prepared in their laboratory has been brought to the notice of the profession. These are numerous and are only introduced through advertising in Medical journals. We have heard their Lacto-Lithiated Strontium highly spoken of in Bright's Disease. Their Nitro-Glycerine solution, a non-alcoholic combination of Bi-Chl. of Mercury, Hydrocyanic Acid Dilute, Crude Pyroligneous Acid, Tuligo Ligni, Gyn-cardia Odorata and Glycerine is said to be of especial value in that obstinate disease, eczema. They make a preparation of Bone Marrow, which is pleasant to take and which we have used in wasting disease with much benefit. Catalogues of their specialties will be sent on application to their Montreal Depot, which is at 28 St. Antoine street.

LITERARY NOTES.

The National Review's important article on the Foreign Policy of England, which has set both the English and the Continental press to talking of the possibility of an understanding between England and Russia, will be reprinted without abridgment in The Living Age for December 14.

The Living Age for 1902. During the fifty-eight years of its existence this sterling weekly magazine has steadily maintained its high standard. It is a thoroughly satisfactory compilation of the most valuable literature of the day, and as such is unrivalled. As periodicals of all sorts continue to multiply, this magazine continues to increase in value; and it has become quite indispensable to the American reader. By its aid alone we can, with an economy of time, labour and money, otherwise impracticable, keep well abreast with the literary and scientific progress of the age, and with the work of the ablest living writers. It is the most comprehensive of magazines, and its prospectus is well worth the attention of all who are selecting their reading matter for the new year. To all new subscribers for 1902, the publishers offer FREE the Seventeen Weekly Issues for the four months, September to December, 1901, inclusive, until the edition is exhausted. Intending subscribers should hasten to avail themselves of this generous offer. The Living Age Co., Boston, are the publishers.
