CANADA

...partner

...ally

...a free and independent country

...sharing with the United States generations of peace, prosperity and cooperation.

What Canada means to the United States:

...a dependable market

...a home for investment

...strategic resources

...a shared environment

...a sophisticated partner in advanced R&D

...the favoured location for international travel

...partners in continental defence

Canadian products...Canadian innovations...help you get on with your business. The things Americans use every day, like newspapers, automobiles and telephones, rely on Canadian exports and ingenuity.

CANADA...a distinctive society...proud of its unique identity...yet conscious of shared attitudes and values that make Canada and the United States partners and friends.
