

examinations shall be first submitted to the Principal.

44. Teachers are expected to refrain from the discussion, in the schools, of political and ecclesiastical questions, and to remember that the public schools are intended for the children of all, without regard to the party principles of any, in matters religious or political.

45. Fire Drills should be held at least twice a month.

They should not be held at regular times.

There should be a special signal given with the bell, which should be given only for Fire Drill.

Teachers should dismiss pupils at once, and always in the same way, on hearing the signal.

Pupils should not wait to put on clothing.

They should be urged to walk quickly, but they must keep in line and avoid crowding.

Teachers and large pupils should be stationed at the foot of stairways and in other important positions, to raise any who may fall. They should be specially trained in reaching their positions with great promptness.

The object of the Fire Drills being to prevent a panic in case of a real fire, it is desirable,
