

Order Paper Questions

PROPOSAL TO ACQUIRE CONTROL

Question No. 4,649—Mr. Leggett:

1. In the case of the proposal of Orenstein & Koppel Aktiengesellschaft to acquire control of IM Division of Clark Equipment of Canada Ltd. under the Foreign Investment Review Act (a) what conditions were attached to the approval respecting (i) increased employment (ii) new investment (iii) increased resource processing or use of Canadian parts and services (iv) additional exports (v) Canadian participation (such as shareholders, directors or managers) (vi) improved productivity and industrial efficiency (vii) enhanced technological development (viii) improved product variety and innovation (ix) beneficial impact on competition (x) compatibility with industrial and economic policies (b) what time was permitted for compliance with the attached conditions (c) what was the last date of government review of compliance with the attached conditions?

2. As of the last date of review or as of January 31, 1976 (a) how many new jobs were created (b) what was the level of increase in new investment (c) what was the increase in resource processing or use of Canadian parts or service (d) what improvement in Canadian participation has occurred (e) what has been the increase in productivity and industrial efficiency (f) in what respect has technological development been enhanced (g) in what respect has product variety and innovation occurred (h) in what respect has competition been beneficially affected?

Mr. Marcel Roy (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of Industry, Trade and Commerce): See reply to question No. 4,642.

PROPOSAL TO ACQUIRE CONTROL

Question No. 4,650—Mr. Leggett:

1. In the case of the proposal of Cosmair (Canada) Ltd. to acquire control of Du Barry Cosmetics Division of Warner-Lambert Co. under the Foreign Investment Review Act (a) what conditions were attached to the approval respecting (i) increased employment (ii) new investment (iii) increased resource processing or use of Canadian parts and services (iv) additional exports (v) Canadian participation (such as shareholders, directors or managers) (vi) improved productivity and industrial efficiency (vii) enhanced technological development (viii) improved product variety and innovation (ix) beneficial impact on competition (x) compatibility with industrial and economic policies (b) what time was permitted for compliance with the attached conditions (c) what was the last date of government review of compliance with the attached conditions?

2. As of the last date of review or as of January 31, 1976 (a) how many new jobs were created (b) what was the level of increase in new investment (c) what was the increase in resource processing or use of Canadian parts or service (d) what improvement in Canadian participation has occurred (e) what has been the increase in productivity and industrial efficiency (f) in what respect has technological development been enhanced (g) in what respect has product variety and innovation occurred (h) in what respect has competition been beneficially affected?

Mr. Marcel Roy (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of Industry, Trade and Commerce): See reply to question No. 4,642.

PROPOSAL TO ACQUIRE CONTROL

Question No. 4,651—Mr. Leggett:

1. In the case of the proposal of Hughes Tool Company to acquire control of BJ Well Services Ltd. under the Foreign Investment Review Act (a) what conditions were attached to the approval respecting (i) increased employment (ii) new investment (iii) increased resource processing or use of Canadian parts and services (iv) additional exports (v) Canadian participation (such as shareholders, directors or managers) (vi) improved productivity and industrial efficiency (vii) enhanced technological development (viii) improved product variety and innovation (ix) beneficial impact on competition (x) compatibility with industrial and economic policies (b) what time was permitted for compliance with the attached conditions (c) what was the last date of government review of compliance with the attached conditions?

[Mr. Roy (Laval).]

2. As of the last date of review or as of January 31, 1976 (a) how many new jobs were created (b) what was the level of increase in new investment (c) what was the increase in resource processing or use of Canadian parts or service (d) what improvement in Canadian participation has occurred (e) what has been the increase in productivity and industrial efficiency (f) in what respect has technological development been enhanced (g) in what respect has product variety and innovation occurred (h) in what respect has competition been beneficially affected?

Mr. Marcel Roy (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of Industry, Trade and Commerce): See reply to question No. 4,642.

PROPOSAL TO ACQUIRE CONTROL

Question No. 4,652—Mr. Leggett:

1. In the case of the proposal of Tomeson-Alexander Associates to acquire control of Retirement Plan Services Ltd. under the Foreign Investment Review Act (a) what conditions were attached to the approval respecting (i) increased employment (ii) new investment (iii) increased resource processing or use of Canadian parts and services (iv) additional exports (v) Canadian participation (such as shareholders, directors or managers) (vi) improved productivity and industrial efficiency (vii) enhanced technological development (viii) improved product variety and innovation (ix) beneficial impact on competition (x) compatibility with industrial and economic policies (b) what time was permitted for compliance with the attached conditions (c) what was the last date of government review of compliance with the attached conditions?

2. As of the last date of review or as of January 31, 1976 (a) how many new jobs were created (b) what was the level of increase in new investment (c) what was the increase in resource processing or use of Canadian parts or service (d) what improvement in Canadian participation has occurred (e) what has been the increase in productivity and industrial efficiency (f) in what respect has technological development been enhanced (g) in what respect has product variety and innovation occurred (h) in what respect has competition been beneficially affected?

Mr. Marcel Roy (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of Industry, Trade and Commerce): See reply to question No. 4,642.

PROPOSAL TO ACQUIRE CONTROL

Question No. 4,653—Mr. Leggett:

1. In the case of the proposal of Bestpipe Ltd. to acquire control of Flex-Lox Industries under the Foreign Investment Review Act (a) what conditions were attached to the approval respecting (i) increased employment (ii) new investment (iii) increased resource processing or use of Canadian parts and services (iv) additional exports (v) Canadian participation (such as shareholders, directors or managers) (vi) improved productivity and industrial efficiency (vii) enhanced technological development (viii) improved product variety and innovation (ix) beneficial impact on competition (x) compatibility with industrial and economic policies (b) what time was permitted for compliance with the attached conditions (c) what was the last date of government review of compliance with the attached conditions?

2. As of the last date of review or as of January 31, 1976 (a) how many new jobs were created (b) what was the level of increase in new investment (c) what was the increase in resource processing or use of Canadian parts or service (d) what improvement in Canadian participation has occurred (e) what has been the increase in productivity and industrial efficiency (f) in what respect has technological development been enhanced (g) in what respect has product variety and innovation