March 26th, 1925.

Sir Arthur Currie, G.C.M.G., K.C.B., Principal,
McGill University,
Montreal.

Dear Sir Arthur:-

I have yours of the 23rd, regarding young McKecheaney. There isn't a thing that I could offer him down here at present. Our clerical strength does not vary greatly. The only time we have a vacancy is when someone dies or resigns. I would suggest that you send him to one of the steamship companies, as they will be taking on additional staff on the wharf as soon as navigation opens.

Yours faithfully,

W. McLaughlin

president.
