

5. The rights enumerated in paragraph 4 shall be exercised only after consultations between the aeronautical authorities of the Contracting Parties are held in accordance with Article 17 unless immediate action is required to:

- (a) prevent infringement of the laws and regulations; or
- (b) ensure safety or security in accordance with the provisions of Article 5 or 6.

ARTICLE 4

Application of Laws

1. Each Contracting Party shall require compliance with:

- (a) its laws, regulations and procedures relating to the admission to, remaining in, or departure from its territory of aircraft engaged in international air navigation, or to the operation and navigation of such aircraft, by the designated airlines of the other Contracting Party upon entrance into, departure from and while within its territory; and
- (b) its laws and regulations relating to the admission to, remaining in, or departure from its territory of passengers, crew members and cargo including mail (such as regulations relating to entry, clearance, transit, aviation security, immigration, passports, customs and quarantine) by the designated airlines of the other Contracting Party and by or on behalf of the passengers and crew members, and the cargo, including mail, carried by the designated airlines of the other Contracting Party, on transit through, admission to, departure from and while within the territory.

2. In the application of the laws, regulations, and procedures set out in paragraph 1, each Contracting Party shall, under similar circumstances, accord to the designated airlines of the other Contracting Party treatment no less favourable than that accorded to its own or any other airline engaged in similar international air services.
