

Acknowledgements

It is with deep appreciation that I would like to thank all the senior executives, and their executive assistants, of the companies that participated in the survey, for allowing me to share a few precious moments of their time. It is only through their eyes, their experiences, and their dedication to the profession, that a wide range of points of view have been expressed.

To Mr. Pat Fera, who, as a dedicated Canadian Government Trade Commissioner, based in Ottawa, Canada, has supported my Business Development initiatives for more than ten years. It is without a doubt, that if it were not for his whole-hearted dedication, this market study would not be published.

To Canadian animator and educator, Mr. Zenon Fedory, who resides in Fredericton, New Brunswick, who skilfully prepared the book cover illustration.

Finally, for the diligent reader, who without magnifying glass in hand, may discover an error, pronounced in the spelling, befuddled in the grammar, or disguised in the style, please do not hesitate to lay blame at my doorstep.
