

ARTICLE 10Making Persons in Custody Available to Give Evidence or Assist Investigations

1. A person in custody in the jurisdiction of the Requested Party shall, at the request of the Requesting Party, be temporarily transferred to the Requesting Party to assist investigations or to give evidence in proceedings provided that the person consents to that transfer and there are no overriding grounds against transferring the person. The Requesting Party shall hold that person in custody and shall return the person in custody to the Requested Party at the conclusion of the execution of the request.
2. Where the sentence imposed expires, or where the Requested Party advises the Requesting Party that the transferred person is no longer required to be held in custody, that person shall be set at liberty and be treated as a person invited pursuant to Article 8 of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE 11Safe Conduct

1. A person present in the jurisdiction of the Requesting Party in response to a request seeking that person's attendance shall not be detained or subjected to any other restriction of personal liberty except as specified in Article 10(1) of the present Treaty, nor shall that person be prosecuted for any acts or omissions which preceded that person's departure from the jurisdiction of the Requested Party, nor shall that person be obliged to give evidence in any proceeding other than the proceedings to which the request relates.
2. Paragraph 1 of this Article shall cease to apply if a person, being free to leave the jurisdiction of the Requesting Party, has not left it within a period of thirty days after being officially notified that that person's attendance is no longer required or, having left that jurisdiction, has voluntarily returned.
3. Any person who fails to appear in the jurisdiction of the Requesting Party may not be subjected to any sanction or compulsory measure by the Requested Party.

ARTICLE 12Proceeds of Crime

1. The Requested Party shall, upon request, endeavour to ascertain whether any proceeds of a crime are located within its jurisdiction and shall notify the Requesting Party of the results of its inquiries. In making the request, the Requesting Party shall notify the Requested Party of the basis of its belief that such proceeds may be located in the latter's jurisdiction.
2. Where, pursuant to Paragraph 1 of this Article, suspected proceeds of crime are found, the Requested Party shall take such measures as are permitted by its law to restrain, seize and confiscate such proceeds.
