

The relationship between Israel and Canada is one of the world's great partnerships—one built on trust, democracy and friendship.

