EXPORT DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

Question No. 2,259—Mr. McKenzie:

1. What are the Canadian content guidelines of the Export Development Corporation?

2. Are the Canadian content guidelines strictly adhered to or is there a provision for exceptions?

3. Has the Corporation made an exception for the Federal Express Company of New York in its transactions with Canadair for the Learstar jet and, if so (a) what are the details (b) who was responsible for the decision and on what grounds was it made?

Mr. Hugh Poulin (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of Industry, Trade and Commerce): In so far as Export Development Corporation is concerned: 1. EDC's policy on Canadian content is to maximize the content as much as possible in every instance.

2. There are no exceptions from that policy.

3. By tradition, and as a matter of commercial principle parliament has not required the corporation to give details of its activity in individual transactions.
