

VANCOUVER, B. C.

Aug. 3rd 1931

Dear Sir Arthur

On our journey across the continent we have been considering the question of the Montreal Museum Survey and have come to the conclusion that Dr Cyril Fox, the Director of the National Museum of Wales, Cardiff, is the best man for this important piece of work.

I have now invited him to undertake the report, and it is understood that he is to receive £100 from your University if