"SWEET HOME."

"THERE is no place like home" runs the old song, and we know how true it is.

The impressions made in the home are lasting. A mother's words never pass from the mind. A father's counsel remains fresh so long as life lasts. The last benediction of parental love and solicitude—with what tenacity it clings to the memory when almost all else has gone!

How important, therefore, that the home be maintained intact as long as possible—a haven of loving counsel, of peace and joy to the growing children. How sad when death invades, when the fire goes out on the hearthstone, and the family is scattered. What the children lose by the death of a parent only those realize who have grown up without that love and advice which a parent alone can bestow.

There are tens of thousands of parents to-day in agony of mind through fear of death from kidney disease, who do not know they are doctoring only symptoms—such as wakefulness, nervousness, a splendid feeling one day and an all-gone one another, dropsy, weak heart action, pneumonia, neuralgia, fickle appetite, etc., while the real trouble is poisoned blood caused by diseased kidneys. Unless purified with Warner's Safe Cure they will just as surely die, as though poisoned with arsenic.

Doctors publicly admit that they cannot cure advanced kidney disease; they are too bigoted to use Warner's Safe Cure because it is an advertised remedy; consequently, unless you use your own good judgment, secure and use Warner's Safe Cure, a specific, which has proved itself in tens of thousands of cases to be all it is represented, your home, through your death, will be broken up and your loved ones deprived of that which money cannot purchase or friends supply.

SHREWD ADVERTISERS.

READERS of the newspapers of the day cannot fail to be impressed with the fact that the modern advertiser is progressive.

The value of printer's ink judiciously employed cannot be overestimated; it is the medium whereby a meritorious discovery is raised from local fame to a position in the public esteem. Hence the columns of the newspapers are daily used by hosts of advertisers and in the competition which is indulged in to attain the desired end, the reader is oftentimes amused.

The greatest of American advertisers, and it may as well be said in the world, is H. H. Warner of Rochester, N. Y., whose name has been made everywhere familiar in connection with Warner's Safe Cure, widely advertised because of its merit in the prevention and cure of kidney diseases.

By printer's ink this great discovery has achieved world-wide popularity and thousands feel grateful for the knowledge thus acquired of this greatest of modern remedies.

Furthermore, the public has been taught that disorders of the lungs, brain, heart and liver, which have hitherto been regarded and treated by the profession as distinctive diseases are not so in fact, but are the attending symptoms of disease of the kidneys; therefore, the consumptive, the apoplectic, the paralytic, and the sufferer from nervous disorders can be restored to health by Warner's Safe Cure, which will remove the true cause by restoring the kidneys to healthy action.

The advertising methods employed by this greatest of advertisers are invariably instructive and, although the reader may sometimes be "caught" in reading an advertisement, which was not at first supposed to be such, there is nevertheless no time lost, since useful information is invariably gained concerning life's great problem.

NOTES.

- (a) White had probably calculated on taking the Bishop, but now saw that he could not save the Knight.
 (b) A beautiful sacrifice of the Queen, which finishes the game in Delmar's finest style.

NEW SPRING BOOKS!

ALAN THORNE.

By MRS. MARTHA LIVINGSTON MOODEY. 12mo. $1.25.

All who are interested in the solution of the great problems that vex society to-day, should read "Alan Thorne." While not second to "Robert Elsmere" in its strong humanitarianism, it represents the higher inspiration and motive, the happy combination of faith and works which alone stands for the truest Christianity. Simple, earnest, unsectarian, illustrating by example rather than by argument, it is a book to strengthen belief, to cheer and encourage rather than to bewilder and dishearten.

Its pictures of the home life of the poor are as vivid as Dickens', and its treatment of the temperance question is masterly in its realism.

Every home should feel its delightful influence. Every thoughtful reader, young or old, will be the better for its teachings; while to the many earnest Christians wounded by the specious doctrines of Mrs. Ward, it will be a message of healing and refreshment.

ACROSS LOTS.

By HORACE LUNT. 12mo. $1.25.

Horace Lunt has the same loving sympathy with nature and the same delicacy of touch as Thoreau and Burroughs, while he imitates neither. "A March Ramble," "Wood Notes and Nest Hunting," "Cross-Cut Views in Winter," hint at some of the attractions of the book, but can give no idea of its peculiar charm. No one familiar with the pleasures of country life can afford to miss reading it.

VAGABOND TALES.

By HJALMAR HJORTH BOYSEN. 12mo. $1.25.

Prof. Boyesen's "Vagabond Tales," is a most engaging collection of this popular story-teller's recent "novellets." There is a breeziness, a vigour and a manliness about his characters that captivate the reader at once, and combine dramatic force with literary skill. Some of these stories have already been translated into French, German and Spanish.

GLIMPSES OF GREAT FIELDS.

By Rev. J. A. HALL. 12mo. $1.25.

A timely book, and pertinent as timely. It undertakes to defend the old faith in the established beliefs of Christianity, which have been so strongly assailed lately, not by an appeal to revelation, but by meeting scientists and philosophers on their own ground. The argument is logical, and the language so clear and concise that it is easily understood.

FIVE LITTLE PEPPERS,

AND HOW THEY GREW. By MARGARET SIDNEY. New edition, illustrated, quarto, illuminated board covers, only 25 cents. Regular edition, cloth, $1.50.

The best, the breeziest, the brightest story of childhood's real humanity yet written. No home, with children should be without it.

At the Bookstores, or sent by the Publishers.

D. LOTHROP COMPANY, - - BOSTON, MASS.

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & CO.'S
NEW BOOKS.

THE OPEN DOOR. A Novel. By BLANCHE WILLIS HOWARD, author of "One Summer," "Guenn," etc. Crown 8vo. $1.50.

This story promises to be one of the most notable literary features of the season. The scenes and characters are German, some of them peculiarly charming; while the narrative is vigorous, picturesque and engaging, such as readers of "One Summer" and "Guenn" recall with delight.

PROLEGOMENA TO IN MEMORIAM. By THOMAS DAVIDSON. With an Index. 12mo. $1.25.

Mr. Thomas Davidson, well known as a profound scholar and critic, has prepared a book which merits a hearty welcome from all who appreciate the great qualities of Tennyson's world-famous poem.

A SATCHEL GUIDE. For the vacation Tourist in Europe. Edition for 1889, revised, and printed from entirely new plates. $1.50.

JOHN LOTHROP MOTLEY. By OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES. 16mo. $1.50.

"An admirable memoir of a remarkable man."

Houghton, Mifflin & Co., Boston.
