

shall seem necessary, requisite or convenient for the observation of the same laws, constitutions, orders and ordinances, and the same fines and americiaments shall and may by their officers and servants levy, take and have to the use of the said governor and company and their successors. All and singular which laws, constitutions, orders and ordinances to be made, are to be duly observed and kept, under the pains and penalties therein to be contained, so always as the said laws, constitutions, orders and ordinances, fines and americiaments, be reasonable and not contrary or repugnant, but as near as may be agreeable to the laws, statutes or customs of this realm.

The charter further grants unto the said governor and company, and their successors, that they and their successors, and their factors, servants and agents, for them and on their behalf, and not otherwise, shall for ever thereafter have, use and enjoy, not only the whole, entire and only trade and traffic, and the whole, entire, and only liberty, use and privilege of trading and trafficking to, and from, the territory, limits and places aforesaid, but also the whole and entire trade and traffic to, and from, all havens, bays, creeks, rivers, lakes and seas, into which they shall find entrance or passage by water or land out of the territories, limits, or places aforesaid.

It further grants to the said governor and company, and to their successors, that neither the said territories, limits and places thereby granted as aforesaid, nor any part thereof, nor the islands, havens, ports, cities, towns or places thereof or therein contained, shall be visited, frequented or haunted by any of the subjects of the King, his heirs or successors, contrary to the true meaning of those presents.

It further grants that all lands, islands, territories, plantations, forts, fortifications, factories or colonies, where the said company's factories and trade are, or shall be, shall be immediately and from thenceforth under the power and command of the said governor and company, their successors and assigns, saving the faith and allegiance due to be performed
