COMMENDATIONS

“The Baptists of Nova Scotia are much indebted to Mr. Davis for the publication of his acceptable volume. It is not only well ‘got up’ externally, but in a literary point of view is worthy of high commendation for the clearness and force of its style. The religious reader, especially of the ministerial class, cannot but be instructed and edified by the perusal.” Rev. Dr. CRAMP.

“Mr. Davis has, with a faithful hand, given just prominence to the revival feature in the life of Mr. Harding. . . . Not a few, I am assured, will be glad to see the memoir so happily introduced by the aged brother who is known to have always felt an ardent attachment to the excellent pioneers in the raising of our churches in this country.” Rev. Dr. CRAWLEY.
